Making China Modernized:

In Making China Modernized Wenhui Cai, 1996 In Making China Modernized Wenhui Cai, 1993 The Modernization of China Rozman, 1982-08 In the Modernization of China an interdisciplinary team of scholars collaborate closely to provide the first systematic integrated analysis of China in transformation from an agrarian based to an urbanized and industrialized society Moving from the legacy of the Ming and Ch'ing dynasties to the reforms and revolutions of the 20th century the authors seek reasons for China's inability to achieve rapid steady growth during a 200 year long struggle to modernize They examine the changing shape of Chinese society the role of the state in local politics military affairs economics the development of the educational system changes in family population and settlement patterns science and technology world views and foreign relations And they make frequent comparisons between China's experience with growth and that of two other latecomers to modernization Japan and Russia The result is a book that brings much needed clarity and perspective to our understanding of China and the way a great civilization attempts to meet the challenge of modernity

China's Modernization II Gerhard Preyer, 2015-09-09 The idea of only one way leading to a modern society seems to be hardly tenable But even if we agree to this our theories and terms describing modernization are gained on our own Western history So social science has to reconsider its basic terms to describe China's modernization and maybe even the understanding of modernization itself The second of two volumes on China's modernization collects articles by leading Chinese and Western scientists focusing on the main conflicts and differences this process involves In the first section On Contemporary Theory of Modernization Manuśos Marangudakis represents Shmuel N Eisenstadt's concept of Multiple Modernities and the Theory of Indeterminacy one of the best elaborated perspectives on modernity Changing China Dealing with Diversity the second section examines how China copes with dissent and discusses the significance of law and a civil society Merle Goldman begins with Dissent of China's Public Intellectuals in the Post Mao Era The Modernization of Law in China its Meaning Achievements Obstacles and Prospect is the subject of Qingbo Zhang Scott Wilson presents a Gramscian analysis of civil society in China's State in the Trenches And Francis Schortgen and Shalendra Sharma study how China is Manufacturing Dissent Domestic and International Ramifications of China's Summer of Labor Unrest Neoliberalism and the Changes in East Asian Welfare and Education is the focus of the third section Beatriz Carrillo Garcia investigates the Business Opportunities and Philanthropic Initiatives in China Time Politics and Homelessness in Contemporary Japan is the subject of Ritu Vij Different school books show the Educational Modernisation Across the Taiwan Straits by David C Schak And Ho fung Hung discusses the role of China in globalization following the question Is China Saving Global Capitalism from the Global Crisis The additional rubric On Contemporary Philosophy involves three articles about International Development Paradox and Phronesis by Robert Kowalski The World in the Head by Robert Cummins and Communication Cooperation and Conflict by Steffen Borge Content and abstracts www.protosociology.de China's Modernization I Georg

China's Modernizing Military Kenneth S. Fu, 2001 Does China have the military capability to threaten Taiwan What are China's intentions with its newly modernizing military How much of a threat does that pose to the United States The assumption generally is that the United States will intervene in some form in the event that China attacked Taiwan But what if the U S does not intervene and Taiwan does not succumb to threats alone Can China back up its threats and succeed in an invasion of Taiwan using only its conventional forces How successful has the PLA modernization drive been so far and what promise does it hold in the next few years to achieve the objective of taking Taiwan back by force The purpose of this thesis is to measure the results of China's military modernization efforts and determine if the PLA has the capability to defeat Taiwan in a conventional war and succeed in an invasion of the island Abstract from web site

Secularization and China's Modernization Zhongmin Wu, 2024-12-17 This open access book examines from the perspective of secularization Since the publication of Max Weber's Protestant Ethics and the Spirit of Capitalism how to realize modernization in developing countries has become an urgent problem to be demonstrated Secularization has becoming endogenous power for Chinese modernization procedure especially since 1978 However to understand the foundation of secularization it is inevitable to tracing back to Chinese history This approach contains critical analysis and profound insight to illuminate the essence of secularization in contemporary Chinese context The author also applies the comparative approach by comparing with Protestant ethics in many Western European countries the significance of secularization has been emphasized The widespread and intense secularization boosts China into the trend modernization that covers nearly all aspects of society This book is in need for those who intended to discern the truth of Chinese modernization It is also a key tool of reflecting modernization and development in a broader sense

Reinventing Modern China Huaiyin Li, 2012-10-31 This work offers the first systematic analysis of writings on modern Chinese history by historians in China from the early twentieth century to the present It traces the construction of major interpretive schemes the evolution of dominant historical narratives and the unfolding of debates on the most controversial issues in different periods Placing history writing in the context of political rivalry and ideological contestation Huaiyin Li explicates how the historians' dedication to faithfully reconstructing the past was compromised by their commitment to an imagined trajectory of history that fit their present day agenda and served their needs of political legitimation Beginning with an examination of the contrasting narratives of revolution and modernization in the Republican period the book scrutinizes changes in the revolutionary historiography after 1949 including its disciplinization in the 1950s and early 1960s and radicalization in the rest of the Mao era It further investigates the rise of the modernization paradigm in the reform era the crises of master narratives since the late 1990s and the latest development of the field Central to the author's analysis is the issue of truth and falsehood in historical representation Li contends that both the revolutionary and modernization historiographies before 1949 reflected historians' lived experiences and contained a degree of authenticity in mirroring the historical processes of their own times In sharp contrast both the revolutionary historiography of the Maoist era and the modernization historiography of the reform era were primarily products of historians' ideological commitment which distorted and concealed the past no less than revealed it In search of a more effective approach to rewriting modern Chinese history Reinventing Modern China proposes a within time open ended perspective which allows for different directions in interpreting the events in modern China and views modern Chinese history as an unfinished process remaining to be defined as the country entered the twenty first century
