Minority Education And Ethnic Survival:

Minority education and ethnic survival Michael Byram, 1984 Minority Education and Ethnic Survival Michael Byram, 1986 This book is a study of the relationship between the education system of a minority and its ethnic identity The study is based on ethnographic fieldwork in one of the minority s schools and focuses particularly on the experience of school leavers Methods in Dialectology Alan R. Thomas, 1988 This book reflects the current concerns of dialectologists as they exploit methodological tools in the twin contexts of insights which derive from sociology via sociolinguistics and their awareness of the interplay between synchronic variation and linguistic change Schooling in a Plural Canada John R. Mallea, 1989 This text adopts a case study approach to the analysis of schooling in a plural society It is divided into two parts the first providing a critical review of relevant theory the second focusing on the application of this theory in the Canadian context Afrikaner Dissidents Joha Louw-Potgieter, 1988 The aim of this book is to demystify Afrikaner identity It deals with the issue on a social psychological level within the framework of social identity theory and shows how specific social identity is constructed by some people for themselves and for others Bicultural and Trilingual Education Michael Byram, J. Leman, 1990 This is a collection of articles which describe and assess the Foyer Model a project for schooling minority children in Brussels which aims for bicultural and trilingual education It demonstrates the need for an appropriate education model in a culturally and linguistically complex society Australian Multiculturalism Lois E. Foster, 1988 This book is a documentary history and critique of the concept and policy of multiculturalism in Australia for the period 1970 to 1986 The book brings together for the first time a range of documents charting the emergence and implementation of multiculturalism across the main institutions of Australian society and culture The institutions covered in the book are education health and welfare the Church law media the realm of work and as a summarising chapter human rights and race and community relations in Australian society in the 1980s The wide range of documents and the critical thematic introduction and contexting make the book ideal as a teaching text for students in many disciplines and an invaluable research source Economic Survival Strategies of Turkish Migrants in London Olgu Karan, 2017-09-16 Economic Survival Strategies of Turkish Migrants in London by Olgu KARAN is about economic survival in the Turkish and Kurdish communities of North London with some interesting comparisons to the longer established Turkish Cypriot community It is to be welcomed that the study spans macro and micro levels Also to be welcomed is that it eschews the idea that identity and culture is fixed and unchanging providing some fascinating and important examples to the contrary and that it moves beyond essentially culturalist approaches to entrepreneurship and even more so mainstream individualist ones Dr Karan noticed that two ethnic communities in conflictual relationships with each other in home country Turkey are marshalling collective resources in a very cooperative way across ethnic boundaries and forming small business ventures and thus contributing to the empowerment and upgrading of their households and communities English in Wales Nikolas Coupland, Alan Richard

Thomas,1990 This sociolinguistic perspective on Wales takes account of both principal languages in contemporary life and in history It traces the conflicts and mutual influences of the two languages in shaping the sociolinguistic character of Wales and traces the way in which it has simultaneously come to function for many Welsh people as a vehicle for cultural continuity the means to an Anglo Welsh identity

Ethnicity, Race, and Nationality in Education N. Ken Shimahara,Ivan Z.

Holowinsky,Saundra Tomlinson-Clarke,2001-07-01 This volume explores contemporary issues of ethnic cultural and national identities and their influence on the social construction of identity These issues are analyzed from the perspective of seven nations China Israel Japan South Africa Ukraine Wales and the United States While different these perspectives are not mutually exclusive lenses through which to review the discourse between ethnic and educational dynamics The chapters in this book illustrate how these seven perspectives differ as well as overlap Part I explores ethnicity and race as important variables in explaining minority students academic performance and schooling in the United States and China Part II focuses on ethnic and racial identity issues in Israel Japan and South Africa Part III addresses ethnic and racial identity as it affects racial integration at different levels of education in post apartheid South Africa and the effects on schooling of a rapidly changing ethnic map in the United States Part IV focuses on issues of language and national identity in three countries Ukraine and Wales where a national language is central to nation building and China where 61 languages are in use and bilingual education is essential in enhancing national literacy and communication The questions this book addresses are highly significant in today s global economy and culture Scholars and professionals in the fields of comparative international and multicultural education and educational policy will find the volume particularly pertinent

The Asian American Educational Experience Donald Nakanishi,Tina Yamano,2014-04-04

The contributions to The Asian American Educationalexperience examine the most significant issues and concerns in the education of Asian Americans Contributors all leading experts in their fields provide theoretical discussions practical insights and recommendations historical perspectives and an analytical context for the many issues crucial to the education of this diverse population controversies in higher education over alleged admissions quotas stereotypes of Asian American students as whiz kids Asian Americans as the model minority bilingual education education of refugee and immigrant populations educational quality and equity Special emphasis is given to both the historic debates which have shaped the field and the concerns and challenges facing educators of Asian American students at both the K 12 and university level

From Foreign Language Education to Education for Intercultural Citizenship Michael Byram,2008-05-27

This collection of essays and reflections starts from an analysis of the purposes of foreign language teaching and argues that this should include educational objectives which are ultimately similar to those of education for citizenship It does so by a journey through reflections on what is possible and desirable in the classroom and how language teaching has a specific role in education systems which have long had and often still have the purpose of encouraging young people to identify with the nation state Foreign language education can break through this framework to introduce a critical internationalism In a globalised and internationalised world the importance of identification with people beyond the national borders is crucial Combined with education for citizenship foreign language education can offer an education for intercultural citizenship Leading Issues in Black Political Economy Thomas D.

Boston, 2018-01-16 Leading Issues in Black Political Economy brings together the foremost experts on issues ranging from employment training and education of African Americans It also emphasizes macro economic concerns of business development with special emphasis on long term trends of black owned businesses The work emphasizes welfare considerations in an anti welfare epoch and the role of affirmative action now that it is under attack Attention is given to the role of race in the continuing disparity of income distribution in American society The highlights of Leading Issues include An Employment and Business Strategy for the Next Century A Comment by Thomas D Boston Long Term Trends and Prospects for Black owned Business by Andrew F Brimmer Is the U S Small Business Administration a Racist Institution by Timothy Bates Worker Re Training and Labor Market Outcomes A New Focus for Labor Research by James B Stewart Race Cognitive Skills Psychological Capital and Wages by Arthur H Goldsmith William Darity Jr and Jonathan R Veum and Reparations and Public Policy by Richard F America The overall findings suggest that empirical wage equation specifications do matter The role of psychological capital is critical in the marketplace Race is indeed an important determinant of wages especially when the influence of both cognitive skills and psychological capital are included in the wage equation This volume will be of crucial interest to economists political scientists sociologists and policy analysts studying African American life Thomas D Boston is editor of the Review of Black Political Economy and professor of economics at the Georgia Institute of Technology He is the co editor with Catherine L Ross of The Inner City Urban Poverty and Economic Development in the Next Century also available from Transaction Christian Missionaries, Ethnicity, and State Control in Globalized Yunnan Gideon Elazar, 2023-10-31 Following the Communist Revolution of 1949 missionaries were kicked out of China and proselytizing was outlawed However since the beginning of the reform era China has witnessed a massive return of missionary workers Today there are more Christians in church on a given Sunday in China than anywhere else on the globe This book investigates the interaction of Western missionaries ethnic minorities and Han Chinese converts with the Chinese state in an increasingly globalized China Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork conducted in Yunnan it tries to make sense of the disparity between official state rhetoric and everyday reality Examining morality in the context of the free market system spatial practices linguistic activity and Christian welfare organizations Gideon Elazar reveals the ways in which the previously conflicting Communist Party and Christian civilizing projects have reached a measure of convergence enabling local authorities to treat missionaries with a degree of tolerance Elazar shows how this unofficial arrangement relates to the social realities and challenges of the reform era including ethnic culture and identity Yunnan s many social problems and the integration of ethnic minorities into the state system By exploring the continuously shifting social and religious borders negotiated by converts missionaries and state authorities in Southwest China this book sheds light on the larger issue of contemporary religion in China's global era It will be of interest to researchers of religion Christianity and minority groups in the People's Republic of China

Neurotic and Psychotic Language Behaviour Ruth Wodak, Pete Van de Craen, 1987 What is offered here is a collection of essays studying various aspects of neurotic and schizophrenic language behaviour The approach is interdisciplinary and although the contributors favour the view that human development is to a great extent influenced by the communicative experience physiological aspects are touched upon as well

The German-speaking community of Victoria between 1850 and 1930 Volkhard Wehner, 2018 At the time of Australian Federation in 1901 German immigrants constituted two per cent of the population of Victoria This book examines how they settled formed a communal infrastructure and how they related to their Anglo Celtic hosts It is shown that their attempts to form a cohesive community failed by investigating the role played by the Lutheran Church German associations community leaders and the rift between rural and urban communities The changing relationship between the British Empire the German Reich and emerging Australian nationalism receives close attention The book tests and then proves a hypothesis that rural communities were more resilient and better equipped to survive while urban communities were not

Bibliography on Ethnic Relations with Special Reference to Malaysia and Singapore Chee Beng Tan, 1992

Of Mind and Matter Peter Thaler, 2009 Thaler contributes to the literature on national identity in border areas and fills a gap in English language history of the particular region For many centuries he explains the duchy of Sleswig between the North and Baltic Seas formed a link and buffer between southern Denmark and northern Germany It is now partitioned between the two states and about the only people who even use the name are local people of one nationality who ended up in the other country It is there that he analyzes the composition and changeable nature of identity and explores what has motivated local inhabitants to define themselves as Germans or Danes Self identification is important he points out because there is little else to distinguish the two groups Among the dimensions he explores are politics history and culture changing times and biographies during the age of nationalism

Education, Ethnicity, Society and Global Change in Asia Gerard A. Postiglione, 2017-07-14 For more than three decades Gerard A Postiglione has witnessed the globalization of education and society in Hong Kong China and the wider Asian region His research emphasizes the diversity and complexity of the region from studies of education and the academic profession during Hong Kong's retrocession to reform of ethnic minority education and the rise of world class universities in the Chinese mainland as well as the complexity of mass higher education in an increasingly dynamic Asia This selection of 12 of his most representative papers and chapters documents his scholarship in comparative higher education in China Hong Kong and Asia
