Evocative, wry, and thought provoking, this is a rewarding journey with one of our finest writers. It is a little over a decade since Fiona Kidman wrote her last volume of memoir. But her story did not end on its last page; instead, her life since has been busier than ever, filled with significant changes, new writing, and fascinating journeys. From being a grandmother to becoming a widow, from the suitcase existence of book festivals to researching the lives and deaths of Jean Batten and Albert Black, she has found herself in new territory and viewed the familiar with fresh eyes. She takes us to Paris and Pike River, to Banff, Belfast, and Bangkok, searching for houses in Hanoi and Hawera, reliving her past in Waipu and creating new memories in Otago. These locations and experiences, among others, have shaped Fiona's recent years, and in this lively book, she shares the insights she has picked up along the way. A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21

Graduated High School in 1971, three months pregnant, I left my mother's house with my fiancé. The only thing I took with me were the clothes on my back, the things I read in books, the things my Grandmother taught me, which mainly involved cooking and cleaning, the Bible quotes and old folks tales my Grandmother used to say over and over, the few things my mother taught me during her brief and few periods of time into my life, and also a very special gift from God, which was the ability to play any musical instrument I chose to play. I thought I was grown and knew everything. What I didn't know was, although I was very smart, I was also very naive. I got married in 1972 and had another baby in 1974.
