Miriam's Kitchen Elizabeth Ehrlich, 1998-09-01 Like many Jewish Americans Elizabeth Ehrlich was ambivalent about her background She identified with Jewish cultural attitudes but not with the institutions she had fond memories of her Jewish grandmothers but she found their religious practices irrelevant to her life It wasn t until she entered the kitchen and world of her mother in law Miriam a Holocaust survivor that Ehrlich began to understand the importance of preserving the traditions of the past As Ehrlich looks on Miriam methodically and lovingly prepares countless kosher meals while relating the often painful stories of her life in Poland and her immigration to America These stories trigger a kind of religious awakening in Ehrlich who as she moves tentatively toward reclaiming the heritage she rejected as a young woman gains a new appreciation of life s possibilities choices and limitations

Conversations in a Park Regina Ryan, 2019 Conversations in a Park is a light hearted book of motivational musings peppered with research and wisdom from the worlds of psychology philosophy and classic literature Dr Regina Ryan argues that the chaos that accompanies motherhood should be countered by creating stolen moments throughout the day and using these with discipline and consistency to connect to your inner self through solitude daily rituals expressing creativity and learning how to condition yourself to choose one thought over another The main philosophy is to think small and in time you will find that the big has been hiding in the small all along Growing Up in the House of Doom Patt Gavin, 2007-03 Patt Gavin grew up as the third child in a family of nine mostly boys. Along with his six brothers they spent their childhood doing the things most boys do: catching animals, making messes, and terrorizing their sisters. Growing Up In The House Of Doom is a collection of stories from a time gone by when life was simpler and children actually spent time outdoors playing with other children in a real life setting. A time when children walked or rode their bikes to little league games and knew it was time to come home when the street lamps came on. Enjoy these memories of a group of boys who enjoyed their childhoods to the fullest in spite of the objections of their sisters.
