Literature Charles M. Tatum, 2022-07-26 The literary culture of the Spanish speaking Southwest has its origins in a harsh frontier environment marked by episodes of intense cultural conflict and much of the literature seeks to capture the epic experiences of conquest and settlement The Chicano literary canon has evolved rapidly over four centuries to become one of the most dynamic growing and vital parts of what we know as contemporary U S literature In this comprehensive examination of Chicano and Chicana literature Charles M Tatum brings a new and refreshing perspective to the ethnic identity of Mexican Americans From the earliest sixteenth century chronicles of the Spanish Period to the poetry and narrative fiction of the second half of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth century and then to the flowering of all literary genres in the post Chicano Movement years Chicano literature amply reflects the hopes and aspirations as well as the frustrations and disillusionments of an often marginalized population Exploring the work of Rudolfo Anaya Sandra Cisneros Luis Alberto Urrea and many more Tatum examines the important social historical and cultural contexts in which the writing evolved paying special attention to the Chicano Movement and the flourishing of literary texts during the 1960s and early 1970s Chapters provide an overview of the most important theoretical and critical approaches employed by scholars over the past forty years and survey the major trends and themes in contemporary autobiography memoir fiction and poetry The most complete and up to date introduction to Chicana literature available this book will be an ideal reference for scholars of Hispanic and American literature Discussion questions and suggested reading included at the end of each chapter are especially suited for classroom use Identity Lessons Maria Mazziotti Gillan, Jennifer Gillan, 1999-02-01 In stories and poems that explore how our society shapes us Identity Lessons features a wide array of

A Poet's Truth Bruce Allen Dick, 2022-02-22 Among students and aficionados of contemporary literature the work of Latina and Latino poets holds a particular fascination Through works imbued with fire and passion these writers have kindled new enthusiasm in their compatriots and admiration in non Latino readers This book brings together recent interviews with fifteen Latino poets a cross section of Chicano Puerto Rican and Cuban voices who discuss not only their work but also related issues that help define their place in American literature Each talks at length about the craft of his or her poetry both the influences and the process behind it and takes a stand on social and political issues affecting Latinos across the United States The interviews feature both established writers published as early as the 1960s and emerging artists each of whom has enjoyed success in other literary forms also As Bruce Dick's insightful questions reveal the key threads linking these writers are their connections to their families and communities and their concern for civil rights believing like Chicana writer Pat Mora that the work of the poet is for the people The interviews also reveal diversity among and within the three communities from Victor Hernandez Cruz who traces Latino collective identity to Africa and claims that all Latinos are swimming in olive oil to Cuban writer Gustavo Perez Firmat who considers nationality more important than ethnicity and says that the term Latino erases his nationality The dialogues also offer new insights on the place of Chicano writings in the U S Mexico borderlands on the Puerto Rican Nuyorican establishment and on the anti Castro stand of Cuban born poets As these writers answer questions about their work background ethnic identity and political ideology they provide a wealth of biographical intellectual and literary material collected here for the first time

A Poet's Truth is a provocative and revealing book that not only conveys the fire of these writers' passions but also sheds important light on a whole literary movement Interviews with Miguel Algarín Martín Espada Sandra María Esteves Victor Hernandez Cruz Carolina Hospital and Carlos Medina Demetria Martínez Pat Mora Judith Ortiz Cofer Ricardo Pau Llosa Gustavo Pérez Firmat Leroy Quintana Aleida Rodríguez Luis Rodríguez Benjamin Alire Sáenz Virgil Suárez
