Back on Track Bernie Shakeshaft, James Knight, 2019-07-09 As a kid Bernie Shakeshaft's mischievous and reckless behaviour led him to become known as the wild one of his devout Catholic family It isn't surprising that his path led him to the Northern Territory a place where people often go to either lose themselves or find themselves Bernie a searcher for his purpose in life found himself He had many jobs firstly as a ringer on a cattle station owned by the Packer family and later as a dingo trapper for the Parks and Wildlife Service Throughout it all he drank he swore he fought and took chances with his own well being But crucially he also developed deep connections with the Indigenous people and it was these connections that helped lay the foundations for what was to come He worked for youth welfare organisations and all the while he built up his knowledge about helping wayward youths particularly those from Indigenous communities Years later Bernie was living in Armidale He'd been visiting too many kids in prison and going to too many funerals The usual methods weren't working so that reckless mischievous kid inside him decided he could do better He started a youth program called BackTrack with three aims To keep them alive out of jail and chasing their hopes
