My Life in the Bush of Ghosts Amos Tutuola,1982 Scripting Empire James Procter,2024 A volume on the literary and cultural history of West Indian and West African writing at the BBC The volume covers over 40 different radio programmes which appeared within the Calling West Africa and Calling West Indies schedules between 1941 and 1965 and brings together a wide range of uncatalogued archive materials Music at the Borders Philip Hayward,1998 Not Drowning Waving formed in Melbourne in 1983 Over the next decade they became one of Australia s most original rock bands recording a series of inventive albums and attracting critical acclaim Music At The Borders provides a detailed history of one remarkable facet of their career their long term engagement with the music and musicians of Papua New Guinea Individual chapters analyse the Melbourne music culture from which the band emerged the musical style they developed their work with musicians associated with PNG s Pacific Gold Studios and the band s re union for the 1996 Sing Sing tour

Song and Circumstance Sytze Steenstra,2010-03-30 This is the first book to offer a full account of Byrne s sprawling artistic portfolio Metaphor and the Slave Trade in West African Literature Laura T. Murphy,2012-04-02 Metaphor and the Slave Trade provides compelling evidence of the hidden but unmistakable traces of the transatlantic slave trade that persist in West African discourse Through an examination of metaphors that describe the trauma loss and suffering associated with the commerce in human lives this book shows how the horrors of slavery are communicated from generation to generation Laura T Murphy s insightful new readings of canonical West African fiction autobiography drama and poetry explore the relationship between memory and metaphor and emphasize how repressed or otherwise marginalized memories can be transmitted through images tropes rumors and fears By analyzing the unique codes through which West Africans have represented the slave trade this work foregrounds African literary contributions to Black Atlantic discourse and draws attention to the archive that metaphor unlocks for scholars of all disciplines and fields of study David Bowie in Darkness Nicholas P. Greco,2015-07-10 As an artist David Bowie was widely considered a chameleon shedding one persona to create another and thus staying popular relevant and compelling In reality Bowie was able to work with the resources around him to create something new causing many to see him as a sort of lone artist rather than a collaborator in the creation of his own celebrity Mid career Bowie began presenting himself as a figure in darkness progressively more hidden He required an audience for his continued celebrity but worked against that audience in the creation or rather the destruction of his star image This tension is made clear in his 1995 album 1 Outside which has him performing for an audience while simultaneously shunning them This book explores Bowie's negotiation of his celebrity during his later career with particular focus on 1 Outside an album symptomatic of deep seated societal and personal anxiety 501 Essential Albums of the '80s Gary Graff, 2025-05-20 501 Essential Albums of 80s is the ultimate curated list detailing dozens of the decade's most influential releases across all genres featuring descriptions of the releases album art and artist imagery Against Ambience and Other Essays Seth Kim-Cohen, 2016-03-10 Against Ambience diagnoses in order to cure the art world's recent turn toward ambience Over the course of three short months June to September 2013 the four most prestigious museums in New York indulged the ambience of sound and light James Turrell at the Guggenheim Soundings at MoMA Robert Irwin at the Whitney and Janet Cardiff at the Met In addition two notable shows at smaller galleries indicate that this is not simply a major donor movement Collectively these shows constitute a proposal about what we wanted from art in 2013 While we're in the soft embrace of light the NSA and Facebook are still collecting our data the money in our bank accounts is still being used to fund who knows what without our knowledge or consent the government we elected is still imprisoning and targeting people with whom we have no beef We deserve an art that is the equal of our information age Not one that parrots the age's self assertions or modes of dissemination but an art that is hyper aware vigilant active engaged and informed We are now one hundred years clear of Duchamp's first readymades So why should we find ourselves so thoroughly in thrall to ambience Against Ambience argues for an art that acknowledges its own methods and intentions its own position in the structures of cultural power and persuasion Rather than the warm glow of light or the soothing wash of sound Against Ambience proposes an art that cracks the surface of our prevailing patterns of encounter initiating productive disruptions and deconstructions Drinking from the Cosmic Gourd B. Nyamnjoh, 2017-03-15 This book questions colonial and apartheid ideologies on being human and being African ideologies that continue to shape how research is conceptualised taught and practiced in universities across Africa Africans immersed in popular traditions of meaning making are denied the right by those who police the borders of knowledge to think and represent their realities in accordance with the civilisations and universes they know best Often the ways of life they cherish are labelled and dismissed too eagerly as traditional knowledge by some of the very African intellectual elite they look to for protection The book makes a case for sidestepped traditions of knowledge It draws attention to Africa's possibilities prospects and emergent capacities for being and becoming in tune with its creativity and imagination It speaks to the nimble footed flexible minded frontier African at the crossroads and junctions of encounters facilitating creative conversations and challenging regressive logics of exclusionary identities

The book uses Amos Tutuola's stories to question dualistic assumptions about reality and scholarship and to call for conviviality, interconnections and interdependence between competing knowledge traditions in Africa. The Reign of Anti-logos David Hawkes, 2020-11-24. The concept of performativity has risen to prominence throughout the humanities. The rise of financial derivatives reflects the power of the performative sign in the economic sphere. As recent debates about gender identity show, the concept of performativity is also profoundly influential on people's personal lives. Although the autonomous power of representation has been studied in disciplines ranging from economics to poetics, however, it has not yet been evaluated in ethical terms. This book supplies that deficiency, providing an ethical critique of performative representation as it is manifested in semiotics, linguistics, philosophy, poetics, theology and economics. It constructs a moral criticism of the performative sign in two ways: first by identifying its rise to power as a single phenomenon manifested in various different areas, and second by locating efficacious representation in its historical context, thus connecting it to idolatry, magic, usury and similar performative signs. The book concludes by suggesting that earlier ethical critiques of efficacious representation might be revived in our own postmodern era.

The Ashgate Encyclopedia of Literary and Cinematic Monsters Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock, 2016-04-01. From vampires and demons to ghosts and zombies, interest in monsters in literature, film and popular culture has never been stronger. This concise Encyclopedia provides scholars and students with a comprehensive and authoritative A-Z of monsters throughout the ages. It is the first major reference book on monsters for the scholarly market. Over 200 entries, written by experts in the field, are accompanied by an overview introduction by the editor. Generic entries such as ghost and vampire are cross-listed with important specific manifestations of that monster. In addition to monsters appearing in English language literature and film, the Encyclopedia also includes significant monsters in Spanish, French, Italian, German, Russian, Indian, Chinese, Japanese, African and Middle Eastern traditions. Alphabetically organized, the entries each feature suggestions for further reading. The Ashgate Encyclopedia of Literary and Cinematic Monsters is an invaluable resource for all students and scholars and an essential addition to library reference shelves.

On Some Faraway Beach David Sheppard, 2009-05-01. Meticulously researched, an engaging read. The definitive story of one of rock's most fascinating figures. The Independent: With his uninhibited fondness for sex and intriguing cultural hypotheses, Eno comes across in On a Faraway Beach as an archetypal man of the 1970s. The Sunday Times: Few record collections remain untouched by Brian Eno's aesthetic DNA, from ambient soundscapes and world music hybrids to cut-n-paste vocal samples and amniotic chill-out rooms. Eno is all around us. A sonic alchemist to the stars, his address book is a veritable who's who of rock, and his credit adorns an outrageous number of albums. Tellingly, Eno's work with Roxy Music, David Bowie, Talking Heads, Devo, U2 and Coldplay has coincided with those artists producing their most critically revered work. On Some Faraway Beach is the first serious critical examination of the life and times of Brian Eno. David Sheppard has interviewed key collaborators like David Byrne, Robert Wyatt, John Cale, Bryan Ferry and Gavin Bryars. But more importantly, Sheppard has had considerable assistance and input from Brian and Anthea Eno themselves while retaining an edge and independence in keeping with his subject Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence Teresa N. Washington, 2014-02-25 Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence Divinity in Africana Life Lyrics and Literature is a remarkable study and the first of its kind Teresa N Washington eschews popular culture s pimp myths and thug sagas and traces the Africana man s power creativity and consciousness to his inherent divinity Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence takes the reader to the source of power with an analysis of African Divinities and divine technologies Washington explores the permanence and proliferation of African Gods from oppressive plantations to the empowering proclamations of such leaders as W D Fard Marcus Garvey Father Divine and Allah the Father Washington analyzes the summonses to and from the Gods that resonate in the music of such artists as Erykah Badu The RZA Sun Ra X Clan and Rakim Using literary analysis as a prism to display the diversity of Africana divinity Washington reveals the literature of such writers as August Wilson Walter Mosley Toni Morrison Ngugi wa Thiong o and Ishmael Reed to be three way mirrors that eternally reflect and project the Gods their myriad powers and their weighty responsibilities Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence will prove indispensable to independent scholars as well as scholars of Comparative Literature Hip Hop Studies Gender Studies Africana Studies Literary Criticism and Religious Studies

Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea, 2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors

Sampling Politics Marianne Franklin, 2021 Music sampling has become a predominantly digitalized practice It was popularized with the rise of Rap and Hip Hop as well as ambient music scenes but it has a history stretching back to the earliest days of sound recording and experimental music making from around the world Digital tools and networks allow artists to sample music across national borders and from diverse cultural traditions with relative ease prompting questions around not only fair use copyright and freedom of expression but also cultural appropriation and copywrongs For example non commercial forms of sharing that are now commonplace on the web bring musicians and their audiences into closer contact with emerging regimes of commercial web tracking and state sponsored online surveillance Moreover when musicians actively engage in political or social causes through their music they are liable to both commercial and state forces of control Shifts back to corporate ownership and control of the global music business online and offline highlight competing claims for commercial and cultural ownership and control of sampled music from local communities music labels and artists Each case study is based on archival research close listening and musical analysis alongside conversations and public reflections from artists such as David Byrne Annirudha Das Asian Dub Foundation John Cage Brian Eno Sarah Jones Gil Scott Heron Karlheinz Stockhausen Dunya Yunis and Sonia Mehta Sampling Politics provides ways to listen and hear again how sampling practices and music making work on its own terms and in context In so doing M I Franklin corrects some errors in the public record addressing some longstanding misperceptions over the creative legal and cultural legacy of music sampling in some cases of rich and complex practices that have also been called musical borrowing cultural appropriation or theft This book considers the musicalities and musicianship at stake in each case as well as the respective creative practices and performance cultures underscoring the ethics of attribution and collaboration when sampling artists make music

Naturalizing Africa Cajetan Iheka, 2018 This book analyzes how African literary texts have engaged with pressing ecological problems in Africa It is a multi disciplinary text for both researchers and scholars of African Studies the environment and postcolonial literature

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

Against the Tide Kolski Horwitz, 2013-12-29 The four plays that make up this collection Thabo Mbeki and Other Nightmares by Tsepo wa Mamatu Circles by Tau Maserumule Comrade Babble by Allan Kolski Horwitz My Life in the Bush of Ghosts by Lesego Rampolokeng Liepollo Rantekoa Stacy Hardy and Jaco Bouwer The Life and Times of Brett Kebble by Patrick Bond have as a linking thread their confrontation with the ongoing corruption and mismanagement that characterizes the not so new liberated South Africa Stylistically quite different each breaks new ground in presenting these debilitating features and while tackling political themes head on never degenerates into mere sloganeering or counter propaganda Indeed they take contemporary South African playwriting to new heights of committed theatre
