Heath,2005-09 A lovely bookstore owner asked me why she should read this book I explained that in writing this book I undertook a purposeful investigation leading where angels and all good Baptists fear to tread It was during this attempt at explanation the picture formed in my mind of addressing an auditorium full of women My opening remark to them is Women hunger and thirst for romance What is it that men want The entire audience responds with a resounding chorus in unison with one word SEX I then ask No really ladies what do men really want Again with a single voice the chorus returns loudly SEX Seeing that I am getting nowhere fast I decide to try a new tack I ask Please ladies as a Romantic a Poet what do I as a man want Back it comes SEX There is a definite mind set at work here Okay honestly as a Romantic a Poet what do I want from a woman SEX Satisfied But my admission of common guilt is only true to a point Believe it or not ladies some men like myself want romance as much as you do It is in searching for this elusive thing that I have discovered so much that betrays you ladies in the very areas you are supposed to excel in the romance department I treat the causes and results of such betrayal in this book Pittsburgh and the Great Migration: Black Mobility and the Automobile The Frick Pittsburgh, Compiled by Kim Cady,2023 During the Great Migration of 1916 1940 over two million African Americans left the American South seeking a greater quality of life with the Steel City a major destination Men and women packed up what they could fit in a suitcase or the trunk of a car and left behind their homes and families in search of better opportunities in the budding industries of the North and Midwest They were escaping discriminatory laws and racial violence Purchasing a car was one of the first things African Americans did as they moved into the middle class providing a sense of freedom and autonomy unexperienced before This mobility and the freedom to come and go as one pleases revolutionized the Black middle class in Pittsburgh and played a pivotal role in the Great Migration s effects upon the region The Frick Pittsburgh s Car and Carriage Museum presents the harrowing history of Pittsburgh in the Great Migration and the role the car played in the growth of Black mobility and autonomy Catalog of Copyright Entries. The Marxist and the Movies Larry Ceplair,2007-11-16 As part of its effort to expose Communist infiltration in the United States and eliminate Communist influence on movies from 1947 1953 the House Committee on Un American Activities subpoenaed hundreds of movie industry employees suspected of membership in the Communist Party Most of them including screenwriter Paul Jarrico 1915 1997 invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions about their political associations They were all blacklisted In The Marxist and the Movies Larry Ceplair narrates the life movie career and political activities of Jarrico the recipient of an Oscar nomination for his screenplay for Tom Dick and Harry 1941 and the producer of Salt of the Earth 1954 one of the most politically besieged films in the history of the United States Though Jarrico did not reach the upper echelon of screenwriting he worked steadily in Hollywood until his blacklisting He was one of the movie industry s most engaged Communists working on behalf of dozens of social and political causes Song of Russia 1944 was one of the few assignments that allowed him to express his political beliefs through his screenwriting craft Though MGM

planned the film as a conventional means of boosting domestic support for the USSR a wartime ally of the United States it came under attack by a host of anti Communists Jarrico fought the blacklist in many ways and his greatest battle involved the making of Salt of the Earth Jarrico other blacklisted individuals and the families of the miners who were the subject of the film created a landmark film in motion picture history As did others on the blacklist Jarrico decided that Europe offered a freer atmosphere than that of the cold war United States Although he continued to support political causes while living abroad he found it difficult to find remunerative black market screenwriting assignments On the scripts he did complete he had to use a pseudonym or allow the producers to give screen credit to others Upon returning to the United States in 1977 he led the fight to restore screen credits to the blacklisted writers who like himself had been denied screen credit from the late 1940s to the mid 1960s Despite all the obstacles he encountered Jarrico never lost his faith in the progressive potential of movies and the possibility of a socialist future The Marxist and the Movies details the relationship between a screenwriter's work and his Communist beliefs From Jarrico's immense archive interviews with him and those who knew him best and a host of other sources Ceplair has crafted an insider's view of Paul Jarrico's life and work placing both in the context of U S cultural history
