My Mother My Daughter Women Speak About Relating Across The Generations:

My Mother, My Daughter Elaine K. McEwan-Adkins, 1992 The Mother / Daughter Plot Marianne Hirsch, 1989-10-22 Mothers and daughters the female figures neglected by classic psychoanalysis and submerged in traditional narrative are at the center of this book The novels of nineteenth and twentieth century women writers from the Western European and North American traditions reveal that the story of motherhood remains the unspeakable plot of Western culture Focusing on the feminine and more controversially on the maternal this book alters our perception of both the familial structures basic to traditional narrative the Oedipus story and the narrative structures basic to traditional representations of the family Freud's family romance Confronting psychoanalytic theories of subject formation with narrative theories Marianne Hirsch traces the emergence and transformation of female family romance patterns from Jane Austen to Marguerite Duras Male Poets and the Agon of the Mother Hannah Baker Saltmarsh, 2019-04-23 A thoughtful exploration of male poets' contributions to the literature of motherhood In the late 1950s the notion of a mother poem emerged during a confessional literary movement that freed poets to use personal psychosexual material about intimate topics such as parents' childhood failed marriages children infidelity and mental illness In Male Poets and the Agon of the Mother Hannah Baker Saltmarsh argues that male poets have contributed to what we think of as the literature of motherhood that confessional and postconfessional modes have been formative in the way male poets have grappled with the stories of their mothers and how those stories reflect on the writers and their artistic identities Through careful readings of formative elegies and homages written by male poets of this time Saltmarsh explores how they engaged with femininity and feminine voices in the 1950s and 60s and sheds light on the inheritance of confessional motifs of gender and language as demonstrated by postconfessional writers responding to the rich subject matter of motherhood within the contexts of history myth and literature A foreword is provided by Jo Gill professor of twentieth century and American literature in the Department of English and associate dean for education at the University of Exeter Mothers and Daughters Andrea O'Reilly, Sharon Abbey, 2000 In 1976 Adrienne Rich wrote in Of Woman Born Motherhood as Experience and Institution that the cathexis between mother and daughter_essential distorted misused_ is the great unwritten story O In the quarter century since Rich wrote those words the topic of mothers and daughters has emerged as a salient issue in feminist scholarship Using women's writing film feminist theory and personal experience contributors to Mothers and Daughters explore how the mother daughter relationship is represented and experienced as a site of empowerment This volume will offer readers an important and welcome chapter in the story of the complex relationship that is a part of nearly every woman's life Religious Change and Continuity Across Generations Maria T. Brown, Christel Gärtner, Merrill Silverstein, 2024-09-23 Religious Change and Continuity Across Generations Passing on Faith in Families of Six European and North American Nations brings together scholars of religious studies secularism and family science to examine how religion is passed down the generations in six European and North American nations

Taking a social change perspective within the context of family socialization theory the authors treat intergenerational change and continuity in religion and spirituality as occurring under specific national and historical conditions As such they consider the social forces that variously reinforce or inhibit transmission of religiosity across successive generations within families The volume provides a nuanced view of the role that societal context plays in religious transitions and transformations Chapters consider the strong influence of the Roman Catholic church in Italy Communist suppression of religion in Hungary aversion to religious discussions in Finland the East West Catholic Protestant divide in Germany and rapid religious deculturation in Canada and the U S Further each chapter takes a mixed methods approach using quantitative survey data to describe the strength and pattern of intergenerational transmission and interview data to clarify family dynamics by which parents and oftentimes grandparents influence the religious beliefs and practices of younger generations taking care to consider how the absence of religion is also conveyed to the next generation General Anthropology

Franz Boas,1944 Talking Appalachian Amy D. Clark,Nancy M. Hayward,2014-08-29 Tradition community and pride are fundamental aspects of the history of Appalachia and the language of the region is a living testament to its rich heritage Despite the persistence of unflattering stereotypes and cultural discrimination associated with their style of speech Appalachians have organized to preserve regional dialects complex forms of English peppered with words phrases and pronunciations unique to the area and its people Talking Appalachian examines these distinctive speech varieties and emphasizes their role in expressing local history and promoting a shared identity Beginning with a historical and geographical overview of the region that analyzes the origins of its dialects this volume features detailed research and local case studies investigating their use The contributors explore a variety of subjects including the success of African American Appalachian English and southern Appalachian English speakers in professional and corporate positions In addition editors Amy D Clark and Nancy M Hayward provide excerpts from essays poetry short fiction and novels to illustrate usage With contributions from well known authors such as George Ella Lyon and Silas House this balanced collection is the most comprehensive accessible study of Appalachian language available today Survey of Conditions of the Indians in the United States United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs,1932 Picturing the Family Silke Arnold-de Simine,Joanne Leal,2020-08-04 Whether pasted into an album framed or shared on social media the family photograph simultaneously offers a private and public insight into the identity and past of its subject Long considered a model for understanding individual identity the idea of the family has increasingly formed the basis for exploring collective pasts and cultural memory Picturing the Family investigates how visual representations of the family reveal both personal and shared histories evaluating the testimonial and social value of photography and film Combining academic and creative practice based approaches this collection of essays introduces a dialogue between scholars and artists working at the intersection between family memory and visual media Many of the authors are both researchers and practitioners whose chapters engage with their own work and that of others informed by critical frameworks From the act of revisiting old personal photographs to the sale of family albums through internet auction the twelve chapters each present a different collection of photographs or artwork as case studies for understanding how these visual representations of the family perform memory and identity Building on extensive research into family photographs and memory the book considers the implications of new cultural forms for how the family is perceived and how we relate to the past While focusing on the forms of visual representation above all photographs the authors also reflect on the contextualization and remediation of photography in albums films museums and online

Kinship Terminologies David B. Kronenfeld, 2023-12-11 This book examines Fanti kinship terminology from a variety of analytic and formal perspectives Based on work with a broad number of informants David B Kronenfeld details and analyzes internal variation in usage within the Fanti community shows the relationship between terminology and social groups and communicative usage and relates these findings to major theoretical work on kinship and on the intersections of language thought and culture The terminological analysis in this study employs a great variety of formal approaches assesses the strengths and weaknesses of each approach and covers a wide range of types of usage This work also performs a systematic formal analysis of behavior patterns among kin joining this approach with the analysis of a kinship terminological system Rather than treating kinship terminology as a special isolated piece of culture this study also ties its analysis to more general semantic and cultural theoretical issues Including computational and comparative studies of kinship terminologies this volume represents the fullest analysis of any kinship terminological system in the ethnographic record Tall Woman Rose Mitchell, 2001 Portrays Navajo weaver and midwife Tall Woman who held onto traditional Navajo ways raised twelve children and cared for the farm throughout her marriage to political leader and Blessingway singer Frank Mitchell The Migrant Maternal: Birthing New Lives Abroad Schultes Anna Kuroczycka, 2016-10-01 This edited volume explores how and why immigrant refugee mothers experiences differ due to the challenges posed by the migration process but also what commonalities underline immigrant refugee mothers lived experiences This book will add to the field of women s studies the much needed discussion of how immigrant and refugee mothers lives are dependent on cultural environmental and socio economic circumstances The collection offers multiple perspectives on migrant mothering by including ethnographic and theoretical submissions along with mothers personal narratives and literary analyses from diverse locales New Zealand Japan Canada The United States Turkey Italy and the Netherlands among others The first section of the volume focuses on mothers roles in the family institution and the pressures and responsibilities they face in creating and reproducing families physically and socially The second section shifts its attention to children and highlights mothers continued roles in the development of their children abroad along with the gendered generational dynamics in the settlement process and the resultant effects on motherhood responsibilities In all chapters readers will find how women negotiate their traditional roles in a new sociocultural milieu and how mothering processes are critical in creating connections with traditions and homelands

Songs for Dead Parents Erik Mueggler, 2017-12-02 In a society that has seen epochal change over a few generations what remains to hold people together and offer them a sense of continuity and meaning In Songs for Dead Parents Erik Mueggler shows how in contemporary China death and the practices surrounding it have become central to maintaining a connection with the world of ancestors ghosts and spirits that socialism explicitly disavowed Drawing on more than twenty years of fieldwork in a mountain community in Yunnan Province Songs for Dead Parents shows how people view the dead as both material and immaterial as effigies replace corpses tombstones replace effigies and texts eventually replace tombstones in a long process of disentangling the dead from the shared world of matter and memory It is through these processes that people envision the cosmological underpinnings of the world and assess the social relations that make up their community Thus state interventions aimed at reforming death practices have been deeply consequential and Mueggler traces the transformations they have wrought and their lasting effects Working Mother ,2003-06 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Handbook of Home Language Maintenance and Development Andrea C. Schalley,Susana A. Eisenchlas,2020-06-22 Even a cursory look at conference programs and proceedings reveals a burgeoning interest in the field of social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development To date however research on this topic has been published in piecemeal fashion subsumed under the more general umbrella of bilingualism Within bilingualism research there has been an extensive exploration of linguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives on the one hand and educational practices and outcomes on the other In comparison social and affective factors which lead people to either maintain or shift the language have been under researched This is the first volume that brings together the different strands in research on social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development ranging from the micro level family language policies and practices to the meso level community initiatives and the macro level mainstream educational policies and their implementation The volume showcases a wide distribution across contexts and populations explored Contributors from around the world represent different research paradigms and perspectives providing a rounded overview of the state of the art in this flourishing field Generation, Gender and Negotiating Custom in South Africa Elena Moore,2022-06-16 This book investigates how customary practices in South Africa have led to negotiation and contestation over human rights gender and generational power Drawing on a range of original empirical studies this book provides important new insights into the realities of regulating personal relationships in complex social fields in which customary practices are negotiated This book not only adds to a fuller understanding of how customary practices are experienced in contemporary South Africa but it also contributes to a large discussion about the experiences impact and ongoing negotiations around changing structures of gender and generational power and rights in contemporary South Africa It will be of interest to researchers across the fields of sociology family customary law gender social policy and African Studies Ebony ,1994-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine
