cathartic stories introduced by their now older and allegedly wiser authors From letters begging rescue from a hellish summer camp to catty locker notes about stuck up classmates to obsessive love that borders on stalking Mortified gives voice to the real and really pathetic hopes fears desires and creative urgings that have united adolescents for generations The Forgotten Graveyard Debbie Lakin, Moving to a new town is hard Moving to a very small town where everyone knows everyone is hard Being the new kid in school is hard and being the new kid that doesn't fit in is super hard Thankfully finding new friends has not been that hard even if some of them just happen to be dead Underwater Marisa Reichardt, 2025-06-25 Morgan didn't mean to do anything wrong that day Actually she meant to do something right But her kind act inadvertently played a role in a deadly tragedy In order to move on Morgan must learn to forgive first someone who did something that might be unforgivable and then herself But Morgan can't move on She can't even move beyond the front door of the apartment she shares with her mother and little brother Morgan feels like she's underwater unable to surface Unable to see her friends Unable to go to school When it seems Morgan can't hold her breath any longer a new boy moves in next door Evan reminds her of the salty ocean air and the rush she used to get from swimming He might be just what she needs to help her reconnect with the world outside Underwater is a powerful hopeful debut novel about redemption recovery and finding the strength it takes to face your past and move on
