My Old People Say An Ethnographic Survey Of Southern Yukon Territory:

MY OLD PEOPLE SAY: AN ETHNOGRAPHIC SURVEY OF SOUTHERN YUKON TERRITORY (PART 1). ,1973

My old people say: Part 2 Catharine McClellan,2001-01-01 Long out of print My Old People Say has remained a primary resource for students of the history and culture of northwestern North America Catherine McClellan s three decades of collaboration with the Inland Tlingit Tagish and Southern Tutchone resulted in two splendid scholarly volumes that document rich and detailed memories of late nineteenth century social organization subsistence strategies and resource allocation as well as aesthetic spiritual and intellectual traditions Published in English My Old People Say an Ethnographic Survey of Southern Yukon Territory National Museum of Man (Canada),1973 My Old People Say Catharine McClellan,1975

My Old People Say Catharine McClellan,Canadian Ethnology Service,Canadian Museum of Civilization,2001 My Old People Say Catharine MacClellan,2001 My old people say Catharine MacClellan,1975 My Old People Say Catharine McClellan,1975 This study of the traditional way of life of Indian bands in the southern Yukon includes Tutchone Tagish and Tlingit groups and covers life style kinship moiety and sib authority and control of resources and beliefs with a glossary of native terms in several languages My Old People Say Catharine McClellan,1960-09-01 My old people say: Part 1 Catharine McClellan,2001-01-01 Long out of print My Old People Say has remained a primary resource for students of the history and culture of northwestern North America Catherine McClellan s three decades of collaboration with the Inland Tlingit Tagish and Southern Tutchone resulted in two splendid scholarly volumes that document rich and detailed memories of late nineteenth century social organization subsistence strategies and resource allocation as well as aesthetic spiritual and intellectual traditions Published in English My Old People Say an Ethnographic Survey of Southern Yukon Territory National Museum of Man (Canada),C. McClellan,1973 My Old People Say. An Ethnographic Survey of Southern Yukon Territory. Two Parts Catharine McClellan,1975 Alaska Highway Explorer William C. Wonders,1994 Names along the Alaska Highway originate in native legends funny anecdotes pioneer life and characters who made the north their home These true stories tell the stories behind the places along the Adventure Road Giving Voice to Bear David Rockwell,2003-04-21 In this new edition of a classic David Rockwell describes the captivating and awe inspiring presence of the bear in Native American rituals The bear played a central role in shamanic rights initiation healing and hunting ceremonies and new year celebrations Considered together these traditions are another way of looking at the world one in which the mysteries of the universe are revealed through animals Haa Tuwunáagu Yís, for Healing Our Spirit Nora Dauenhauer,Richard Dauenhauer,1990 Haa Tuwunaagu Yis for Healing Our Spirit is the first publication of Tlingit oratory recorded in performance It features Tlingit texts with facing English translations and detailed annotations photographs of the orators and the settings in which the speeches were delivered and biographies of the elders There are thirty two speeches by twenty one Tlingit elders Most were taped between 1968 and 1988 but two speeches were recorded on wax cylinders by the

Harriman Expedition in Sitka in 1899 and are the oldest known sound recordings of Tlingit. The book is of importance both to native and non native readers alike. For those of Native American heritage it articulates concepts understood and practiced by elders but difficult for them to explain and often bewildering to younger generations. For people around the world interested in Northwest Coast culture it offers new insights into a traditional world view and the classics of Tlingit oral literature. Careful attention is given to transcription translation and annotation by the collaboration of Nora Marks Dauenhauer a native speaker of Tlingit and a published poet with a degree in anthropology and her husband Richard Dauenhauer a translator of European poetry and a former poet laureate of Alaska with a Ph D in comparative literature.

Trail of the Hare Joel S. Savishinsky, 2022-02-27 In this second edition of his classic work Joel Savishinsky expands and updates his highly acclaimed study of mobility and stress in a sub Arctic community of Hare Indians. Since the publication of the first edition the Hare have faced new challenges posed by clashes between aboriginal and contemporary values in the spheres of ecology culture and politics from the Hare's rising ethnic and political awareness as a Fourth World community to cultural disagreements over animal rights and environmental preservation. The second edition reframes the context of Savishinsky's original conclusions on human animal relations environmentalism and native white encounters to accommodate these new developments as well as current trends in anthropology itself.

Landscapes Beyond Land Arnar Árnason, 2012-09-15 Land is embedded in a multitude of material and cultural contexts through which the human experience of landscape emerges. Ethnographers with their participative methodologies long term co residence and concern with the quotidian aspects of the places where they work are well positioned to describe landscapes in this fullest of senses. The contributors explore how landscapes become known primarily through movement and journeying rather than stasis. Working across four continents they explain how landscapes are constituted and recollected in the stories people tell of their journeys through them and how in turn these stories are embedded in landscaped forms.

The Oxford Handbook of the Prehistoric Arctic T. Max Friesen, Owen K. Mason, 2016-08-05 The North American Arctic was one of the last regions on Earth to be settled by humans due to its extreme climate limited range of resources and remoteness from populated areas. Despite these factors it holds a complex and lengthy history relating to Inuit Iupiat Inuvialuit Yup'ik and Aleut peoples and their ancestors. The artifacts dwellings and food remains of these ancient peoples are remarkably well preserved due to cold temperatures and permafrost allowing archaeologists to reconstruct their lifeways with great accuracy. Furthermore the combination of modern Elders traditional knowledge with the region's high resolution ethnographic record allows past peoples lives to be reconstructed to a level simply not possible elsewhere. Combined these factors yield an archaeological record of global significance the Arctic provides ideal case studies relating to issues as diverse as the impacts of climate change on human societies the complex process of interaction between indigenous peoples and Europeans and the dynamic relationships between environment economy social organization and ideology in hunter gatherer societies. In the The Oxford Handbook of the Prehistoric Arctic each arctic cultural tradition is described in detail with up to date coverage of recent interpretations of all aspects of their lifeways Additional chapters cover broad themes applicable to the full range of arctic cultures such as trade stone tool technology ancient DNA research and the relationship between archaeology and modern arctic communities The resulting volume written by the region s leading researchers contains by far the most comprehensive coverage of arctic archaeology ever assembled Indigenous Experience Today Marisol de la Cadena,Orin Starn,2020-05-18 A century ago the idea of indigenous people as an active force in the contemporary world was unthinkable It was assumed that native societies everywhere would be swept away by the forward march of the West and its own peculiar brand of progress and civilization Nothing could be further from the truth Indigenous social movements wield new power and groups as diverse as Australian Aborigines Ecuadorian Quichuas and New Zealand Maoris have found their own distinctive and assertive ways of living in the present world Indigenous Experience Today draws together essays by prominent scholars in anthropology and other fields examining the varied face of indigenous politics in Bolivia Botswana Canada Chile China Indonesia and the United States amongst others The book challenges accepted notions of indigeneity as it examines the transnational dynamics of contemporary native culture and politics around the world Hunters and Bureaucrats Paul Nadasdy,2011-11-01 Based on three years of ethnographic research in the Yukon this book examines contemporary efforts to restructure the relationship between aboriginal peoples and the state in Canada Although it is widely held that land claims and co management two of the most visible and celebrated elements of this restructuring will help reverse centuries of inequity this book challenges this conventional wisdom arguing that land claims and co management may be less empowering for First Nation peoples than is often supposed The book examines the complex relationship between the people of Kluane First Nation the land and animals and the state It shows that Kluane human animal relations are at least partially incompatible with Euro Canadian notions of property and knowledge Yet these concepts form the conceptual basis for land claims and co management respectively As a result these processes necessarily end up taking for granted and so helping to reproduce existing power relations First Nation peoples participation in land claim negotiations and co management have forced them at least in some contexts to adopt Euro Canadian perspectives toward the land and animals They have been forced to develop bureaucratic infrastructures for interfacing with the state and they have had to become bureaucrats themselves learning to speak and act in uncharacteristic ways Thus land claims and co management have helped undermine the very way of life they are supposed to be protecting This book speaks to critical issues in contemporary anthropology First Nation law and resource management It moves beyond conventional models of colonialism in which the state is treated as a monolithic entity and instead explores how state power is reproduced through everyday bureaucratic practices including struggles over the production and use of knowledge
