Tho I've never called you "Mother"
In my heart I hope you know,
That you'll always be remembered
For the seeds of love you sow.

You'll forever be regarded
For your kind and gentle way,
For your words of love & guidance,
Things that only Mothers say.

And though I've never said it,
Still, I pray that you can see,

My Other Mother My Other Father

My Sister, My Brother Karen Baker-Fletcher, Garth Baker-Fletcher, 2002-06-19 This fresh new approach to African American theology brings two creative theologians into a lively dialogue between womanist and Xodus thought Karen Baker Fletcher writes from the perspective of womanism reflecting the interlocking issues of sex class and race that characterize the experience of African American women Garth KASIMU Baker Fletcher writes from the perspective of what he has termed Xodus theology With a name that resonates with reference both to the Exodus story the Cross and the self naming identity of Malcolm X Xodus reflects the perspective of a new generation of Black theology by males who have responded among other things to the challenges of womanist theology In successive chapters based on core themes of theology each author lays out his or her position They then engage in mutual critique and dialogue Both authors draw widely on the Bible and traditional theology as well as incorporating elements from both African and African American religious and cultural expression from the novels of Toni Morrison and Alice Walker to rap and hip hop My Sister My Brother weaves a bright theological tapestry that integrates female and male experience traditional and contemporary perspectives in an African American theology that promotes survival resistance healing liberation and transcendence CONTENTS Part I God God as Spirit and Strength of Life Xodus Intuitions of the Divine Part II Christ Immanuel Jesus as Dust and Spirit Jesus the Scandal of a God with a Body Part III Humanity Xodus Anthropology Womanhood A Way of Being Human Part IV Generations Unto All Generations Unto the Fathers Fathers Part V Church Spirit Church Having Church Part VI Last Things Future Now Xodus Eschatology Dust to Dust Spirit to Spirit A Womanist Eschatology

Wari Daniel L. Everett, Barbara Kern, 2002-09-11 First major study of any Chapakuran language Especially timely study since these languages are endangered The most comprehensive grammar to be published on any language of the Brazilian Amazon Promise Fulfilled Theresa Jones Bryant, 2013-05-20 Shantell Woods is haunted by her nightmares but is still devoted to counseling women every day at a local clinic When she is asked to facilitate a grief support group Shantell reluctantly accepts she has a dark secret buried deeper within herself Sara Proctor joins the support group knowing she has been successful in every aspect of her life except one Once married to the man of her dreams she longs to have a child But she has just uncovered her late husband's infidelity sending her down a heartbreaking path that challenges her faith and everything she has ever known Meanwhile Autumn Green who is battling breast cancer and grief over recently losing her parents in a car crash is pregnant With no room in her life for a baby and desperate for solace Autumn offers Sara a precious gift she never expected As Shantell slowly helps the two women work through their issues no one realizes that she is not who she says she is Promise Fulfilled is the poignant story of three women dealing with love loss and betrayal who must learn to find hope in their faith and each other as they each embark on a journey of self discovery

Mothering Alone Mary Kay O'Neil, 2022-07-21 The lives of women are inextricably linked to the well being of children If they are not educated if they are not healthy if they are not empowered the children are the ones who suffer UNICEF report

2006 The study this book is based upon was of a pioneering facilitating programme enabling low income mothers with little to no outside support to attend college or university The women s stories are told in their own words and are used to explore the importance of education as a way to improve their and their children s lives The book begins with an engaging Foreword from Rosemary H Balsam FRCPsych London MRCP Edinburgh Associate Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at Yale Medical School Followed by the author s introduction the book is then split into three parts Part I sets the background of the study itself and of Western societal attitudes towards single mothers over the centuries Mary Kay O Neil also investigates common maternal tasks the effect of parental and relational experiences the life impact of becoming a mother and the various influences on the decision mother alone Part II considers the characteristics basic to effective mothering resilience autonomy and caring In the light of the author s interest in women s development Part III explores the psychodynamic understanding of mothers alone without resources and outlines society s role in providing the opportunity for them to become successful mothers The parts are followed by an Afterword to summarise what was learned through the women s generous openness and to suggest societal improvements for increased opportunity The book closes with two Appendices The first tells the story of O Neil s mother who also mothered alone The second delivers the research findings of the study for those interested in learning more This clearly written book underlines the UNICEF statement above and does much to engage with the debate on support for those most vulnerable members of society

American Jewish Loss after the Holocaust Laura Levitt, 2007-11-01 Many of us belong to communities that have been scarred by terrible calamities And many of us come from families that have suffered grievous losses How we reflect on these legacies of loss and the ways they inform each other are the questions Laura Levitt takes up in this provocative and passionate book An American Jew whose family was not directly affected by the Holocaust Levitt grapples with the challenges of contending with ordinary Jewish loss She suggests that although the memory of the Holocaust may seem to overshadow all other kinds of loss for American Jews it can also open up possibilities for engaging these more personal and everyday legacies Weaving in discussions of her own family stories and writing in a manner that is both deeply personal and erudite Levitt shows what happens when public and private losses are seen next to each other and what happens when difficult works of art or commemoration such as museum exhibits or films are seen alongside ordinary family stories about more intimate losses In so doing she illuminates how through these ordinary stories we may create an alternative model for confronting Holocaust memory in Jewish culture

My Second Childhood K. L. Smith, 2025-03-17 My Second Childhood is a collection of my random thoughts and memories I have lived through my first childhood and many years of being an adult Everything has seasons in the sun including us The spring summer and fall of my life have passed too quickly I am now living in the winter of my life or as some may call it my second childhood I consider it a blessing to have lived long enough to reach old age It is a gift that everyone does not receive I have released myself from the binding ties of doing what others think I should do I am no longer obligated to employers nor bonded by schedules I have turned the child in me loose to enjoy the last days of my life I am grateful that God has allowed me and my husband of nearly sixty years to enjoy our second childhood together I have time to sit for hours and reminisce and remember moments from my past I have time to analyze stories that were told to me by my ancestors about my family's history I wonder how much of the stories are true and complete Have there been parts of the stories omitted Relatives who have been disowned may not have been included in the accounts of the past We all have secrets and stories that we will never tell What secrets have not been told in these stories Are the stories altered or enhanced to make the past more glorified or sensational There are many questions that I wish I had asked my relatives while they were still alive The answers to these questions will probably go unanswered Over the years I have heard varying accounts of the same stories of our family's history from my younger ancestors Their stories are not congruent with the family history told to me from the lips of my ancestors Their stories do not track with the things that I myself experienced and observed in the presence of my long deceased relatives I was there in the flesh with some of these relatives I can still close my eyes and see them in my mind's eyes I can still hear their voices in my mind's ears I remember these relatives and what they were like In the pages of this book I have written stories about friends and relatives from my past and present I have written a partial accounting of my family's history according to how it was told to me and from my personal observations and experiences As I get older I find that a lot of things no longer matter It does not matter to me who my relatives were or where they came from All that matters is that I was born and had the privilege of living the four seasons of my life in God's beautiful world Ultimately we are all God's children and brothers and sisters in Christ We are all connected through God

Narrating a Psychology of Resistance Shelly Grabe, 2017 Narrating a Psychology of Resistance analyzes first hand testimony from the Movimiento Autonomo de Mujeres in Nicaragua a coordinated mobilization of women that has weathered unrelenting power differentials characterized by patriarchy and capitalism to examine the psychology of resistance in order to revolutionize societies who have suffered under brutal regimes

I Cry at the Feet of My Other Body Mustapha Enesi, 2025-09-26 As far as modern Nigerian literature goes I Cry at the Feet of My Other Body is undoubtedly one of the finest It does not shy away from examining gendered violence and vulnerability but at the same time it appreciates the mercies of resilience ritual and solidarity The Moveee Every work in Mustapha Enesi's collection dazzles with the immediacy and flair of a natural storyteller Both deft and enlightened they reveal the cycle of life and death through the lives of women Brilliantly interlaced stories of resilience invention and linguistic verve Catherine McNamara Mustapha Enesi explores the lives of Nigerian women their struggles resilience and the societal pressures that shape their existence From the fiercely independent Simbi battling a life altering diagnosis while confronting community expectations to the ageing Mrs Silifa grappling with an unexpected pregnancy and a complex relationship with a younger man these stories paint a rich imagery of womanhood Experience the quiet desperation of a woman losing her memory and reliving past traumas the hidden sorrows of a mother whose palm reading gift comes at a profound personal cost and the journey of Immaculate seeking freedom and purpose beyond the confines of a religious institution Through these 12 stories that touch on themes of loss societal judgment and the relentless search for happiness Enesi crafts a compelling and deeply human portrait of women striving to define themselves amidst the complexities of Nigerian life
