Steck-Vaughn Staff, 1998-01-01 GraceQuest Robert V. Rakestraw, 2015-04-13 In this fascinating spiritual theological autobiography Robert Rakestraw tells of his lifelong unceasing search for God After a troubled and unconventional childhood he came to know the grace and freedom of God in a personal way during his college years He then embarked on an unwavering intellectual and spiritual quest for truth and meaning in life Without technical language Rakestraw highlights significant developments and revisions in his understanding of God and God's ways of interacting with the world In striking and sometimes intimate detail he relates compellingly his experiences as a student pastor professor sufferer heart transplant recipient and above all seeker of God Dr Rakestraw's gripping portrayal of his difficulties and sufferings especially with regard to health issues does not come across as depressing Rather it presents the sustaining love and goodness of God in such a way that will pull readers in to investigate the remarkable and freely offered grace of God extolled by the author each individual Ethical Encounters Janne Korkka, 2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe's writings show that the self's knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe's writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe's work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author's central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe's texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe's writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe's writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing Report of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture Kansas. State Board of Agriculture, 1878 Literary Community-Making Roger D. Sell, 2012 The writing and reading of so called literary texts can be seen as processes which are genuinely communicational They lead that is to say to the growth of communities within which individuals acknowledge not only each other's similarities but differences as well In this new book Roger D Sell and his colleagues apply the communicational perspective to the past four centuries of literary activity in English Paying detailed attention to texts both canonical and non canonical by Amelia Lanyer Thomas Coryate John Boys Pope Coleridge Arnold Kipling William Plomer Auden Walter Macken Robert Kroetsch Rudy Wiebe and Lyn Hejinian the book shows how the communicational issues of addressivity commonality dialogicality and ethics have arisen in widely different historical contexts At a metascholarly level it suggests that the communicational criticism of literary texts has significant cultural social and political roles to play in the post postmodern era of rampant globalization Park's Floral Magazine , 1885 Chicken Soup for the Mother's Soul 2 Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-09-04 This poignant collection of stories for and about the most important woman in our lives features chapters on Love Becoming a Mother Mothers and daughters Miracles Special Moments Letting Go and more The Ladies' Repository , 1846 A Daughter of the Middle Border Hamlin Garland, 1922 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine Josiah Gilbert
