Gwyneth Anne Thayer

My Racing Heart The Passionate World Of Thoroughbreds And The Track:

My Racing Heart Nan Mooney, 2003-04-01 When Nan Mooney was seven years old she sat in her grandmother May May's living room to watch her first horse race And so began a turbulent romance between a woman and a sport Part memoir part journey into the compelling world of Thoroughbred horse racing My Racing Heart gallops headlong into the wild culture and fabulous creatures that rise up around a racetrack Nan Mooney looks at the horses jockeys and trainers the gambling and corruption and racing's age old history and forever offbeat society From the dusty backstretch at a small town track to the stands at magnificent Churchill Downs Nan Mooney captures the risks and the glory the excitement and the passion for horse lovers sports fans and anyone who has ever craved a place to run wild Going to the Dogs Gwyneth Anne

Thayer, 2013-06-13 In the 1970s sitcom The Odd Couple Felix and Oscar argue over a racing greyhound that Oscar won in a bet Animal lover Felix wants to keep the dog as a pet gambling enthusiast Oscar wants to race it This dilemma fairly reflects America's attitude toward greyhound racing This book the first cultural history of greyhound racing in America charts the sport's meteoric rise and equally meteoric decline against the backdrop of changes in American culture during the last century Gwyneth Anne Thayer takes us from its origins in coursing in England through its postwar heyday and up to its current state of near extinction Her entertaining account offers fresh insight into the development of American sport and leisure the rise of animal advocacy and the unique place that dogs hold in American life Thayer describes greyhound racing's dynamic growth in the 1920s in places like Saint Louis Chicago and New Orleans then explores its phenomenal popularity in Florida where promoters exploited its remote association with the upper class and helped foster a celebrity culture around it By the end of the century media reports of alleged animal cruelty had surfaced as well as competition from other gaming pursuits such as state lotteries and Indian casinos Greyhound racing became so suspect that even Homer Simpson derided it In exploring the socioeconomic political and ideological factors that fueled the rise and fall of dog racing in America Thayer has consulted participants and critics alike in order to present both sides of a contentious debate She examines not only the impact of animal protectionists but also suspected underworld ties longstanding tensions between dogmen and track owners over racing contracts and the evolving relationship between consumerism and dogs She captures the sport's glory days in dozens of photographs that recall its coursing past or show celebrities like Frank Sinatra and Babe Ruth with winning racing hounds Thayer also records the growth of the adoption movement that rescues ex racers from possible euthanasia Today there are fewer than half as many greyhound tracks in half as many states as there were 10 years ago and half of them are in Florida Thayer's in depth meticulously balanced account is an intriguing look at this singular activity and will teach readers as much about American cultural behavior as about racing greyhounds Animals and Agency Sarah E. McFarland, Ryan Hediger, 2009 While many scholars who write about animals deal with animal agency in some way this volume is the first to position the question of nonhuman agency as the primary focus of inquiry Section I presents studies of actual animals demonstrating agency Section II moves agency into new terrain while considering key representations of animal agency in literature Section III analyzes animals as mediators and as conveyances of human to human communication and Section IV investigates the agency of beings who defy conventional species categories The Envoi demonstrates how the microscopic polyp is interwoven into notions of agency and mythical superagency This volume's interdisciplinary explorations press hard on issues of agency to open up space for more questions about how we can understand relationships between the human and the nonhuman

(Not) Keeping Up with Our Parents Nan Mooney, 2008 Drawing on more than a hundred interviews with people all across America Not Keeping Up with Our Parents explores how stagnant wages debt and escalating costs for tuition health care and home ownership are jeopardizing the finances and futures of today's educated middle class Despite this sobering reality Nan Mooney offers concrete ideas on how we can arrest this downward spiral

I Can't Believe She Did That! Nan Mooney, 2025-06-25 I CAN T BELIEVE SHE DID THAT offers a new and compelling perspective on conflict and competition among women in the workplace Nan Mooney explores how and why some women hurt each other on the job and what we can do to begin cleaning up the mess Based on real stories from real women I CAN T BELIEVE SHE DID THAT provides a provocative social and cultural exploration of the often troubled and painful dynamics that unfold among female coworkers The massive influx of women into the workplace in the past thirty years means a whole new category of problems has arisen Suddenly women are working over under and alongside other women Their professional relationships are subject to the pressures and conflicts of organizational culture not to mention society at large Women on the job have grown more comfortable with ambition competition management and success but that hasn't negated the value they place on communication and relationships on being liked and being nice Striking a balance between these two selves is a delicate undertaking and many women are uncertain how to interact in a workplace where such lines are regularly being blurred Working together women have fostered a breathtaking degree of positive change But there is another side to the story If women are to continue moving forward the time has come to examine honestly and unequivocally our very human impulse to compete with hurt and even destroy one another to get what we want In I CAN T BELIEVE SHE DID THAT Nan Mooney provides vivid insights on the emotional toll competition can take on women in business and charts a path towards more productive and fulfilling relationships for professional women everywhere
