Blindsight Busser Howell,2013-02-04 At the age of fifteen Busser Howell lost 98 percent of his vision At the age of forty he lost the remaining 2 percent Were the story to end there you would likely not be entirely shocked as this type of circumstance is not that uncommon But this is not the whole story not by a long shot You see Howell is an artist a painter to be exact And prior to being a professional working artist in New York City he was a partner and worked twenty four years in an interior design and restoration business Possibly even more amazing than his breaking of our stereotypes of the blind is the fact that he is not alone Interviewing other blind artists to discover each person s particular point of view and what kind of descriptions work for them author and blind artist Busser Howell s debut is an extraordinary look into a world never before seen or understood from the point of view of the visually challenged Beginning by examining the concepts of creativity perception touch and accessibility Howell engages the vibrant boundless minds of fifteen visually impaired artists to mine their thoughts feelings and understanding to piece together a common thread of experience It is the artists telling their story their preferences and dislikes and their ability despite their blindness to tap into sight s brain based function to see and comprehend our world and its contents An enlightening and fascinating journey into the artistic process as seen by those whose vision is either severely impaired or altogether absent Howell s impressive collection of writings and interviews is a probing examination of the artistic process and the nature of art itself Evocative and inspiring Blindsight is a deeply moving passage that documents the journey of visual artists as they transition from the visual input of the outside world to the output of their inner vision transcending blindness into the light of creativity Association Review ,1908 Dumb No Longer

Fred De Land,1906 Proceedings of the 11th Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf American Instructors of the Deaf,1887 Introduction to Deaf Culture Thomas K. Holcomb,2023 You are about to enter the realm of Deaf culture a world that may be completely new to you Intriguingly insiders and outsiders to this world may regard it in two completely different fashions Let us examine this contradiction with the proverbial glass of water that can be viewed as either half full or half empty The Feel of Silence Bonnie Poitras Tucker,1995 A memoir of the author s experience as a profoundly deaf infant who became an expert lipreader and who never learned sign language or met another deaf person until her mid thirties It follows her story as she made it through college to become a corporate litigator Disabled USA.

F. Boulton,1913

I Sign, Therefore I Am Juhana Salonen,2021-11-01 I Sign Therefore I Am is the powerful story of a deaf young man struggling with his identity and of his growth into a sign language user who is proud of his culture Being the deaf child of hearing parents and the only deaf person in my early surroundings these were the foundations for the identity crisis I underwent in my youth The crisis could have had a tragic end but fortunately in my case it did not It took years of searching however to finally grow into my identity as a deaf person and to adopt Finnish Sign Language as my mother tongue I wrote this book to share my life experiences with members of any linguistic or cultural minority This is a highly topical issue in society as such minorities are increasingly in the limelight Many automatically assume that minorities have it bad and that their members deviate in a negative sense from the majority population also in other ways This book offers excellent opportunities for seeing the world through a deaf person's eyes and for correcting misguided views At the same time it provides compelling evidence of the benefits of deafness and sign language for both the deaf and the population at large

Blessed Are the Poor in Spirit Evangelist John Henry Manigo, 2015-08-21 One book or three books My main interest is to help deaf hard of hearing hearing people understand the Word of God and to apply to their own life with God's help It also gives us as well to the hearing people who need encouragement help and inspire in the Word of God and that the Word of God is for them to receive His Word by faith My main reason of writing the Trinity to show the example of God Jesus and the Holy Spirit as one and believe that God is One I also write Trinity for various reasons and put down Bible verses to help match the Old Testament and New Testament that speak the same thing to show them the Bible in fact is real God's Word is very real I write the main points because I have heard in the past about their belief their teaching their faith in God and I am willing to write down what they say and that the Bible has all the answer to our need and purpose I have studied the Bible for forty five years seeking answers and be able to explain better from God's teaching from God's Word Whenever I hear people talk about their faith in God I write down Bible verses to help inspire their life positive It would help all of us to grow in grace through our Lord Jesus Christ He has the answer to all of our problem My main point is to help them know that they can be saved through Jesus Christ by faith in Him alone Only Him shall we be saved Be Blessed Evangelist John H Manigo I Corinthians 6:19-20 Inner Lives of Deaf Children Martha Sheridan, 2001 American Annals of the Deaf and Dumb, 1878
