Cabell Bruce* William Cabell Bruce,1927 Irish Impressions Gilbert Keith Chesterton,2021-04-11 In Irish Impressions G K Chesterton employs his characteristic wit and keen observation to explore the rich tapestry of Irish life culture and landscape Written in the early 20th century this travelogue captures the essence of Ireland through a series of essays that blend personal narrative with social critique Chesterton s prose steeped in vivid imagery and lyrical language reflects the complexities of Irish identity against the backdrop of political upheaval and cultural revival The book not only serves as a testament to his love for the Emerald Isle but also articulates broader themes of nationalism spirituality and the sometimes paradoxical nature of Irish humor and faith G K Chesterton born in 1874 was a prolific English writer philosopher and theologian known for his sharp intellect and unique perspectives His experiences as a journalist and a public thinker informed his views on society and culture leading him to embark on a journey through Ireland Chesterton s deep Catholic faith and passion for the underdog resonate throughout Irish Impressions manifesting his connection to the Irish people and their struggles during a tumultuous era Irish Impressions is a compelling read for anyone interested in the intersections of travel writing cultural identity and historical context Chesterton s masterful storytelling and profound insights invite readers to view Ireland through a lens that is both critical and affectionate making it an essential addition to the library of both literary enthusiasts and casual readers alike Luminous Traitor Martin Duberman,2018-11-06 Martin Duberman is a national treasure Masha Gessen The New Yorker Roger Casement was an internationally renowned figure at the beginning of the 20th century famous for exposing the widespread atrocities against the indigenous people in King Leopold s Congo and his subsequent exposure for which he was knighted in 1911 of the brutal conditions of enslaved labor in Peru An Irish nationalist of profound conviction he attempted at the outbreak of World War I to obtain German support and weapons for an armed rebellion against British rule Apprehended and convicted of treason in a notorious trial that captured worldwide attention Casement was sentenced to die on the gallows A powerful petition drive for the commutation of his sentence was inaugurated by George Bernard Shaw and a host of other influential figures A gay man Casement kept detailed diaries of his sexual escapades and the British government upon discovering the diaries circulated its pages to public figures thereby crippling what had been a mounting petition for clemency In 1916 he was hanged In this gripping reimagining acclaimed historian Martin Duberman paints a full portrait of the man for the first time Tracing his evolution from servant of the empire to his work as a humanitarian activist and anti imperialist Duberman resurrects and recognizes all facets from the professional to the personal of the fantastic life of this pioneer for human rights The Gentleman's Magazine ,1883 The Japan Chronicle ,1914 Irish Travel Writing John McVeagh,1996 Covering all aspects of travel since the 12th century this guide provides a reference on Irish travel literature The book also examines the tradition and content of tourist guides to Ireland The information included ranges from diary accounts of journeys undertaken through the country and towns of Ireland written for the information of others to private writings such as the 17th century account by Mary Granville of her journey to Galway There are also excerpts from the journals and letters of historical figures such as John Wesley and Mary Wollstonecraft Furthermore the author has added to the bibliographical data for each entry wherever possible indicating the itinerary followed by the writer in question Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee,1914 Irish Impressions Gilbert Keith Chesterton,1919 Lord Dunsany S.
