Where to from Here? Brian Grogan, 2012 If you've ever felt challenged as a Christian to say what you believe about life after death you will find intelligent proposals here From Grogan's deep knowledge of the current scholarship on subjects like judgment heaven hell and purgatory is matched by his skill at clearly presenting insights through stories and examples This book begins with the idea that every inhabitant of this planet contributes to the shaping of God's project the life of the world to come and it emphasizes that the relationships between God and ourselves endure eternally Rooting everything in this sense of ongoing relationship Grogan poses and responds to questions such as Could hell be empty Can knowledge of the future transform the present What will it be like to be fully alive What will we do in heaven He also makes a clear call to engage with God now in transforming our present relationships so that everyone may become more truly fully alive This is the Christian gift to the world The next time anyone asks me about heaven hell purgatory limbo or anything related to what awaits us after our earthly lives have ended I will recommend this excellent new book Father Grogan's approach is wise without being preachy scholarly without being overly academic and hopeful without being naive He covers almost any question that a Christian might have about the last things and does so by taking those concerns seriously answering them carefully and grounding them in Scripture and tradition Highly recommended James Martin SJ author of The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything Eternal paradise eternal torment is there more to the Christian afterlife than these concepts Father Brian Grogan discusses questions surrounding the afterlife exploring many ideas that aren't normally presented surrounding the ideas of fate our lives and what ultimately lies ahead of us as human beings Where to From Here is a fascinating read and addition to Christian and spirituality collections The Midwest Book Review Read full review at Midwest Book Review Fr Brian Grogan SJ takes a fresh and intelligently satisfying approach to such well worn topics as the general judgment heaven hell and purgatory He offers a fresh and hopeful look at the Christian vision of life after death and is an excellent choice for group discussions on life after death Liguorian My Life After Now Jessica Verdi,2013-04-02

Life - A to Z John Mark Read,2008-11 If you like the good old days hard work cars girls and even God you will not only enjoy this book but may find yourself thinking about your own life and what it means to be a boy growing into a man husband father and grandfather especially in light of one of the most prevalent societal problems What became a fascination at an early age blossomed into an addiction to pornography that ended the author s professional career and almost ruined his marriage Sensory Biographies Prof. Robert R. Desjarlais,2003-03-03 Robert Desjarlais s graceful ethnography explores the life histories of two Yolmo elders focusing on how particular sensory orientations and modalities have contributed to the making and the telling of their lives These two are a woman in her late eighties known as Kisang Omu and a Buddhist priest in his mid eighties known as Ghang Lama members of an ethnically Tibetan Buddhist people whose ancestors have lived for three centuries or so along the upper ridges of the Yolmo Valley in north central Nepal It was clear through their many conversations that both individuals perceived themselves as nearing death and both were quite willing to share their thoughts about death and dying The difference between the two was remarkable however in that Ghang Lama s life had been dominated by motifs of vision whereas Kisang Omu s accounts of her life largely involved a theatre of voices Desjarlais offers a fresh and readable inquiry into how people s ways of sensing the world contribute to how they live and how they recollect their lives

Die On The Shore JoMa RuAn, Die On The Shore You re born you grow you reproduce you survive you die And at the end you wonder if all that effort was worth it Of course you didn t have a choice once born all you can do is trudge through the days as best you can adrift with no aim but to stay afloat one more day So many times you glimpsed a shore of warm soft sand but it was just a mirage conjured by your longing to arrive I look at photos of births baptisms communions birthdays weddings funerals Snapshots of big moments meant to be immortalized for posterity The story repeats endlessly whether the pictures are black and white sepia or color In Greek myth Sisyphus king of Corinth was damned to push a heavy rock up a mountain only for it to roll back down each time he neared the top forcing him to start again Over and over condemned to a futile pointless task Those who follow repeat the same tale retracing the path of parents and grandparents pushing life s heavy rock uphill as far as they can The same struggle the same suffering the same moments Sisyphus reborn And when you get there it turns out it s the end So much sea so much breath just to die on the shore JoMa RuAn
