My Life as a Refugee Odu Kpwere Amari'di, 2020-10-30 Sadly refugees are some of the most traumatized people in the world Although their backgrounds vary all share a commonality of determination and perseverance to overcome their complex challenges both in the past and in the future while attempting to move forward into a new chapter Odu Kpwere Amari di a South Sudanese immigrant living in Canada details his journey through life to date beginning with his birth in Uganda to refugee parents who fled Sudan during war and eventually returned to their homeland with him to build a new life As he reveals a compelling look into his humble African background through relatable anecdotes about his childhood memories regrets missed opportunities and other experiences intertwined with historical narratives Amari di explains why he is a refugee the continuing plight of refugees and the struggles as their fight continues to shun the perceptions and judgments and bear a burden of shame for allegedly abandoning their home countries in pursuit of a better life My Life as a Refugee is the memoir of a South Sudanese immigrant that chronicles his life from birth to date as he learned valuable lessons about life love and inclusion while persevering through his challenges Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier, 2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting Reprising volume coord by C Maisonnat J Paccaud Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one s literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein s creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation Postcolonial Issues in

Antipodean America Paul Giles,2013-12-11 Although North America and Australasia occupy opposite ends of the earth they have never been that far from each other conceptually The United States and Australia both began as British colonies and mutual entanglements continue today when contemporary cultures of globalization have brought them more closely into juxtaposition Taking this transpacific kinship as his focus Paul Giles presents a sweeping study that spans two continents and over three hundred years of literary history to consider the impact of Australia and New Zealand on the formation of U S literature Early American writers such as Benjamin Franklin Thomas Jefferson Joel Barlow and Charles Brockden Brown found the idea of antipodes to be a creative resource but also an alarming reminder of Great Britain s increasing sway in the Pacific The southern seas served as inspiration for narratives by Washington Irving Edgar Allan Poe and Herman Melville For African Americans such as Harriet Jacobs Australia represented a haven from slavery during the gold rush era while for E D E N Southworth its convict legacy offered an alternative perspective on the British class system In the 1890s Henry Adams and Mark Twain both came to Australasia to address questions of imperial rivalry and aesthetic topsy turvyness The second half of this study considers how Australia s political unification through Federation in 1901 significantly altered its relationship to the United States New modes of transport and communication drew American visitors including novelist Jack London At the same time Americans associated Australia and New Zealand with various kinds of utopian social reform particularly in relation to gender politics a theme Giles explores in William Dean Howells Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Miles Franklin He also considers how American modernism in New York was inflected by the Australasian perspectives of Lola Ridge and Christina Stead and how Australian modernism was in turn shaped by American styles of iconoclasm After World War II Giles examines how the poetry of Karl Shapiro Louis Simpson Yusef Komunyakaa and others was influenced by their direct experience of Australia He then shifts to post 1945 fiction where the focus extends from Irish American cultural politics Raymond Chandler Thomas Keneally to the paradoxes of exile Shirley Hazzard Peter Carey and the structural inversions of postmodernism and posthumanism Salman Rushdie Donna Haraway Ranging from figures like John Ledyard to John Ashbery from Emily Dickinson to Patricia Piccinini and J M Coetzee Antipodean America is a truly epic work of transnational literary history

Peter Carey Keyvan Allahyari,2023-04-11 Peter Carey The Making of a Global Novelist recounts Peter Carey s literary career from his emergence in the Australian literary scene as a contributor to local literary magazines to when he published his fiction exclusively with large conglomerate publishers As Australia's most decorated author for a period nearing half a century Carey's career gives unparalleled insights into the global contemporary publishing and the making of global literary prestige from the periphery and significant cultural currency for Australian literature and culture worldwide Carey's fiction is not only a product of the global dynamic in literary publishing of the last quarter of the twentieth century but also it holds something of its productive tension for Australian writing and writers Allahyari retraces the fraught synthesis of an individual literary proclivity with a growing commercial cultural appetite the coincidence of Carey's career with the conglomeration of global publishing pushed further towards anti elitist popular aesthetics Fake It Mark Osteen, 2021-08-13 How many layers of artifice can one artwork contain How does forgery unsettle our notions of originality and creativity Looking at both the literary and art worlds Fake It investigates a set of fictional forgeries and hoaxes alongside their real life inspirations and parallels Mark Osteen shows how any forgery or hoax is only as good as its authenticating story and demonstrates how forgeries foster fresh authorial identities while being deeply intertextual and frequently quite original From fakes of the late eighteenth century such as Thomas Chatterton's Rowley poems and the notorious Shakespearean documents fabricated by William Henry Ireland to hoaxes of the modern period such as Clifford Irving's fake autobiography of Howard Hughes the infamous Ern Malley forgeries and the audacious authorial masquerades of Percival Everett Osteen lays bare provocative truths about the conflicts between aesthetic and economic value In doing so he illuminates the process of artistic creation which emerges as collaborative and imitative rather than individual and inspired revealing that authorship is to some degree always forged Papers Alessandra Raed, 2020-09-28 Papers is a compilation of essays and articles in Drama and English literature It reflects the author's experiences views and studies in the areas of drama theatre production and performance and writing journalism and creative writing The works from other authors cited and or mentioned in this book are referenced The Unusual Life of Tristan Smith Peter Carey, 2010-08-18 The Booker Prize winning author of Oscar and Lucinda and The Tax Inspector now gives readers a hero the malformed but ferociously wilful Tristan Smith who becomes the object of the world's byzantine political intrigues even as he attains stardom in a bizarre Sirkus that is part passion play and part Mortal Kombat My Life as a Haunted Hamburger, Hold the Pickles Bill Myers, 2006-10-29 Everybody says the old house at the edge of town is haunted But Wally has some major doubts Unfortunately in exposing the hoax he undergoes some of the craziest catastrophes and mass mayhem of his life To name just a few Wally experiences falling into mirrors that others claim show the future shorting the sheets on so called ghosts and supposedly being turned into a talking hamburger All this as our young hero learns what God really says about sorcery ghosts and the supernatural After The Celebration Ken Gelder, Paul Salzman, 2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia's bicentenary to the end of the Howard government In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts cultural social political historical national and transnational From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become

Strong Opinions Chris Danta,Sue Kossew,Julian Murphet,2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee s work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee s most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee s decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee s direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee s explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life      My Life as a Young Wizard Henri Maggot,2013-03-29 Middle school is hard And as a young wizard I have many challenges ahead of me From evil wizards to a boy called Hey to a boy who jokes about his lips being named Apokko Apokko lips Apocalypse this is going to be one wacky year Here are some things you may well read in my JOURNAL Not diary ohh how I hate to say that word An evil wizard a man at the Movie Arena a boy named Hey a man who works at the detention room TOMKs and a semi overprotective mom Yes things are going to get weird
