I Answer with My Life Kathleen Casey, 2017-05-18 Originally published in 1993 This book shows through the oral histories of ordinary women teachers that effective prescriptions for change do not come simply from policy makers The author focuses on the narratives of three groups of teachers in the USA Catholic nuns secular Jewish women and Black women For each of these the individual teachers narratives have been examined for constructions common to the group and these patterns are assembled into a discourse Teachers self identities are considered as are their assessments of the institutions in which they have worked and their relationships with the pupils The text examines how the social role of the teacher is constructed by the lives of these women Incorporating this perspective of diversity into the educational debate this book argues that these less dominant but important voices shouldn't be ignored

My Life / Inside Out Angelo R. Avila, Jr., 2013-02-26 My unstructured upbringing and cares to the wind attitude led to my frequent incarceration from childhood to adulthood it's a disturbing story which is primarily aimed at the adult reading audience who enjoy reading about reality situations and crime I have always been a reader and to a large extent that helped me become a self taught person Born on the banks of the Colorado River in Arizona and raised up in the Marcos De Niza barrio projects in South Phoenix I experienced the injustices of the cotton fields Maricopa County Juvenile Detention Home and Arizona State Industrial School at Fort Grant Arizona I wandered the desperate streets of Los Angeles and the forlorn railroad tracks alone like a lost person without a purpose in life I was locked up in the jails of Phoenix and Los Angeles before winding up in the California State penitentiary system Upon my release I struggled to stay out of the pen and took the jobs that society at large would never want to take Through numerous personal tragedies incarcerations and unfortunate circumstances I lost control of my life No one was ever able to change my destructive behavior The changes when they occurred came from within me when I could no longer cope with the situations I had cast my self into Looking back I can now see what I couldn't see during those hopeless time periods I was very fortunate to finally be able to leave that life behind me through relationships that believed in me and successfully worked and built myself a civil service work career from which I retired I now spend my days enjoying life's simple pleasures after all my previous tragic missteps My objective in life now is to become an accomplished writer

Enough Already Barb Roose, 2015-03-06 Most women know that God loves them but might he love them more if they finally lost that last ten pounds or got their hair to lay right or finally found a pair of jeans that looked good and let them breathe Well maybe God doesn't care about jeans but women do and all the talk about inner beauty hasn't kept all of us from staring into a mirror and taking an inventory that never quite measures up Enough Already will Elevate the soul freeing spiritual truth that God is the Creator of beauty and that women are called to appreciate and care for themselves as his own Enable women to accept God given beauty so that when they look in the mirror they see his handiwork not their flaws Equip women to win the ugly struggle with beauty once and for all
