A Guide to Psychosocial and Spiritual Care at the End of Life Henry S. Perkins,2017-03-17 Psychological social and spiritual care is as important as physical care at the end of life Yet caregivers often feel ill equipped to give that nonphysical care This book shows how to do it The book addresses all caregivers who attend dying patients doctors nurses chaplains clergy in the pastorate social workers clinical psychologists family caregivers and others It covers such topics as the functional and emotional trajectories of dying the varied approaches of patients and caregivers to end of life decisions culturally based beliefs about dying the differences between depression and grief and people s views about the right time to die the death experience itself and the afterlife For each topic the book introduces core concepts and summarizes recent research about them The book presents much of its material in readable tables for easy reference applies the material to real life cases lists the main take home points for each chapter and gives references for additional reading The book helps caregivers anticipate the reactions of patients and survivors to end of life traumas and suggests how caregivers can respond insightfully and compassionately At the same time the book challenges caregivers to think through their own views about death and dying This book therefore is a must read for all caregivers professional and nonprofessional alike who strive to give their patients comprehensive high quality end of life care Map to Happiness Peter K. Stimpson, 2008-03-24 What is my purpose How can I be happy For thousands of years people have pondered these big questions often finding the answers elusive In Map to Happiness Peter Stimpson an Episcopal priest and experienced therapist doesn t claim to have all the answers Still he generously shares a wealth of wisdom he has learned by counseling and ministering to people for more than thirty five years Stimpson anchors happiness in a pyramid of principles insecurity power and success He explains that by understanding everyone is insecure we can take back our power from others to define our worth and reach for success in lasting values not things His message is clear who you become is more important than what you attain Stimpson illustrates the power of his trilogy by answering today s ubiquitous questions related to love of yourself your spouse your children and life s challenges of stress work illness anger and death Using both spiritual and psychological perspectives Stimpson frankly discusses how we stray off the path to happiness but more important how we can get back on track If you are confused or lost open this map and begin your journey You ll find help sifting through confusing issues with easy to understand explanations and ready to use solutions

Lifetime Medical Organizer Sandra J. Yorong with Richard Schuttler, Ph.D.,2008-05-08 Sandi created the Lifetime Medical Organizer for the love of her family during a medical crisis with her father As she created organizers for others she realized the value it provided beyond her family's needs This value is what Sandi emphasizes in the Lifetime Medical Organizer as she shares her story of how the organizer came to life and her step by step guide with helping others to establish their own organizer Creating an organizer without instructions is like baking a cake without directions It is difficult to record and organize important information in the same way it is to mix ingredients if you do not know how to begin The Lifetime Medical Organizer includes narrative pages for every form included in the book to walk you through the steps that are easy to follow and simple to understand While writing this book Sandi focused on how she could help you and those closest to you to better manage the process that many are unprepared to deal with until it is too late Whether you create an organizer for yourself or a loved one it will provide you with greater peace of mind in knowing that you are better prepared to help those you love In helping others we shall help ourselves for whatever good we give out completes the circle and comes back to us Flora Edwards
