My Little Car:

Kafka Howard Caygill, 2017-12-14 By challenging many of the assumptions misguided presuppositions and even legends that have surrounded the legacy and reception of Franz Kafka's work during the 20th century Howard Caygill provides us with a radical new way of reading Kafka. Kafka In the Light of the Accident advances a unique philosophical interpretation via the pivotal theme of the accident understood both philosophically and in a broader cultural context that includes the philosophical and sociological basis of accident insurance and the understanding of the concepts of chance and necessity. Caygill reveals how Kafka's reception was governed by a series of accidents from the order of Max Brod's posthumous publication of the novels and the correction of misprints to many other posthumous editorial strategies. The focus on the accident casts light on the role of media in Kafka's work particularly visual media and above all photography. By stressing the role of contingency in his authorship Caygill also fundamentally questions the 20th century view of Kafka's work as kafkaesque. Instead of a narration of domination Kafka In the Light of the Accident argues that Kafka's work is best read as a narration of defiance one which affirms often comically the role of error and contingency in historical struggle. Kafka's defiance is situated within early 20th century radical culture with particular emphasis lent to the roles of radical Judaism the European socialist and feminist movements and the subaltern histories of the United States and China. Popular Science, 1963-11 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world. The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share: The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better. Acceptance Maureen Cochran, 2016-10-27 These poems offer solace to people who are living with pain and injury and encourage them to share the truth of their experience. This book is ultimately a message of love and understanding for the many people who face adversity throughout their lives. This book is a reminder that we are not alone. Living with pain and injury is a moment by moment experience. The gift in all suffering is access to a deeper well of compassion and the peace of acceptance. I Have Come A Long Way David Peterson, 2019-12-02 At an early age I discovered that I was not a farmer and thanks to my father's insistence I discovered the Merchant Marine and found a home there. Unfortunately that was short lived the war ended and it was back to the farm. No that was not for me. The Army sounded fine for a lost soul but it got me into another war where I rose to the rank of Staff Sergeant as I toured Europe until honorably discharged. My military service helped me with twenty five years of gainful employment and experience in the rocket and space business until retirement and dreaming of publishing this book in later years that have finally come. To those who read this and didn't finish schooling go back or look at those ten fingers and say Teach me what I need to know to succeed. All God's Children Need Traveling Shoes Maya Angelou, 1991-06-04 In 1962 the poet musician and performer Maya Angelou claimed another piece of her identity by moving to Ghana joining a community of Revolutionist Returnees inspired by the promise of pan Africanism. All God's Children Need Walking Shoes is her lyrical and acutely perceptive exploration of what it means to be an African American on the mother continent where color no longer matters but where American ness keeps asserting itself in ways both puzzling and heartbreaking As it builds on the personal narrative of I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings and Gather Together in My Name this book confirms Maya Angelou s stature as one of the most gifted autobiographers of our time

The Morning Star G. Davidson,2010 When I was a youngster my parents invented a cool contraption They put one of every kind of animal in it I accidentally got in before it started Halfway through the process my mum saw me and took me out All the animals had simply disappeared and I looked normal or so it seemed They trashed the heaping hunk of metal as if it were a failure and went back to the drawing board That shows you how little they knew I m everything but normal to be precise I m everything In Dovera everything is magical Items in stores float without the need for shelves fires warm but don t burn people and ponds are windows to other worlds Green trees and bushes are everywhere and vines grow so fast you can see it In Dovera castles are carved out of mountains and cliffs of red sand tower above the valleys In Dovera trees talk and move and laugh and dance Welcome to a world where love is stronger than hate and good wins over evil This breathtaking story is filled with anticipation and accomplishment and a little hint of love It is a great story for all who fantasize about heroic rescues and heroines that are honest pure and true Welcome to my world of fantasy in The Morning Star G Davidson Author

Muslim, Christian, Jew - "I Do" Hazel Wise,2019-08-31 For centuries the planet has witnessed episodic mistrust between Islam Christianity and Judaism But the planet is shrinking and many people in their selection of a mate will consider someone from another religion This memoir sheds light on the level of awareness and communication needed to make such marriages viable and scrutinizes the all too common scenario of young girls marrying for an identity It provides through lived experience a fish bowl view of one woman s journey through three interfaith marriages told conversationally right down to the sharing of recipes Blended family dynamics and childhood cancer throw in further grist for the mill A final stormy divorce provides the catalyst for a much needed character arc discernment about women s identities and the embrace of marriage as an endeavor more human than religious And finally it offers brief informational segments on marriage in Islam Christianity and Judaism along with some beautiful legends all of which illustrate the commonality of marriage rather than the differences of dogma

Frieda And Min Pamela Jooste,2011-10-31 When Frieda first met Min with her golden hair and ivory bones what struck her most was that Min was wearing a pair of African sandals the sort made out of old car tyres She was a silent unhappy girl dumped on Frieda s exuberant family in Johannesburg for the summer of 1964 so that her mother could go off with her new husband In a way Min and Frieda were both outsiders Min raised in the bush by her idealistic doctor father and Frieda daughter of a poor Jewish saxophone player who lived almost on top of a native neighborhood The two girls thrown together the white kaffir and the poor Jewish girl formed a strange but loyal friendship a friendship that was to last even through the terrible years of oppression and betrayal during the time of South Africa under Apartheid
