Cahiers de la Femme ,2001 Hunger, Horses, and Government Men Shelley A. M. Gavigan,2012-10-15 Scholars often accept without question that the Indian Act 1876 criminalized First Nations Drawing on court files police and penitentiary records and newspaper accounts from the Saskatchewan region of the North West Territories between 1870 and 1905 Shelley Gavigan argues that the notion of criminalization captures neither the complexities of Aboriginal participation in the criminal courts nor the significance of the Indian Act as a form of law This illuminating book paints a vivid portrait of Aboriginal defendants witnesses and informants whose encounters with the criminal law and the Indian Act included both the mediation and the enforcement of relations of inequality Mountie Makers Robert Gordon Teather,2011-02-01 Bob Teather entered RCMP Basic Recruit Training three decades ago with no idea of what he was getting into Along with 31 other confused young men he found himself in Regina Saskatchewan as a lowly member of Troop 18 Bald intimidated and soon to be bruised Bob began a six month ordeal that he candidly recalls in this engaging book Corporal Teather s story brings you close to six recruits from across the country Prairie Dog Andr Lumchuck Francois weird Harold Burl and Teather himself a scrawny kid from Hamilton who often learned the hard way that if it hurts you just tape an aspirin to it Their experiences capture the essence of Canada and provide revealing aspects of the traditional RCMP training process Near the end of his active career Bob came to realize that it was Basic Training that put the Canadian in his RCMP and that bonds its members into a force capable of policing this complex country The Scarlet Sentinels John C. Smith,2012-07-01 THE SCARLET SENTINELS spans a period of one year at a large Royal Canadian Mounted Police detachment in the Interior region of British Columbia Although written as a novel this story accurately reflects the kinds of events that typically occur in the police world presented graphically and in the lingua franca that is particular to this work Readers will enter the lives of members of this famous police force at the detachment level learning how they operate in and adapt to continual challenge and change Author John C Smith draws on his experience as a detachment watch commander to illustrate the complexities of police work the tragic sad happy and sometimes satisfying events that are experienced by members of the Force in their efforts to provide professional police service to Canadians Past and current members of the Force may well recognize a part of themselves and others in this narrative although it should be considered a work of fiction and all characters are composites of many individuals known to the author and his imagination John C Smith was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for twenty five years He served at six different police posts in British Columbia and was an instructor at the Canadian Police College Ottawa Much of his service was performed in what is called General Duty policing where most law enforcement is carried out He currently lives in Victoria BC with his wife Jean where he s writing his second novel a police procedural set on a cruise ship out on the high seas John has accurately captured the life of general duty policing which reflects 99% routine and 1% adrenalin rush inter mixed with the emotional realities of being human Anyone considering a career in the Force should read this book Tom Rippon PhD dismounted Member Death on the Barrens George James Grinnell,2010-04-20 Set in the remote arctic region of Northern Canada this book takes readers on a harrowing canoe voyage that results in tragedy redemption and ultimately transformation George Grinnell was one of six young men who set off on the 1955 expedition led by experienced wilderness canoeist Art Moffatt Poorly planned and executed the journey seemed doomed from the start Ignoring the approaching winter the men became entranced with the peace and beauty of the arctic in autumn As winter closed in they suddenly faced numbing cold and dwindling food When the crew is swept over a waterfall Moffatt is killed and most of the gear and emergency food supplies destroyed Confronting freezing conditions and near starvation the remaining crew struggled to make it back to civilization For Grinnell the three month expedition was both a rite of passage and a spiritual odyssey In the Barrens he lost his sense of identity and what he had been conditioned to think about society and himself Forever changed by the experience he unsparingly describes how the expedition influenced his adult life and what powerful insights he was able to glean from this life altering experience Song of the Mounties ,

Fletcher,2023-02-03 When Lou Brandon retires as the only constable of a small Manitoba town his life takes on a comfortable but aimless routine That changes when he slowly becomes friends with the new Catholic priest Peter Wilson As the two struggle with life unlikely circumstances bring them together to investigate a murder long thought solved Their friendship gives them the space to question the burdens they carry and how these have limited their lives But examining life particularly when it has not been lived honestly is much easier said than done Learning to face their truths gives them the opportunity to grow but comes with risks of failure they may be unwilling to face As Brandon and Wilson draw closer to identifying the real murderer the uncomfortable relationship between the local Indigenous and non Indigenous communities threatens to derail their investigation completely Will they be able to find justice for the victim and reconciliation to themselves before it s too late Scarlet and Gold ,1919 Night We Stole the Mounties' Car Max Braithwaite,2012-07-10 Max Braithwaite has the unique capacity to be both tender and caustic both nostalgic and uncompromisingly honest He is also one of Canada s few original humorists All these qualities are present in his latest bittersweet recollections of life on the Prairies during the early Thirties It was a time of depression and drought but for Max a young schoolteacher it was also a time for courtship and marriage for those hilarious episodes in Wannego Saskatchewan which did much to belie the grimness of the era There was Max s disastrous umpiring of a Ladies Softball game his writing and directing of a play that generated more drama off stage than on the awful problem of the wasps at the outhouse and much much more The Night We Stole the Mountie s Car follows Never Sleep Three in a Bed and Why Shoot the Teacher and completes the story of Max s early years It is also Braithwaite at his vintage best lusty thought provoking and consistently amusing
