My Mystery House:

The Lady of Mystery House George Clifford Shedd, 1917 Haunting Experiences Diane Goldstein, Sylvia Grider, Jeannie Banks Thomas, 2007-09-15 Ghosts and other supernatural phenomena are widely represented throughout modern culture. They can be found in any number of entertainment commercial and other contexts but popular media or commodified representations of ghosts can be quite different from the beliefs people hold about them based on tradition or direct experience. Personal belief and cultural tradition on the one hand and popular and commercial representation on the other nevertheless continually feed each other. They frequently share space in how people think about the supernatural. In Haunting Experiences three well known folklorists seek to broaden the discussion of ghost lore by examining it from a variety of angles in various modern contexts. Diane E Goldstein, Sylvia Ann Grider and Jeannie Banks Thomas take ghosts seriously as they draw on contemporary scholarship that emphasizes both the basis of belief in experience rather than mere fantasy and the usefulness of ghost stories. They look closely at the narrative role of such lore in matters such as socialization and gender. And they unravel the complex mix of mass media commodification and popular culture that today puts old spirits into new contexts. HPI: Wishfire Paul Dale Roberts and Deanna Jaxine Stinson, 2017-01-27 In this issue Deanna Jaxine Stinson Psychic explains about Tarot Cards in 7 installments. Also added are various HPI Halo Paranormal Investigations investigative stories. Step into the unknown with HPI. The Living Dead Man Leroy Scott, 1929 The Haunting of Mystery Mansion Penny Warner, 2024-01-01 Cody Quinn, Luke M E and Mika are the Code Busters, clever clue hunters with a passion for puzzles. It's Luke's birthday and the group of friends are thrilled to be going to the Winchester Mystery House. They look forward to touring the mansion with over one hundred rooms, doors that lead to nowhere and possible ghosts. But when the Code Busters search for a girl who's lost in the mansion, they must avoid getting caught. Will the Code Busters be able to find the girl and avoid getting caught by the supposed security guard? Can you crack the code? Test your brain with the Code Busters to see if you have the right stuff to be an ace detective. Answers are in the back if you ever get stuck. Vitaphone Films Roy Liebman, 2015-05-20 The headline of the Variety extra on October 27, 1926 proclaimed Vitaphone 1 Thrills. L.A. Vitaphone, a subsidiary of Warner Bros. formed in association with Western Electric, was one of the major producers of talkies, even though its sound-on-disc technology barely lasted four years. The Vitaphone features and shorts that have survived intact or that have been so carefully restored preserve much of the show business history that might otherwise have been lost with the industry's fast-paced advances in movie making. This book is a catalogue of Vitaphone features and shorts. The first section lists the features and shorts by release number. The New York productions 1926-1940 are listed first, followed by the West Coast productions 1927-1970. For shorts, the following particulars, if known and if applicable, are given: title, alternate title, instrumental and vocal selections performed on screen, composer's and performers of instrumental and vocal selections, release date and synopsis of the film.
