The Other Walk Sven Birkerts, 2011-09-13 Other Walk is a series of autobiographical pieces by the master of reflection and slow time Throughout his life Sven Birkerts one of the country s foremost literary critics has carved out time for himself to walk to swim to read to contemplate Now in his late fifties he has clocked up many thousands of hours of reflection It shows in his prose which proceeds at a refreshingly deliberative pace as it draws the reader into his patterns and rhythms In this deeply appealing and engaging collection of essays Birkerts looks back through his own life as well as at the generations before him and ahead at the lives of his children We read how the writer witnesses his son s frightening sailing accident how he feels when he encounters his own prose from many years ago how finding a cigarette lighter or a lost ring releases a cascade of memories The objects he sees around him old friends remembered places are excavated their layers exposed But most winning of all is the emerging character of Birkerts himself

American Latvians Ieva Zake, 2017-09-08 This book analyzes the political experience of a small and unique American ethnic group American Latvians This community was constituted by post World War II political refugees who fled Communism and arrived in the United States seeking safety and protection For decades they insisted on preserving their ethnic identity and therefore did not call themselves Latvian Americans Instead they formed a distinctive double identity that is they blended into the American society economically and socially but refused to become assimilated culturally and politically The book offers a detailed look into the life of this community of political refugees which also provides a novel perspective on the Cold War as experienced by certain ethnic groups From a theoretical point of view the book makes two major contributions First it reasserts the need to understand the generalized category of white Americans or white ethnics with more nuance and attention to differences and second it strengthens the so called realist claim that refugees are not like other immigrants In order to achieve these goals the book provides compelling descriptions and interpretations of the most politically relevant moments in the experience of American Latvians in the period between the 1950s and the 1990s Concretely the book deals with topics as the American Latvians anti communist activism the impact of the hunt for Nazis on Latvian emigres the Soviet Union's anti emigre propaganda campaigns and the exiled Latvians involvement in the politics of national liberation in Latvia The author strives to reveal the complexity of the refugee experience in the United States during the Cold War and its aftermath Since such aspects of the life of ethnic groups in the United States have not been sufficiently studied this book makes a substantial contribution to a fuller understanding of American immigration history and sociology of ethnic groups It is well written expertly organized and will be of interest to a large readership at many levels of academia Latvians in Michigan Silvija D. Magill's Literary Annual 2003 Salem Press, 2003-06 Magill's Literary Annual 2003 is the fiftieth publication in a series that began in 1954 The philosophy behind the annual has been to evaluate critically 200 major examples of serious literature published during the previous year Our focus is to provide coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year that add to careers of authors being taught and researched in literature programs and that will stand the test of time By filtering the thousands of books published each year down to two hundred notable titles the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader s advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for selection The essay reviews in the Annual also provide a more academic reference review of a work than is typically found in newspapers and other periodical sources This year s works are drawn from such categories as anthropology autobiography biography current affairs diaries economics environment essays history language literary criticism medicine memoirs nature philosophy poetry psychology religion science short fiction sociology technology travel and women s issues The articles are arranged alphabetically by book title A complete list of included titles can be found at the beginning of volume 1 Each 2 000 word article begins with a block of top matter that indicates the title author publisher and price of the work When possible the year of the author s birth is also provided The top matter also includes the number of pages of the book the type of work and when appropriate the time period and locale represented in the text Next comes a capsule description of the work When pertinent a list of principal characters or personages with brief descriptions introduces the review These original essay reviews analyze intent and relative success of the author and the work under discussion To assist the reader further the articles are supplemented by a list of additional reviews for further study Every essay includes a brief biography of the author or authors and thumbnail photographs of the book covers and authors are included as available At the end of volume 2 are four cumulative indexes listing works covered from the years 1977 to 2003 an index of Biographical Works by Subject a Category Index a Title Index and an Author Index The index of Biographical Works by Subject is arranged by subject rather than by author or title     Reading Life Sven Birkerts,2007-04-03 Reading a selection of novels for a second time Birkerts reflects on his first readings and what later readings reveal about the passing of time and of memory     Handing on the Faith Robert P.
