Chittick, 1992-10-22 Translations and analyses of three Persian Sufi texts offering a perspective on Islam that is rarely met in modern works The Mercersburg Theology James Hastings Nichols, 2004-01-08 The Mercersburg theology was a protest against many of the Puritan tendencies dominant in American religion in the mid nineteenth century Its spokesmen emphasized the catholic heritage in Protestantism and fostered the ecumenical hope of a reunion of Protestantism Roman Catholicism and Orthodoxy They presented a high church sacramental conception as opposed to the predominant revivalistic individualistic and sectarian habit of mind The movement was generally disapproved as Romanizing and its popular influence was accordingly minimal The two creative writers were John Williamson Nevin the theologian and Philip Schaff the historian and liturgical scholar who taught together at the college and seminary of the German Reformed Church at Mercersburg Pennsylvania Their books tracts and periodical articles had only a limited circulation and are no longer generally accessible having been little regarded in the intervening years The general stance of the Mercersburg men was parallel to that of the high church Lutherans of Germany and the Tractarians in the Church of England The movement was the chief American counterpart to these developments since the American Episcopalian disciples of the Tractarians could scarcely be compared to Nevin and Schaff in theological stature The Americans were more philosophically oriented than the Anglo Catholics utilizing the concepts of Schelling and Hegel to interpret the classical doctrines of the Trinity and Incarnation and to define the relation of private judgment to Church tradition They were also mediators to America of much of the mid nineteenth century German theological scholarship The Americans were also more conscious than the Tractarians of the implications for theology of the new historical consciousness prevalent in Germany Schaff set forth the idea of the historical development in the same year as Newman s famous essay on the subject But while the conception undercut the Tractarian position for Newman the Mercersburg theology was built upon a parallel view The evangelical catholicism of Mercersburg was most widely influential through the liturgy produced under Schaff s leadership which has maintained a limited local continuity to this day

The Future of Social Movement Research Jacqueliën van Stekelenburg,Conny Roggeband,Bert Klandermans,2013-07-01 Are the dynamics of contention changing This is the question confronted by the contributors of this volume among the most influential scholars in the field of social movements The answers arriving at a time of extraordinary worldwide turmoil not only provide a wide ranging and varied understanding of how social movements arise and persist but also engender unanswered questions pointing to new theoretical strands and fields of research The Future of Social Movement Research asks How are the dynamics of contention shaped by globalization By societies that are becoming increasingly more individualized and diverse By the spread of new communication technologies such as social media cell phones and the Internet Why do some movements survive while others dissipate Do local and global networks differ in nature The authors essays explore such questions with reference to changes in three domains of contention the demand of protest changes in grievances and identities the supply of protest changes in organizations and networks and how these changes affect the dynamics of mobilization In doing so they theorize and make empirically insightful how globalization individualization and virtualization create new grievances new venues for action new action forms and new structures of contention The resulting work brought together through engaging discussions and debates between the contributors is interdisciplinary and unusually broad in scope constituting the most comprehensive overview of the dynamics of social movements available today Contributors Marije Boekkooi VU U Amsterdam Pang Ching Bobby Chen U of California Merced Donatella della Porta European U Institute Mario Diani U of Trento Italy Jan Willem Duyvendak U of Amsterdam Myra Marx Ferree U of Wisconsin Madison Beth Gharrity Gardner Ashley Gromis Swen Hutter U of Munich Ruud Koopmans WZB Berlin Hanspeter Kriesi U of Zurich Nonna Mayer National Centre for European Studies Doug McAdam Stanford U John D McCarthy Pennsylvania State U Debra Minkoff Barnard College Columbia U Alice Motes Pamela E Oliver U of Wisconsin Madison Francesca Polletta U of California Irvine Jacomijne Prins VU U Amsterdam Patrick Rafail Tulane U Christopher Rootes U of Kent Canterbury Dieter Rucht Free U of Berlin David A Snow U of California Irvine Sarah A Soule Stanford U Suzanne Staggenborg U of Pittsburgh Sidney Tarrow Cornell U Verta Taylor U of California Santa Barbara Marjoka van Doorn Martijn van Zomeren U of Groningen Stefaan Walgrave U of Antwerp Saskia Welschen

The West Indies and the Spanish Main Anthony Trollope, 2020-09-28 I am beginning to write this book on board the brig trading between Kingston in Jamaica and Cien Fuegos on the southern coast of Cuba At the present moment there is not a puff of wind neither land breeze nor sea breeze the sails are flapping idly against the masts there is not motion enough to give us the command of the rudder the tropical sun is shining through upon my head into the miserable hole which they have deluded me into thinking was a cabin The marine people the captain and his satellites are bound to provide me and all that they have provided is yams salt pork biscuit and bad coffee I should be starved but for the small ham would that it had been a large one which I thoughtfully purchased in Kingston and had not a kind medical friend as he grasped me by the hand at Port Royal stuffed a box of sardines into my pocket He suggested two boxes Would that I had taken them It is now the 25th January 1859 and if I do not reach Cien Fuegos by the 28th all this misery will have been in vain I might as well in such case have gone to St Thomas and spared myself these experiences of the merchant navy Let it be understood by all men that in these latitudes the respectable comfortable well to do route from every place to every other place is vi the little Danish island of St Thomas From Demerara to the Isthmus of Panam you go by St Thomas From Panam to Jamaica and Honduras you go by St Thomas From Honduras and Jamaica to Cuba and Mexico you go by St Thomas From Cuba to the Bahamas you go by St Thomas or did when this was written The Royal Mail Steam Packet Company dispense all their branches from that favoured spot But I was ambitious of a quicker transit and a less beaten path and here I am lying under the lee of the land in a dirty hot motionless tub expiating my folly We shall never make Cien Fuegos by the 28th and then it will be eight days more before I can reach the Havana May God forgive me all my evil thoughts Motionless I said I wish she were Progressless should have been my word She rolls about in a nauseous manner disturbing the two sardines which I have economically eaten till I begin to fear that my friend s generosity will become altogether futile To which result greatly tends the stench left behind it by the cargo of salt fish with which the brig was freighted when she left St John New Brunswick for these ports We brought but a very small quantity the skipper says If so that very small quantity was stowed above and below the very bunk which has been given up to me as a sleeping place Ugh We are very poor said the blue nosed skipper when he got me on board Well poverty is no disgrace said I as one does when cheering a poor man We are very poor indeed I cannot even offer you a cigar My cigar case was immediately out of my pocket After all cigars are but as coals going to Newcastle when one intends to be in Cuba in four days Hymns of Love and Praise for the Church's Year John Samuel Bewley Monsell,1866 Dagestan Robert Bruce Ware,Enver Kisriev,2009-12-29 Like other majority Muslim regions of the former Soviet Union the republic of Dagestan on Russia s southern frontier has become contested territory in a hegemonic competition between Moscow and resurgent Islam In this authoritative book the leading experts on Dagestan provide a path breaking study of this volatile state far from the world s gaze The largest and most populous of the North Caucasian republics bordered on the west by Chechnya and on the east by the Caspian Sea Dagastan is almost completely mountainous With no majority nationality the republic developed a distinctive system of calibrated power relations among ethnic groups and with Moscow a system that has been undermined by the spillover of the wars in Chechnya Wahhabi and Islamist recruiting efforts targeting youth and Moscow s reassertion of the power vertical Underdevelopment high birthrates transiting pipelines and the rising incidence of terrorist violence and assassinations add to the explosive potential of the region Authors Ware and Kisriev combine analysis of the dynamics of domination and resistance and the distinctive forms of social organization characteristic of mountain societies that may be applicable to other areas such as Afghanistan They draw on decades of field research interviews and data to offer unique perspective on the civilizational collision course under way in the Caucasus today Consociational Theory Rupert Taylor,2009-03-20 Consociational theory explains how democratic stability is possible in culturally or ethnically segmented political systems It is one of the most important theories in Comparative Politics and one of the most contested This volume brings together the leading proponents and opponents of consociational theory and conflict resolution The Short Stories of Ambrose Bierce Stuart C. Woodruff,2010-11-23 One of the most interesting figures to emerge at the turn of the twentieth century was Ambrose Bierce whose acerbic columns in the San Francisco Examiner spread his fame as America s most bitter cynic and misanthrope and whose disappearance into Mexico surrounded his name with an aura of mystery Although best known during his lifetime for his journalism and always critical of his own writing the magnificent intention mocked by the actual achievement Bierce s fiction endures especially his short stories about the Civil War Originally published in the 1890s and rediscovered in the 1920s the Civil War stories are filled with unsparing descriptions of death and suffering disillusionment and fatalism They also show a concern for form and craftsmanship a controlled irony and an economy of detail that are distinctly modern In this pioneering study of Bierce s stories Stuart Woodruff examines the best and worst of Bierce s fiction with clarity and excellent critical sense and he traces the causes of Bierce s success and failure as a writer analyzing his inability to reconcile the extremes of temperament and belief that marked his life and give his stories their characteristic form Among the pieces discussed An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge The Mocking bird One of the Missing Chickamauga Ha ta the Shepherd What I Saw at Shiloh and excerpts from The Devil s Dictionary and Tales of Soldiers and Civilians
