Literary Biographies in The Lives of Remarkable People Series in Russia, Ludmilla A. Trigos, Carol Ueland, 2022-03-14 The legendary Russian biography series The Lives of Remarkable People has played a significant role in Russian culture from its inception in 1890 until today The longest running biography series in world literature it spans three centuries and widely divergent political and cultural epochs Imperial Soviet and Post Soviet Russia The authors argue that the treatment of biographical figures in the series is a case study for continuities and changes in Russian national identity over time Biography in Russia and elsewhere remains a most influential literary genre and the distinctive approach and branding of the series has made it the economic engine of its publisher Molodaia gvardiia The centrality of biographies of major literary figures in the series reflects their heightened importance in Russian culture The contributors examine the ways that biographies of Russia's foremost writers shaped the literary canon while mirroring the political and social realities of both the subjects and their biographers times Starting with Alexander Pushkin and ending with Joseph Brodsky the authors analyze the interplay of research and imagination in biographical narrative the changing perceptions of what constitutes literary greatness and the subversive possibilities of biography during eras of political censorship Alice Munro: Writing Her Lives Robert Thacker, 2011-05-03 This is the book about one of the world's great authors Alice Munro which shows how her life and her stories intertwine For almost thirty years Robert Thacker has been researching this book steeping himself in Alice Munro's life and work working with her co-operation to make it complete The result is a feast of information for Alice Munro's admirers everywhere By following the parallel tracks of Alice Munro's life and Alice Munro's texts he gives a thorough and revealing account of both her life and work There is always a starting point in reality she once said of her stories and this book reveals just how often her stories spring from her life The book is chronological starting with her pioneer ancestors but with special attention paid to her parents and to her early days growing up poor in Wingham Then all of her life stages the marriage to Jim Munro the move to Vancouver then to Victoria to start the bookstore the three daughters the divorce the return to Huron County and the new life with Gerry Fremlin leading to the triumphs as story by story book by book she gains fame around the world until rumours of a Nobel Prize circulate The Life Writing of Otherness Lauren Rusk, 2012-12-06 Focusing on innovative works by Woolf Baldwin Kingston and Winterson the author analyzes how they each represent the self as unique collectively other and inclusively human and how these conflicting aspects of selfhood interact The Consolations of Writing Rivkah Zim, 2017-06-06 Why writing in captivity is a vitally important form of literary resistance Boethius wrote The Consolation of Philosophy as a prisoner condemned to death for treason circumstances that are reflected in the themes and concerns of its evocative poetry and dialogue between the prisoner and his mentor Lady Philosophy This classic philosophical statement of late antiquity has had an enduring influence on Western thought It is also the earliest example of what Rivkah Zim identifies as a distinctive and vitally important medium of literary resistance writing in captivity by prisoners of conscience and persecuted minorities The Consolations of Writing reveals why the great contributors to this tradition of prison writing are among the most crucial figures in Western literature Zim pairs writers from different periods and cultural settings carefully examining the rhetorical strategies they used in captivity often under the threat of death She looks at Boethius and Dietrich Bonhoeffer as philosophers and theologians writing in defense of their ideas and Thomas More and Antonio Gramsci as politicians in dialogue with established concepts of church and state Different ideas of grace and disgrace occupied John Bunyan and Oscar Wilde in prison Madame Roland and Anne Frank wrote themselves into history in various forms of memoir and Jean Cassou and Irina Ratushinskaya voiced their resistance to totalitarianism through lyric poetry that saved their lives and inspired others Finally Primo Levi's writing after his release from Auschwitz recalls and decodes the obscenity of systematic genocide and its aftermath A moving and powerful testament The Consolations of Writing speaks to some of the most profound questions about life enriching our understanding of what it is to be human
