The Secondary School Curriculum: Content and Structure Weldon Beckner,Joe D. Cornett,1972 Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary Schools: A Research-Based Approach Cekiso, Madoda,Olifant, Florence,Mokhtari, Kouider,2025-04-23 Teaching reading comprehension to English learners ELs in secondary schools presents unique challenges as these students must navigate the complexities of academic texts and the intricacies of language acquisition Effective instruction requires a research based approach that considers the diverse linguistic cultural and cognitive backgrounds of these learners Recent studies highlight the importance of integrating strategies that build both language proficiency and content knowledge essential for helping ELs develop the skills needed to comprehend complex materials Fostering metacognitive awareness through strategies like summarizing questioning and making connections can empower students to become active and strategic readers This approach recognizes the need for a supportive inclusive classroom environment that encourages language development while promoting academic achievement in content areas Further research may help educators provide English learners with the tools to thrive as capable readers in secondary school Teaching Reading Comprehension to English Learners in Secondary School A Research Based Approach explores various aspects of teaching reading comprehension to English Second Language ESL learners in secondary schools It examines current challenges and evidence based strategies in reading comprehension This book covers topics such as language learning reading strategies and teacher training and is a useful resource for academicians researchers and scientists

Secondary and Middle School Teaching Methods Leonard H. Clark,Irving S. Starr,1981 Case Method and Pluralist Economics Kavous Ardalan,2017-12-09 This book discusses the relationship between pluralist economics and the case study method of teaching advocating the complimentary use of both to advance economics education Using a multi paradigmatic philosophical frame of analysis the book discusses the philosophical methodological and practical aspects of the case study method while drawing comparisons with those of the more commonly used lecture method The book also discusses pluralist economics through the exposition of the philosophical foundations of the extant economics schools of thought which is the focal point of the attention and admiration of pluralist economics More specifically the book discusses the major extant schools of thought in economics Neo Classical Economics New Institutional Economics Behavioral Economics Austrian Economics Post Keynesian Economics Institutional Economics Radical Economics and Marxist Economics and emphasizes that these schools of thought in economics are equally scientific and informative that they look at economic phenomena from their certain paradigmatic viewpoint and that together they provide a more balanced understanding of the economic phenomenon under consideration Emphasizing paradigmatic diversity as the cornerstone of both the case method and pluralist economics the book draws the two together and makes an effective case for their combined use A rigorous multi faceted analysis of the philosophy methodology and practice of economics education this book is important for academicians and students interested in heterodox economics philosophy and education

Interdisciplinarity and Problem-Based Learning in Higher Education Annie Aarup Jensen, Diana Stentoft, Ole Ravn, 2019-09-14 This book addresses the relation between Problem Based Learning PBL and interdisciplinarity and challenges the often implicit assumption that PBL leads to interdisciplinarity by default The book examines theoretical and philosophical aspects of PBL and interdisciplinary learning The first part of the book conceptualises the notions of problem based learning and interdisciplinary learning and highlights some key overlaps and ways of conceiving of their interrelatedness It discusses the role of problem based medical education in relation to interdisciplinary professionalism in medical education Taking the reader into the realm of techno anthropology the book discusses the role of problems and projects in transgressing disciplines and presents an analysis of three challenges facing new students when entering interdisciplinary and problem based higher education The second part of the book focuses on practicing interdisciplinarity in problem based higher education It explores how the construction of problems in interdisciplinary PBL projects can be seen from the perspectives of multicultural groups and examines group processes in interdisciplinary PBL projects It concludes by taking a closer look at student practices in interdisciplinary PBL and at how students are positioned and position themselves in the complex transdisciplinary PBL project
