Religions of the World, from Primitive Beliefs to Modern Faiths Geoffrey Parrinder, 1971 Drawing from archaeological findings literature and art the authors explore the origins beliefs practices and history of the world s religions Religions of the World, from Primitive Beliefs to Modern Faiths. General Editor: Geoffrey Parrinder. [1st U.S. Ed.] Edward Geoffrey Parrinder, 1971 Religion Dans L'histoire Michel Despland, Gérard Vallée, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate Three of the invited participants W C Smith M Despland and E Feil has each previously written impressive books treating this subject the last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith s work The Meaning and End of Religion An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith s contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature Contributors then examine the transformation of words the classical religio to the modern religion particularities of religion in nineteenth century France Troeltsch s concept of religion the study of religion from an Asian point of view and the categorization of World Religions The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological cross disciplinary semiological deconstructive and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological pluralism currently existing in the field of Religious Studies Of interest to scholars and students alike this collection also contains a complete bibliography of W C Smith s publications Theories of Religion Seth Daniel Kunin, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2006 This book provides a comprehensive selection of readings that relate to and explore the definition of religion The texts come from a wide range of approaches unified both by the questions they are addressing and their broadly social scientific perspective The disciplines covered include anthropology phenomenology psychology and sociology The editors have also included some key texts relating to the feminist approach to and critique of religion The first section of the book includes some of the foundational texts such as materials by Marx Freud and Durkheim The remaining sections look at more recent discussions of the issues from the different disciplinary perspectives Each reading is introduced by a biographical sketch of the author The book also includes introductory discussions to each section that both raise the key issues developed in a particular discipline and address the disciplinary approaches from a more critical stance Theories of Religion A Reader is an invaluable critical resource accessible to a broad audience as well as students of theology and religious studies Edward Burnett Tylor, Religion and Culture Paul-François Tremlett, Graham Harvey, Liam T. Sutherland, 2017-09-21 Through revisiting and challenging what we think we know about the work of Edward Burnett Tylor a founding figure of anthropology this volume explores new connections and insights that link Tylor and his work to present concerns in new and important ways At the publication of Primitive Culture in 1871 Tylor was at the centre of anthropological research on religion and culture but today

Tylor's position in the anthropological canon is rarely acknowledged. Edward Burnett Tylor's Religion and Culture does not claim to present a definitive new Tylor. The old Tylor, the founder of British anthropology, the definer of religion, the intellectualist, the evolutionist, the liberal, the utilitarian, the avatar of white Protestant rationalism, the Tylor of the canon remains. Part I explores debates and contexts of Tylor's lifetime, while the chapters in Part II explore a series of new Tylors, including Tylor the ethnographer and Tylor the Spiritualist, re-writing the legacy of the founder of anthropology in the process. Edward Burnett Tylor's Religion and Culture is essential reading for anyone interested in the study of religion and the anthropology of religion. Contributions of Science to Religion Shailer Mathews, William Emerson Ritter, 1924

Religious Truth Robert Cummings Neville, 2001-01-01 Explores religious truth in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself. The World's Religions: The Study of Religion, Traditional and New Religion Peter Clarke, Stewart Sutherland, 2002-11 Examines the primitive traditional non-mainstream religion and also 20th century sects such as the Moonies and Scientology. Looks at the nature of religion, the general philosophical issues. Written by international specialists. Religion Seth Daniel Kunin, 2003 Over the course of the twentieth century, the way we understand the religious experience has been transformed. Various thinkers and intellectual approaches have shaped the ways in which scholars examine rituals, symbols, and belief systems. In The Handbook of Contemporary Animism Graham Harvey, 2014-09-11 The Handbook of Contemporary Animism brings together an international team of scholars to examine the full range of animist worldviews and practices. The volume opens with an examination of recent approaches to animism. This is followed by evaluations of ethnographic, cognitive, literary, performative, and material culture approaches, as well as advances in activist and indigenous thinking about animism. This handbook will be invaluable to students and scholars of Religion, Sociology, and Anthropology. Proceedings of the International Conference Social - Humanities in Maritime and Border Area (SHIMBA 2023) Azhari Setiawan, Rizky Octa Putri Chairin, Rizqi Apriani Putri, Agung Dhamar Syakti, Hilfi Pardi, ONanong Thippimol, Ziaul Haque Munim, Jalaluddin Abdul Malek, Andi Misbahul Pratiwi, 2023-12-01 This is an open access book. Empire of Religion David Chidester, 2014-03-19 How is knowledge about religion and religions produced, and how is that knowledge authenticated and circulated David Chidester seeks to answer these questions in Empire of Religion documenting and analyzing the emergence of a science of comparative religion in Great Britain during the second half of the nineteenth century and its complex relations to the colonial situation in southern Africa In the process Chidester provides a counterhistory of the academic study of religion an alternative to standard accounts that have failed to link the field of comparative religion with either the power relations or the historical contingencies of the imperial project In developing a material history of the study of religion Chidester documents the importance of African religion the persistence of the divide between savagery and civilization and the salience of mediations imperial colonial and indigenous in which knowledge about religions was produced He then identifies the recurrence of these mediations in a number of case studies including Friedrich Max Müller's dependence on colonial experts H Rider Haggard and John Buchan's fictional accounts of African religion and W E B Du Bois's studies of African religion By reclaiming these theorists for this history Chidester shows that race rather than theology was formative in the emerging study of religion in Europe and North America Sure to be controversial Empire of Religion is a major contribution to the field of comparative religious studies

M. Reid, 2003-01-01 Religion and Global Culture draws together the work of a group of historians of religion who are concerned with situating the contemporary study of religion within the cultural complexity of the modern world The writing of each of the volume s contributors relates to the work of leading historian of religion Charles H Long who has identified religious meanings in the contacts and exchanges of the colonial and postcolonial periods Together with Long these scholars explore religious practices in a variety of globalized contexts chapters consider such varied subjects as the rituals of African immigrant communities in the United States the making of Mohawk sweet grass and black ash baskets the religious experience of prisoners in the Nazi holding camp of Westerbork and the regional repercussions of contemporary multi national business By locating religion in the conflicted and cooperative relationships of the colonial and postcolonial periods Religion and Global Culture calls on scholars of religion to reconfigure their interpretive stances from the perspective of the material structures of the modern globalized world
