Something to Remember Me By Erika Willows, 2024-06-18 When we pass what is there left to remember us A t shirt that smells faintly of the laundry detergent we used to use a few photographs and maybe some jewelry The most important are the stories that swirl amongst those that are left behind Something to Remember Me By is a collection of memories of the author s sister taken too soon from cancer It is an emotional journey of processing grief and questioning mortality and longevity The difficulty of navigating life when someone closest to you is sick and explores the long term effects of coping and processing her loss *Prayers and thanksgivings for the holy communion, tr. from Coptic, Armenian, and other Eastern rituals by S.C. Bernard Brown, 2018-04-27

Voices of the heart is a collection of poems and lyrical bits of real life emotions pains joys moments and dreams captured in words This collection of poetry spans over 45 years I wrote my first poem as I can recall when I was but a teenager I remember seeing some beautiful red birds in the trees it was a thing of beauty and in those day I did not have a camera Through the years as things touched my heart are bothered me I wrote about them At that time I only wrote about it so I can remember it and had no inkling of composing a book poetry but after writing so many poems through the years of my good and bad experiences and now that Im retired and live in the woods by the lake and sits on my porch much of the time it came into my spirit and I decided to clean some of my bits up and put them together for everyone who wish to share them I call my collection Voices of the Heart This collection of poems concerns mostly my life for the last 45 years through the joys pains and strife two marriages six meaningful relationships six children four different women undergraduate and graduate degrees from two colleges one is south and one in the Midwests and having reside in three states My life has always been a journey never a destination I am about 60 now my thoughts are still beyond the familiar I often think about getting my doctorate degrees build a house in the mountains and making more memories I cherish every fleeting moment and appreciate life like its no tomorrow every day
