Peyko, 2009-05-01 With stories of inventors movie moguls local cuisine and sports heroes Editor Mark C Peyko and the writers of the Metro Monthly not only chronicle the history of Youngstown but also capture the essence of their home The blows of hammers and the humming of mills once echoed throughout the Mahoning Valley Steel reigned supreme and immigrants from every corner of Europe came to forge new lives and an enduring community When the sounds of industry were silenced Youngstown remained a strong and vibrant community Peyko and company create a portrait of their city through a beautifully rendered collection of vignettes U2 Above, Across, and Beyond Scott D. Calhoun, 2014-12-23 U2's success and significance are due in large part to finding inventive creative solutions for overcoming obstacles and moving past conventional boundaries As it has embraced change and transformation over and over again its fans and critics have come to value and expect this element of U2 These new essays from the disciplines of organizational communication music theory literary studies religion and cultural studies offer perspectives on several ways U2's dynamic of change has been a constant theme throughout its career The eight essays here come from the U2 Conference 2013 which explores the music work and influence of U2 furthering the scholarship on U2

Remembering Annie Hall Jonathan Ellis, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, 2023-08-24 Since its release Annie Hall has established itself as a key film for Woody Allen's career and the history of romantic comedy more generally. At the 1978 Academy Awards it won Oscars for Best Film, Best Director, Best Screenplay and Best Actress and is regularly cited as one of the greatest film comedies ever released, credited with influencing directors such as Wes Anderson, Noah Baumbach, Richard Linklater, Greta Gerwig and Desiree Akhavan. This lively collection brings a new ethical and philosophical perspective to bear on Allen's work quite different from previous generations of scholars. At the same time as exploring the film's continuing influence on contemporary cinema, this book's contributors engage explicitly and implicitly with ongoing debates about Allen's cinematic output following the renewal of accusations against Allen by his adopted daughter Dylan Farrow in 2014 and 2018. The book is alive to debates within film studies about the limits of auteur theory and the role of the spectator.

The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini, people captivate people. A.E.'s Biography, best-selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre. But where does one begin? Sinatra's Tailor Mark A. Thompson, 2024-11-05 A captivating account of an Italian immigrant's journey from World War II orphan in Italy to celebrity tailor for Hollywood's finest. Italy America magazine of the Sons and Daughters of Italy. With Italy ruptured by conflict during the Second World War, a young boy is sent off without explanation to a Roman Catholic orphanage by his beloved grandfather. Umberto Autore would not return to his family home for many years. What follows is a remarkable story of how Umberto survived a childhood raised by nuns and Nazis and went on to become a sought-after celebrity clothier in Los Angeles, courting the tastes of such Hollywood luminaries as Frank Sinatra and the Rat Pack. Steven Spielberg and many others. Heartwarming, harrowing and often humorous, Umberto's account of his reunion with his family and his journey to the shores of America, where he found success beyond his wildest imaginings, is a moving and unforgettable tale of the triumph of the human spirit over adversity and an inspiring account of the American immigrant experience.

A Living Systems Theory of Vocational Behavior and Development Fred W. Vondracek, Donald H. Ford, Erik J. Porfeli, 2014-07-03 The Living Systems Theory of Vocational Behavior and Development (LSVD) explains and illustrates the processes by which individuals construct their work experiences, vocational pathways and career patterns through episodes of interaction with affordances they recognize within their contexts and how counseling can facilitate those processes The LSVD was created by combining the scientifically based systems theory that explicates the dynamics of all aspects of human functioning and development called Humans as Self Constructing Living Systems with important ideas about vocational behavior and development The resulting integrative theory represents the individual person as a dynamic self directing and self constructing entity i e a living system Behavior Episodes BEs are the fundamental person in context dynamic units of analysis that serve as the building blocks by which individuals construct and retain their experiences in patterns that can be reactivated to facilitate future BEs The book describes how individuals history of satisfying BEs and their current activities provide the means by which vocational and career counselors can assist them to create satisfying vocational pathways It also describes for researchers how new non linear person centered quantitative and qualitative research methods can be used to analyze BE patterns to advance understanding of person level processes that play key roles in individuals vocational behavior and development The LSVD was designed to be not just an integrative framework for the field of career development but also to reconnect the field to related areas such as human resources and industrial organizational psychology and to the range of human sciences that have already embraced a living systems theoretical model
