Remembrance Of Crimes Past:

Remembrance of Crimes Past Dannie ABSE,1990 The Crime of Destruction and the Law of Genocide Caroline Fournet,2016-03-16 This highly original work provides a thought provoking and valuable resource for researchers and academics with an interest in genocide criminology international organizations and law and society In her book Caroline Fournet examines the law relating to genocide and explores the apparent failure of society to provide an adequate response to incidences of mass atrocity The work casts a legal perspective on this social phenomenon to show that genocide fails to be appropriately remembered due to inherent defects in the law of genocide itself The book thus connects the social response to the legal theory and practice and trials in particular Fournet s study illustrates the shortcomings of the Genocide Convention as a means of preventing and punishing genocide as well as its consequent failure to ensure the memory of this heinous crime

Offenders' Memories of Violent Crimes Sven A. Christianson,2007-04-17 Violent offenders often claim amnesia in order to avoid punishment It is important for investigators and juries to ascertain whether such amnesia is genuine or feigned an offender with amnesia is not able to enter a plea and issues of automatism are raised

Law and Memory Uladzislau Belavusau,Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias,2017-10-19 The volume revisits memory laws as a phenomenon of global law transitional justice historical narratives and claims for historical truth It will appeal to those interested in the conflict between legal governance of memory with values of democratic citizenship political pluralism and fundamental rights

Law and the Politics of Memory Stiina Loytomaki,2014-06-05 Law and the Politics of Memory Confronting the Past examines law s role as a tool of memory politics in the efforts of contemporary societies to work through the traumas of their past Using the examples of French colonialism and Vichy as well as addressing the politics of memory surrounding the Holocaust communism and colonialism this book provides a critical exploration of law s role in belated transitional justice contexts The book examines how and why law has become so central in processes in which the past is constituted as a series of injustices that need to be rectified and can allegedly be repaired As such it explores different legal modalities in processes of working through the past addressing the implications of regulating history and memory through legal categories and legislative acts whilst exploring how trials restitution cases and memory laws manage to fulfil such varied expectations as clarifying truth rendering homage to memory and reconciling societies Legal scholars historians and political scientists especially those working with transitional justice history and memory politics in particular will find this book a stimulating exploration of the specificity of law as an instrument and forum of the politics of memory

Remembrance and Forgiveness Ajlina Karamehić-Muratović,Laura Kromják,2020-10-26 An enquiry into the social science of remembrance and forgiveness in global episodes of genocide and mass violence during the post Holocaust era this volume explores the ways in which remembrance and forgiveness have changed over time and how they have been used in more recent cases of genocide and mass violence With case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia South Sudan South Africa Australia Cambodia Indonesia Timor

Leste Israel Palestine Argentina Guatemala El Salvador the United States Bosnia and Herzegovina and Chechnya the volume avoids a purely legal perspective to open the interpretation of post genocidal societies communities and individuals to global and interdisciplinary perspectives that consider not only forgiveness and thus social harmony but remembrance and disharmony This volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in memory studies genocide remembrance and forgiveness Criminal Visions Paul Mason,2012-12-06 Despite being an increasingly high profile subject few publications address media representations of law and order head on This book aims to meet this need by bringing together an important range of papers from leading researchers in the field addressing issues of fictional factual and hybrid representations of crime in the media The Memory of Power and Abuse of Power Franziska Metzger,Paul Oberholzer,Hans Zollner,2025-09-08 This volume approaches the memory of abuses of power in past and present societies from a transdisciplinary perspective On the one hand methodological approaches and schemes of analysis are developed from the point of view of philosophy and theory of history history didactics literary studies anthropology Church and religious history On the other hand the contributions deal with case studies that pay special attention to the Holocaust to mass violence and war the history of slavery missionary history and sexual abuse The focus is on narratives of memory politics of history the relation between historiography public memory restitution and reparation but also on empowerment and participation in civil society and by victims of violence in the creation of public memory spaces of commemoration and memorials regarding instances of abuse of power Political Crime and the Memory of Loss John Borneman,2011-10-04 Loss is a fundamental human condition that often leads both individuals and groups to seek redress in the form of violence But are there possible modes of redress to reckon with loss that might lead to a departure from the violence of collective and individual revenge This book focuses on the redress of political crime in Germany and Lebanon extending its analysis to questions of accountability and democratization in the United States and elsewhere To understand the proposed modes of redress John Borneman links the way the actors define their injuries to the cultural forms of redress these injuries assume and to the social contexts in which they are open to refiguring Borneman theorizes modes of accountability the meaning of regime change and the American occupation of Iraq and the mechanisms of democratic authority in Europe and North America Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War Sebastiaan Faber,2018-01-31 The ability to forget the violent twentieth century past was long seen as a virtue in Spain even a duty But the common wisdom has shifted as increasing numbers of Spaniards want to know what happened who suffered and who is to blame Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War shows how historiography fiction and photography have shaped our views of the 1936-39 war and its long painful aftermath Faber traces the curious trajectories of iconic Spanish Civil War photographs by Robert Capa Gerda Taro and David Seymour critically reads a dozen recent Spanish novels and essays interrogates basic scholarly assumptions about history memory and literature and interviews nine scholars activists and documentarians who in the past decade and a half have helped redefine

Spain's relationship to its past In this book Faber argues that recent political developments in Spain from the grassroots call for the recovery of historical memory to the indignados movement and the foundation of Podemos provide an opportunity for scholars in the humanities to engage in a more activist public and democratic practice Disputed Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, 2016-06-20 The world wars genocides and extremist ideologies of the 20th century are remembered very differently across Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe resulting sometimes in fierce memory disputes This book investigates the complexity and contention of the layers of memory of the troubled 20th century in the region Written by an international group of scholars from a diversity of disciplines the chapters approach memory disputes in methodologically innovative ways studying representations and negotiations of disputed pasts in different media including monuments museum exhibitions individual and political discourse and electronic social media Analyzing memory disputes in various local national and transnational contexts the chapters demonstrate the political power and social impact of painful and disputed memories The book brings new insights into current memory disputes in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe It contributes to the understanding of processes of memory transmission and negotiation across borders and cultures in Europe emphasizing the interconnectedness of memory with emotions mediation and politics Civil Society and Memory in Postwar Germany Jenny Wüstenberg, 2017-09-07 This book analyzes postwar Germany to show how social movements shape public memory and influence democratization through cooperation and conflict with government Places of Traumatic Memory Amy L. Hubbell, Natsuko Akagawa, Sol Rojas-Lizana, Annie Pohlman, 2020-10-31 This volume explores the relationship between place traumatic memory and narrative Drawing on cases from Africa Asia Europe Oceania and North and South America the book provides a uniquely cross cultural and global approach Covering a wide range of cultural and linguistic contexts the volume is divided into three parts memorial spaces sites of trauma and traumatic representations The contributions explore how acknowledgement of past suffering is key to the complex inter relationship between the politics of memory expressions of victimhood and collective memory Contributors take note of differing aspects of memorial culture such as those embedded in war memorials mass grave sites and exhibitions as well as journalistic literary and visual forms of commemorations to investigate how narratives of memory can give meaning and form to places of trauma Handbook on the Politics of Memory Maria Mälksoo, 2023-01-20 Providing a novel multi disciplinary theorization of memory politics this insightful Handbook brings varied literatures into a focused dialogue on the ways in which the past is remembered and how these influence transnational interstate and global politics in the present Remembering the Holocaust in Educational Settings Andy Pearce, 2018-05-30 Remembering the Holocaust in Educational Settings brings together a group of international experts to investigate the relationship between Holocaust remembrance and different types of educational activity through consideration of how education has become charged with preserving and perpetuating Holocaust memory and an examination of the challenges and opportunities this presents The book is divided into two key parts The first part considers the issues of and approaches to the remembrance of the Holocaust within an educational setting with essays covering topics such as historical culture genocide education familial narratives the survivor generation and memory spaces in the United States United Kingdom and Germany In the second part contributors explore a wide range of case studies within which education and Holocaust remembrance interact including young people s understanding of the Holocaust in Germany Polish identity narratives Shoah remembrance and education in Israel the Holocaust and Genocide Centre of Education and Memory in South Africa and teaching at Deakin University Melbourne Australia An international and interdisciplinary exploration of how and why the Holocaust is remembered through educational activity Remembering the Holocaust in Educational Settings is the ideal book for all students scholars and researchers of the history and memory of the Holocaust as well as those studying and working within Holocaust education

Poetry Criticism , Injustice, Memory and Faith in Human Rights Kalliopi Chainoglou, Barry Collins, Michael Phillips, John Strawson, 2017-07-20 This multi disciplinary collection interrogates the role of human rights in addressing past injustices The volume draws on legal scholars political scientists anthropologists and political philosophers grappling with the weight of the memory of historical injustices arising from conflicts in Europe the Middle East and Australasia It examines the role of human rights as legal doctrine rhetoric and policy as developed by states international organizations regional groups and non governmental bodies The authors question whether faith in human rights is justified as balm to heal past injustice or whether such faith nourishes both victimhood and self justification These issues are explored through three discrete sections moments of memory and injustice addressing injustice and questions of faith In each of these sections authors address the manner in which memory of past conflicts and injustice haunt our contemporary understanding of human rights The volume questions whether the expectation that human rights law can deal with past injustice has undermined the development of an emancipatory politics of human rights for our current world

Holocaust Memory and the Cold War Anna Koch, Stephan Stach, 2024-10-21 Even before World War II had ended survivors historians writers and artists tried to make sense of the Holocaust To do so they relied on belief systems and narratives that as the bloc confrontation intensified were increasingly shaped by Cold War thinking Foregrounding the Cold War s role in shaping Holocaust memory this book highlights how the global conflict between East and West influenced research legal proceedings and collective as well as individual memories of the murder of European Jews Contributions focusing on different parts of the world reveal commonalities differences and entanglements between Eastern and Western memories of the Holocaust Examining Holocaust memory from various disciplinary perspectives the authors highlight the many ways in which scholars writers artists and survivors both countered and contributed to dominant narratives shaped by oppositional ideological stances While such distinct ideological positions often mattered greatly at other times a shared interest in bringing perpetrators to justice commemorating victims and providing testimony to the atrocities committed against Europe s Jews led to cooperation and exchange across the Iron Curtain
