The Commonwealth Survey – 1936

What is Commonwealth?

The Commonwealth era is the 10 years transitional period in Philippine history from 1935 to 1945 in preparation for independence from the United States as provided for under the Philippine Independence Act or more popularly known as the Tydings-McDuffie law.

- The Tydings-McDuffie law was proposed by President Manuel L. Quezon and on March 24, 1934 it was signed into law by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in United States. In this law it is stated that the Commonwealth will be established in our government which will only last for 10 years. The purpose of this law is to prepare us Filipinos for our independence. By this time Filipinos made their way in solving different issues in our country and one of them is in the uplifting of the educational system here in the Philippines.
- After 11 years another survey had took place again after the Monroe Survey it is the Commonwealth survey.
- During the Commonwealth, they made an improvement in the Philippine educational system it is through the Executive Order Number 19 which was made by Manuel L. Quezon the National Council of Education on February 19, 1936. The main role of this council is to made some advices and recommendations for the improvement in the Philippine educational survey. And on 1936, the council had their Commonwealth Survey.

This survey made some recommendations for the changes in the Philippine education.

Adult Education

- Adult education was given an emphasis under the Commonwealth in 1935. An adult education program was started with the creation in 1936 of the office of adult education. By the end of 1940, there were 6,000 schools for adults with an enrollment of more than half a million.
