Representing The Troubles Text And Images 1970 2000:

The A to Z of the Northern Ireland Conflict Gordon Gillespie, 2009-09-24 For nearly four decades the conflict in Ireland has embittered relations between the communities living there and spoiled relations between the Republic of Ireland and Great Britain For three decades it escalated punctuated by periodic bloody clashes followed by somewhat calmer periods of tension during which violence of all sorts robberies kidnappings serious injuries and deaths were all too common During the past decade fortunately all sides have realized that armed solutions were unlikely to bring a solution to anyone's problems and that peace should be given a chance Fortunately with the establishment of a new Northern Ireland Executive there is a general acceptance that the conflict is now part of the past The A to Z of the Northern Ireland Conflict covers the history of the Troubles through a chronology covering the Northern Ireland conflict and peace process from 1968 until the formation of the new Northern Ireland Executive in May 2007 an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on main events individuals and organizations Researchers with an interest in the Northern Ireland conflict will find this book to be an essential addition to their collection of reference books on the subject

A History of Modern Irish Women's Literature Heather Ingman, Clíona Ó Gallchoir, 2018-07-26 This book offers the first comprehensive survey of writing by women in Ireland from the seventeenth century to the present day It covers literature in all genres including poetry drama and fiction as well as life writing and unpublished writing and addresses work in both English and Irish The chapters are authored by leading experts in their field giving readers an introduction to cutting edge research on each period and topic Survey chapters give an essential historical overview and are complemented by a focus on selected topics such as the short story and key figures whose relationship to the narrative of Irish literary history is analysed and reconsidered Demonstrating the pioneering achievements of a huge number of many hitherto neglected writers A History of Modern Irish Women's Literature makes a critical intervention in Irish literary history

Masculinities and the Contemporary Irish Theatre B. Singleton, 2010-11-24 Irish theatre and its histories appear to be dominated by men and their actions This book's socially and culturally contextualized analysis of performance over the last two decades however reveals masculinities that are anything but hegemonic played out in theatres and other arenas of performance all over Ireland

Representing the Troubles Brian Cliff, Eibhear Walshe, 2004 In the second half of the twentieth century Ireland experienced thirty years in which the political status of Northern Ireland was challenged by numerous acts of violence Since the signing of the Good Friday Belfast Agreement in 1998 it has been widely sensed that an era has passed in Irish history Now seems accordingly an auspicious time to begin an assessment of how the period of the Troubles was represented in literature theatre film and television drama This collection of essays considers representations of the Troubles in these varied genres and includes lectures given at the Royal Irish Academy by writers Glenn Patterson Anne Devlin and Colm Toibin

BOOK JACKET
Bernard MacLaverty: New Critical Readings Richard Rankin Russell, 2014-04-10 The author of such works as Lamb Cal

and Grace Notes Bernard MacLaverty is one of Northern Ireland's leading and most prolific contemporary writers. Bringing together leading scholars from a full range of critical perspectives, this is a comprehensive survey of contemporary scholarship on MacLaverty. Covering all of his novels and many of his short stories, the book explores the ways in which the author has grappled with such themes as The Troubles, the Holocaust, Catholicism, and music. Bernard MacLaverty Critical Readings also includes coverage of the film adaptations of his work.

The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2010-08-10 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights is an authoritative guide to the work of twenty-five playwrights from the last 50 years whose work has helped to shape and define Irish theatre. Written by a team of international scholars, it provides an illuminating survey and analysis of each writer's plays and will be invaluable to anyone interested in studying or teaching contemporary Irish drama. The playwrights examined range from John B. Keane, Brian Friel, and Tom Murphy to the crop of writers who emerged in the 1990s and who include Martin McDonagh, Marina Carr, Emma Donoghue, and Mark O'Rourke. Each essay features a biographical sketch and introduction to the playwright, a discussion of their most important plays, an analysis of their stylistic and thematic traits, the critical reception, and their place in the discourses of Irish theatre, a bibliography of texts and critical material. With a total of 190 plays discussed in detail, over half of which were written during the 1990s and 2000s, The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights is unrivalled in its study of recent plays and playwrights.

Historical Dictionary of the Northern Ireland Conflict Gordon Gillespie, 2017-03-16 The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Northern Ireland Conflict provides an accessible and comprehensive study of the conflict and peace process in Northern Ireland from the 1960s to 2016. The second edition of the book expands on the references relating to individuals, organizations, and events of the Northern Ireland Troubles and adds material on significant subsequent developments. This work provides a unique view of developments since the signing of the Good Friday Agreement in 1998. While widely heralded as the end of the Northern Ireland conflict, the agreement instead witnessed the beginning of a new series of political difficulties to be addressed. The Historical Dictionary of the Northern Ireland Conflict is the first significant reference work to examine many of the issues related to political and cultural conflicts and dealing with the past, which have grown in intensity since 1998. Many of these themes will be relevant to students of post-conflict societies in other areas of the world. This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Northern Ireland Conflict contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture.

Historical Dictionary of Ireland Frank A. Bilezikian, 2013-11-14 All places undergo change, but in few has this change been quite as sweeping as Ireland. Both the independent Republic of Ireland and dependent Northern Ireland, so it is good to see where it is heading at present. Obviously, that has to be judged on the background of where it is coming from, not only over the past decade or so, but over centuries and indeed millennia. This new edition of Historical Dictionary of Ireland is an excellent resource for discovering the history of Ireland This is done through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The cross referenced dictionary section has over 600 entries on significant persons places and events political parties and institutions including the Catholic church with period forays into literature music and the arts This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ireland

Twentieth-Century Fiction by Irish Women Heather Ingman,2017-03-02 During much of the twentieth century Irish women s position was on the boundaries of national life Using Julia Kristeva s theories of nationhood often particularly relevant to Ireland this study demonstrates that their marginalization was to women s and indeed the nation s advantage as Irish women writers used their voice to subvert received pieties both about women and about the Irish nation Kristevan theories of the other the foreigner the semiotic the mother and the sacred are explored in authors as diverse as Elizabeth Bowen Kate O Brien Edna O Brien Mary Dorcey Jennifer Johnston and Eilis Ni Dhuibhne as well as authors from Northern Ireland like Deirdre Madden Polly Devlin and Mary Morrissy These writers whose voices have frequently been sidelined or misunderstood because they write against the grain of their country s cultural heritage finally receive their due in this important contribution to Irish and gender studies

Transcultural Areas Wolfgang Berg,2011-08-03 Based on culture as a complex system of rules it is too obvious that each rule has a particular range which is only exceptionally congruent with national or natural borders In general cultural exchange is not limited by political borders or rivers forests seas or mountains Those areas are rather transcultural which is especially true for markets and towns Dealing with cities like Buenos Aires or Riga regions like Podlachia Poland Northern Ireland or Bukovina and the area of the Danube river the case studies give evidence for this thesis The book will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of cultural and intercultural studies

Seen and Unseen: Visual Cultures of Imperialism ,2017-10-02 Seen and Unseen teases out and explores how visual mediums construct visual cultures that often create limited perspectives of certain issues and groups This volume focuses in particular on the representation of Islam and Muslims It deals with fixed and stereotypical visual representations and explores alternative and challenging visual representations that reconstruct and dismantle existing belief systems It approaches the topic from a vantage point of diverse multiple perspectives Covering issues from Brunei Iran Egypt and England and cyberspace the essays in this volume examine the visual cultures of how Islam and Muslims are understood misunderstood misrepresented or even embraced visually Scholars in this volume draw on historical paintings books and their covers photography and news to demonstrate the diversity and sometimes contradictory visual cultures that construct and adhere meaning to how Islam and Muslim people are seen Contributors Hoda Afshar Jared Ahmed Syed Farid Alatas Sanaz Fotouhi Christiane Gruber Layla Hendow Raihana M M Bruno Starrs and Esmaeil Zeiny

The Shattered Mirror Paula Murphy,2021-02-03 The Shattered Mirror Irish Literature and Film 1990 2005 is a response to changing representations of Irish identity Interrogating the period of the Celtic Tiger in Ireland which was accompanied by widespread social change the book draws on Lacanian psychoanalysis to explore issues such as prosperity Europeanism Diaspora multi culturalism decline in religious faith and gender norms Examining three writers and filmmakers in each section on narrative drama and film The Shattered Mirror argues that in this fifteen years Irish identity has changed radically The Scarlet Woman and the Red Hand Joshua T. Searle,2014-04-16 This book provides a comprehensive description of how evangelicals in Northern Ireland interpreted the Troubles 1966 2007 in the light of how they read the Bible The rich and diverse landscape of Northern Irish evangelicalism during the Troubles is ideally suited to this study of both the light and dark sides of apocalyptic eschatology Searle demonstrates how the notion of apocalypse shaped evangelical and fundamentalist interpretations of the turbulent events that characterized this dark yet fascinating period in the history of Northern Ireland The book uses this case study to offer a timely reflection on some of the most pressing issues in contemporary negotiations between culture and religion Given the current resurgence of religious fundamentalism in the wake of 9 11 together with popular conceptions of a clash of civilizations and the so called War on Terror this book is not only an engaging academic study it also resonates with some of the defining cultural issues of our time Irish Crime Fiction Brian Cliff,2018-04-19 This book examines the recent expansion of Ireland s literary tradition to include home grown crime fiction It surveys the wave of books that use genre structures to explore specifically Irish issues such as the Troubles and the rise and fall of the Celtic Tiger as well as Irish experiences of human trafficking the supernatural abortion and civic corruption These novels are as likely to address the national regulation of sexuality through institutions like the Magdalen Laundries as they are to follow serial killers through the American South or to trace international corporate conspiracies This study includes chapters on Northern Irish crime fiction novels set in the Republic women protagonists and transnational themes and discusses Irish authors adaptations of a well loved genre and their effect on assumptions about the nature of Irish literature It is a book for readers of crime fiction and Irish literature alike illuminating the fertile intersections of the two Deirdre Madden Anne Fogarty,Marisol Morales-Ladrón,2022-06-28 The Irish writer Deirdre Madden has written key novels about the Northern Irish Troubles and about contemporary Ireland In these works she weighs up the aftermath of violence and the impact of the shift to a more open but materialist society in the country overall Memory trauma and the abiding but elusive links between the past and the present are central concerns of her fiction This pioneering set of essays by leading experts in Irish Studies explores the many dimensions of her novels from a wide variety of perspectives Madden s skill at interweaving novels of ideas with artist novels that draw out the complex inner predicaments of her characters is highlighted States of dislocation are concentrated on in her texts but also the quest for a home in the world and a lasting set of values that allows for personal integrity and authenticity These multifaceted explorations bear out the compelling and enduring aspects of Madden s highly regarded novels Painting History Tony Crowley,2025-09-16 Painting History The Murals of Northern Ireland 1908 2024 is the first book length study of the oldest and most enduring tradition of political wall art Tony Crowley shows how muralism became an important medium for the unionist and loyalist community in its political domination of public space before and after Partition. The text also demonstrates that nationalists and republicans painted few murals before the start of the 1981 Hunger Strike during which they painted wall art across republican areas of Northern Ireland as a way of publicizing their cause. In the context of a divided society by the mid 1980s murals had become an established genre for the expression of political demands and aspirations. In Painting History Tony Crowley provides a detailed analysis of the complex tradition of muralism in the context of the history that produced it with particular attention given to the cultural politics of this remarkable form. The book also raises and discusses a series of theoretical questions about murals and muralism that transcend Northern Ireland issues of propriety and legality form and content authority and censorship. The work ends with a consideration of the future of the murals in a still polarized but changing region.

Framing Crime Keith Hayward, the late Mike Presdee, 2010-07-02 In a world in which media images of crime and deviance proliferate where every facet of offending is reflected in a vast hall of mirrors Framing Crime: Cultural Criminology and the Image makes sense of the increasingly blurred line between the real and the virtual. Images of crime and crime control have become almost as real as crime and criminal justice itself. The meaning of both crime and crime control now resides not solely in the essential and essentially false factuality of crime rates or arrest records but also in the contested processes of symbolic display, cultural interpretation and representational negotiation. It is essential then that criminologists are closely attuned to the various ways in which crime is imagined, constructed and framed within modern society. Framing Crime responds to this demand with a collection of papers aimed at helping the reader to understand the ways in which the contemporary story of crime is constructed and promulgated through the image. It also provides the relevant analytical and research tools to unearth the hidden social and ideological concerns that frequently underpin images of crime, violence and transgression. Framing Crime will be of interest to students and academics in the fields of criminology, crime and the media and sociology.

Inventing the Myth Connal Parr, 2017 A lively and timely work about the history and politics of Ulster Protestants. The volume draws on over sixty interviews with politicians and cultural figures and focuses on ten writers whose work has reflected and challenged the views of their community.

Murals and Tourism Jonathan Skinner, Lee Jolliffe, 2017-06-26 Around the world tourists are drawn to visit murals painted on walls. Whether heritage asset, legacy leftover or contested art space the mural is more than a simple tourist attraction or accidental aspect of tourism material culture. They express something about the politics, heritage and identity of the locations being visited whether a medieval fresco in an Italian church or modern political art found in Belfast or Tehran. This interdisciplinary and highly international book explores tourism around murals that are either evolving or have transitioned as instruments of politics, heritage and identity. It explores the diverse messaging of these murals, their production, interpretation, marketing and in some cases destruction. It argues that the mural is more than a simple tourist attraction or accidental aspect of tourism material culture. Murals and Tourism will be valuable reading for those interested in cultural geography tourism heritage studies and the visual arts

Women in Irish Drama M. Sihra, 2007-03-14
