Research In Race And Ethnic Relations Vol 3 Research In Race And Ethnic Relations:

Research in Race and Ethnic Relations Cora Bagley Marrett, Rutledge Dennis, Cheryl Leggon, 1989-02 Handbook of International and Intercultural Communication William B. Gudykunst, Bella Mody, 2002 This handbook summarises the state of the art in international cultural and developmental communication and sets the agenda for future research

Biculturalism, Self Identity and Societal Development Rutledge M. Dennis, 2008-10-01 Offers fresh theoretical and methodological insights into biculturalism as a reality in many societies This work presents a variety of methodological strategies and techniques case studies autoethnography content analysis participant observation the national survey and structured and unstructured interviews Modernisation and Ethnicity D. V. Kumar, 2006-01-01 Social Policies and Social Control Malcolm Harrison, Teela Sanders, 2015-11-18 This book offers an innovative account of social control and behaviorist thinking in social policies and welfare systems and the impact it has had on disadvantaged groups The contributors review how controls have been applied to individuals and households and how these interventions have narrowed social rights They illuminate the links between social control developments welfare systems and the liberalization of economics and they highlight the negative impact that behaviorist assumptions and the subsequent strategies that have grown out of them have had on the disadvantaged Overall the volume provides a cutting edge critical engagement with contemporary policy developments Ethnicity and Integration John Stillwell, Maarten van Ham, 2010-07-20 The theme of this volume is ethnicity and the implications for integration of our increasingly ethnically diversified population New research findings from a range of census survey and administrative data sources are presented and case studies are included

Catalogue of Periodicals and Newspapers in the Library of the Basler Afrika Bibliographien Basler Afrika Bibliographien, 1999 Research in Education, 1974 Young, Female and Black Heidi Safia Mirza, 2005-07-12 Young black women bear all the hallmarks of a fundamentally unequal society They do well at school contribute to society are good efficient workers yet as a group they consistently fail to secure the economic status and occupational prestige they deserve This book presents a serious challenge to the widely held myth that young black women consistently underachieve both at school and in the labour market In a comparative study of research and writing from America Britain and the Caribbean Young Female and Black re-examines our present understanding of what is meant by educational underachievement the black family and in particular black womanhood in Britain The Minoritisation of Higher Education Students Ruth Mieschbuehler, 2017-07-28 Research into ethnic attainment differences in British higher education and elsewhere tends to depict students from minority ethnic backgrounds as disadvantaged marginalised discriminated against and excluded In The Minoritisation of Higher Education Mieschbuehler demonstrates that this idea is shaping theoretical perspectives and informing higher education policies and practice across the country yet current university policies and practices perpetuate rather than ameliorate the educational status of so called minority ethnic students Including an examination of current theories as well as a wealth of empirical data from students this book explains how group based social differentiation and student centred education foster the idea that ethnic and social attributes matter losing any sense of our common humanity Considering the consequences of this for students and university education as a whole and challenging all pre existing ideas of how to approach reported ethnic attainment gaps The Minoritisation of Higher Education is a thought provoking read The book will be of great interest to scholars postgraduate students and professionals in the areas of higher education learning and teaching equality and diversity ethnicity and attainment It is also an important work for policymakers concerned with higher education

Housing, Race and Law Martin MacEwen, 2002-09-11 Equality of opportunity in housing is a key issue in social justice in Britain today To the extent that it patterns an individual's educational social and economic development housing constitutes a crucial battleground in the fight against racial discrimination Housing Race and Law is the first publication to examine the law in relation to issues of housing and race in both the private and public sector It places these issues in the broader context of the development of anti discrimination legislation outlines the current legislation and examines its impact in relation to owner occupation public housing housing association tenancies and private lets Throughout the book emphasizes the practical impact of the various legislative provisions and discusses the responses of the principle institutions from government departments and relevant professions to the Commission for Racial Equality and the Community Relations Councils or Racial Equality Councils It argues a case for a new approach to appraisal review and enforcement By collating material from a wide variety of sources the author provides an original assessment of the Race Relations Act of 1976 and its impact on housing which in its provision of cogent material and arguments for reforms is designed to be of value to practitioners academics and those concerned with racial discrimination

Race, Politics and Social Change Les Back, 2002-01-31 Drawing on a wealth of original sources including interviews with politicians and activists this book explores the changing contours of the politics of race in the present social and political environment The volume seeks to go beyond abstract generalisations in order to develop an account which takes seriously the everyday processes that have shaped social understandings of race and politics in British society At the same time it links up to the broader debates about the impact of multiculturalism on contemporary politics the role of minorities in political life and the limits of democratic government Its account of the role of black politicians within the context of party politics will be of particular appeal to those interested in the interplay between mobilisation and the development of racial justice and equality Race Politics and Social Change will appeal to students of British Politics and Society and to all those with interests in the politics of race

White Bolts, Black Locks David N. Thomas, 2024-11-01 Originally published in 1986 White Bolts Black Locks was a major contribution to the national debate about racism racial justice and the relationships between the white and black British It examines the participation of black people in community activities and the effects on that participation of personal and institutional forms of racism This thought provoking and readable book has much to say to white and black professionals who work together for the author describes the way in which white speak and black speak are used to build self protective stockades David Thomas explores the idea of community capability and how black and white neighbours try to live together and improve their livelihood He presents stimulating material about neighbourhoods and suggests why they must be given more recognition as a proper part of the social structure The book will still be of historical interest to practitioners volunteers and local residents working in urban neighbourhoods and to students in social work community development politics sociology and social policy and administration It is a book that should not be ignored by anyone with an interest in the significance of neighbourhood processes and development

Exposing the Right and Fighting for Democracy Pam Chamberlain, Matthew N. Lyons, Abby Scher, Spencer Sunshine, 2021-09-29 This book celebrates the life and work of scholar activist Chip Berlet His contributions over four decades have had broad ranging impacts on activists independent intellectuals and academics from think tanks and social movements to generations of scholars Berlet s work over the decades has covered a wide range of topics from the Christian Right armed militias social movement theory and white supremacy to conspiracism civil liberties and government surveillance This book features contributions reflecting on many of these topics by leading scholars and activists who have been inspired by his work and example This book will be of great interest to scholars students and activists within anti racist anti fascist and progressive social movements

Ethnic Minorities in the Modern Nation State J. Rex, 1996-03-24 The author deals with the problem in political theory of how modern nation states must be structured in order to realise the two separate goals of equality of opportunity and the recognition of cultural diversity between groups Subsequent chapters argue against a number of West European critics for a society of this type and the concept of multiculturalism is developed as it is applied in other contexts in Eastern Europe and North America

Social Statistics and Ethnic Diversity Patrick Simon, Victor Piché, Amélie A. Gagnon, 2015-08-17 This open access book examines the question of collecting and disseminating data on ethnicity and race in order to describe characteristics of ethnic and racial groups identify factors of social and economic integration and implement policies to redress discrimination It offers a global perspective on the issue by looking at race and ethnicity in a wide variety of historical country specific contexts including Asia Latin America Europe Oceania and North America In addition the book also includes analysis on the indigenous populations of the Americas The book first offers comparative accounts of ethnic statistics It compares and empirically tests two perspectives for understanding national ethnic enumeration practices in a global context based on national census questionnaires and population registration forms for over 200 countries between 1990 to 2006 Next the book explores enumeration and identity politics with chapters that cover the debate on ethnic and racial statistics in France ethnic and linguistic categories in Quebec Brazilian ethnoracial classification and affirmative action policies and the Hispanic Latino identity and the United States census The third and final part of the book examines measurement issues and competing claims It explores such issues as the complexity of measuring diversity using Malaysia as an example social inequalities and indigenous populations in Mexico and the demographic explosion of aboriginal populations in Canada from 1986 to 2006 Overall the book sheds light on four main questions should ethnic groups be counted how should they be counted who is and who is not counted and what are the political and economic incentives for counting It will be of interest to all students of race ethnicity identity and immigration In addition researchers as well as policymakers will find useful discussions and insights for a better understanding of the complexity of categorization and related political and policy challenges Race, Migration and Identity Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2017-10-02 The chapters in this collection cover diverse aspects of the changing meanings and boundaries of race migration and identity in the contemporary United States The situation in the USA has been the subject of intense policy and political debate over the past decades and the papers in this volume provide an important insight from a wide range of analytical perspectives They provide an insight into the changing dynamics of race and migration in the contemporary environment combining conceptual analysis with original empirical research The concerns of this volume address global questions of relevance as well as those specific to the USA This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Measuring the Effects of Racism Robert T. Carter, Alex L. Pieterse, 2020-07-21 A large body of research has established a causal relationship between experiences of racial discrimination and adverse effects on mental and physical health In Measuring the Effects of Racism Robert T Carter and Alex L Pieterse offer a manual for mental health professionals on how to understand assess and treat the effects of racism as a psychological injury Carter and Pieterse provide guidance on how to recognize the psychological effects of racism and racial discrimination They propose an approach to understanding racism that connects particular experiences and incidents with a person's individual psychological and emotional response They detail how to evaluate the specific effects of race based encounters that produce psychological distress and possibly impairment or trauma Carter and Pieterse outline therapeutic interventions for use with individuals and groups who have experienced racial trauma and they draw attention to the importance of racial awareness for practitioners The book features a racial trauma assessment toolkit including a race based traumatic stress symptoms scale and interview schedule Useful for both scholars and practitioners including social workers educators and counselors Measuring the Effects of Racism offers a new framework of race based traumatic stress that helps legitimize psychological reactions to experiences of racism Resources in Education, 2001-10 Technical Abstract Bulletin, 1980
