 the french secrets One Medicine O.A. Ryder, M.L. Byrd, 2012-12-06 There is a saying he is a person who can charm the birds from the trees This might well be applied to Kurt Benirschke Indeed it describes both his warm personality and his intimate interaction with nature He might be considered a modern adept of the Greek and Roman Stoic school of philosophy which taught an understanding of man as integrated into nature in its totality The right way to live is according to nature with nature as part of it This at the same time means humanity and Kurt Benirschke impresses us not only as an outstanding scientist but also as a humanist who has had a lifelong love affair with nature The foundation of Springer Verlag New York in 1964 offered a great opportunity for getting together with eminent authors in the United States Kurt Benirschke was one of them and his book Pathology of the Placenta was highly acclaimed all over the world My attention was first called to him by my dear friend Dr Ernst Uhlinger then a pathologist in Zurich With a sharp and critical eye he followed the international literature on pathology and discovered the genius of Kurt Benirschke Our first encounters led to a relationship of trust which in turn grew into friendship I soon learned to esteem the special qualities of the man and the scientist in fact they cannot be separated Action, Mind, and Brain David A. Rosenbaum, 2022-02-08 An engaging and accessible introduction to the psychology and neuroscience of physical action This engaging and accessible book offers the first introductory text on the psychology and neuroscience of physical action Written by a leading researcher in the field it covers the interplay of action mind and brain showing that many core concepts in philosophy psychology neuroscience and technology grew out of questions about the control of everyday physical actions It explains action not as a one way street from stimuli to response but as a continual perception action cycle The informal writing style invites students to think through the evidence step by step helping them develop general thinking skills as well as learn specific facts Special emphasis is placed on the role of underrepresented groups The book discusses the intellectual background of the field from Plato to Kant Dewey and others applications and methods and the physical substrates of action bones tendons ligaments muscles and nerves It considers the control of actions in space learning and the roles of nature and nurture feedback feedforward or anticipated feedback and degrees of freedom the multiple ways of getting things done and three methods for narrowing the alternatives The book is generously illustrated including many images of thinkers who contributed to the field
