Economic Lives Viviana A. Zelizer, 2013-03-24 Revealing the human side of economic life Over the past three decades economic sociology has been revealing how culture shapes economic life even while economic facts affect social relationships This work has transformed the field into a flourishing and increasingly influential discipline No one has played a greater role in this development than Viviana Zelizer one of the world's leading sociologists Economic Lives synthesizes and extends her most important work to date demonstrating the full breadth and range of her field defining contributions in a single volume for the first time Economic Lives shows how shared cultural understandings and interpersonal relations shape everyday economic activities Far from being simple responses to narrow individual incentives and preferences economic actions emerge persist and are transformed by our relations to others Distilling three decades of research the book offers a distinctive vision of economic activity that brings out the hidden meanings and social actions behind the supposedly impersonal worlds of production consumption and asset transfer Economic Lives ranges broadly from life insurance marketing corporate ethics household budgets and migrant remittances to caring labor workplace romance baby markets and payments for sex These examples demonstrate an alternative approach to explaining how we manage economic activity as well as a different way of understanding why conventional economic theory has proved incapable of predicting or responding to recent economic crises Providing an important perspective on the recent past and possible futures of a growing field Economic Lives promises to be widely read and discussed      The Life Insurance Industry United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly, 1973      The Sociology of Economic Life Mark Granovetter, 2018-04-17 This book incorporates classic and contemporary readings in economic sociology and related disciplines to provide students with a broad understanding of the many dimensions of economic life It discusses Max Weber's key concepts in economics and sociology      *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Long, Thomas Lynch, 2013-08-23 Two of the most authoritative voices on the funeral industry come together here in one volume to discuss the current state of the funeral Through their different lenses one as a preacher and one as a funeral director Thomas G Long and Thomas Lynch alternately discuss several challenges facing the good funeral including the commercial aspects that have led many to be suspicious of funeral directors the sometimes tense relationship between pastors and funeral directors the tendency of modern funerals to exclude the body from the service and the rapid growth in cremation The book features forewords from Patrick Lynch President of the National Funeral Directors Association and Barbara Brown Taylor highly praised author and preacher It is an essential resource for funeral directors morticians and pastors and anyone else interested in current funeral practices

At First Sight Anne Pié, 2007 Fifty one year old Julia Goldman thought she had experienced it all Although she had been widowed for two years she was left financially well fixed with two grown children who were busy with their successful careers Life was routine and uneventful for Julia in her Hollywood home She thought she would just ease into the rest of her days without anything notable looming on the horizon Suddenly Life with a Capital L hands her what is to become the biggest decision of her life the sort of occurrence to which many a younger woman would hardly be equal An accidental encounter in the cocktail lounge of a posh hotel with a man who sweeps her off her feet and then disappears leaves her with much more than just a fond memory She is no longer able to conceal her predicament The sibling rivalry of her children plus her own with her flamboyant sister Verna add to the complexity and to the resolution of her plight      The Good Funeral Guide Charles Cowling, 2010-05-20 The Good Funeral Guide is the first ever independent consumer guide to the funeral industry It is for anyone who needs to arrange a funeral for someone now has sick or elderly relatives or friends and knows that a funeral is imminent wants to find a good funeral director and have some say in the funeral itself wants to make future arrangements for their own funeral would like to learn about deaths and funerals Authoritative impartial and empowering it is indispensable for those who don't want a conventional religious ceremony and invaluable for those who do This is a book

we will all need probably at least twice      Violent Geographies Derek Gregory, Allan Pred, 2013-10-18 Violent Geographies is essential to understanding how the politics of fear, terror and violence in being largely hidden geographically can only be exposed in like manner. The War on Terror finally receives the coolly critical analysis its ritual invocation has long required. John Agnew, Professor of Geography, UCLA. Urgent, passionate and deeply humane, Violent Geographies is uncomfortable but utterly compelling reading. An essential guide to a world splintered and wounded by fear and aggression, this is geography at its most politically engaged, historically sensitive and intellectually brave. Ben Highmore, University of Sussex. This is what a public geography should be all about: acute analysis of momentous issues of our time in an accessible language. Gregory and Pred have assembled a peerless group of critical geographers whose essays alter conventional understandings of terror, violence and fear. No mere gazetteer, Violent Geographies shows how place, space and landscape are central components of the real and imagined practices that constitute organised violence past and present. If you thought terror, violence and fear were the professional preserve of security analysts and foreign affairs experts, this book will force you to think again. Noel Castree, School of Environment and Development, Manchester University. A studied, passionate and moving examination of the way in which the violent logics of the War on Terror have so quickly shuttered and reorganized the spaces of this planet on its different scales. From the book emerges a critical new cartography that clearly charts an archipelago of a large multiplicity of wild and tamed places as well as black holes within and between which we all struggle to live. Eyal Weizman, Director, Goldsmiths College Centre for Research Architecture.      Sinner Man Lawrence Sanders, 2016-11-22. LAWRENCE SANDER'S FIRST CRIME NOVEL LOST FOR NEARLY 50 YEARS. To escape punishment for a murder he didn't mean to commit, insurance man Don Barshter has to take on a new identity. Nathaniel Crowley, ferocious, up and coming in the New York mob. But can he find safety in the skin of another man, a worse man, a sinner man?      Business Periodicals Index, 1983.
