Race Ing Representation Voice History And Sexuality:

Race-ing Representation Kostas Myrsiades, Linda S. Myrsiades, 1998 This collection takes on the problem of representing race in the context of a master language and culture These essays discuss this problem in terms of the ongoing struggle to redefine the self as speaker that is to re construe our understanding of history sexuality and speech itself in a continuing battle for self definition As a totality these essays explode the notion of race as a natural boundary between groups and pose a variety of possible constructions that force us to accept race not as a category but as a practice Kostas and Linda Myrsiades have brought together scholars whose varied essays explore the issues of voice history and sexuality in such diverse venues as detective fiction the Clarence Thomas hearings the witches of Salem the Harlem Renaissance and the work of Toni Morrison demonstrating that resistance to race ing is both meaningfully engaged as a cultural possibility and rewritten as a linguistic practice

Blackness and Sexualities Michelle M. Wright, Antje Schuhmann, 2007 With contributions from leading scholars from various disciplines this title offers analyses and critiques that span three continents and looks at topics such as the secret marketing of black female pornography to white American men and the eroticization of colonial legacies in contemporary German media

Between Hope and Despair Roger I. Simon, Sharon Rosenberg, Claudia Eppert, 2000-03-15 At the end of a century of unfathomable suffering societies are facing anew the question of how events that shock resist assimilation and evoke contradictory and complex responses should be remembered Between Hope and Despair specifically examines the pedagogical problem of how remembrance is to proceed when what is to be remembered is underscored by a logic difficult to comprehend and subversive of the humane character of existence This pedagogical attention to practices of remembrance reflects the growing cognizance that hope for a just and compassionate future lies in the sustained if troubled working through of these issues

Schooling as a Ritual Performance Peter McLaren, 1999 One of the most compelling ethnographies of school ever written Schooling as a Ritual Performance has for over a decade made its mark among educators sociologists and those seeking to understand the cultural meaning of classroom practices Written by one of the major world figures on the educational left Schooling as a Ritual Performance is a pioneering study of the partnership between capitalism and religion and the educational offspring it produces Not since Paul Willis Learning to Labor has an educational ethnography about schooling so pushed the limits of current social theory Now in a new edition to this classic text McLaren engages with some of the latest anthropological thinking and presents readers with a powerful manifesto for critical ethnography in the coming millennium

Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry The Mouse that

Roared Henry A. Giroux, 2001 Henry Giroux shows how Disney attempts to hide behind a cloak of innocence and entertainment while simultaneously exercising its influence as a major force on both global economics and cultural learning

Between the Masks Diane DuBose Brunner, 1998 Between the Masks articulates a study of representation and the politics of place through a pedagogy of narrative performing inquiry and a critical reflection on identity As a resistance to essentialist politics the text focuses on the identity making marking role of cultural materials in the recovery of different and overdetermined histories It proposes a multicultural revision of knowledge that displaces the binarisms of insider outside rather than simply shifting the margin to the center By combining perspectives that produce strong readings with a semiotic method of analysis the essentialist representations of racial ethnic sexual and class biases will be revealed as strategies of power that employ appearance in their seduction By this method Brunner suggests a view of reflexive performance that seeks not to legitimate but to critique displace and liberate these illusions of identity Between the Masks promotes critical teaching that can bring together the literary the historic the theoretical and the sociological Brunner suggests the combined study of cultural studies and education as a theoretical and pedagogical site which embraces curriculum theory teacher preparation and policy This book marks a move toward intertextual interdisciplinary study which will help educators modulate the complicated conversations and contexts of today's schools Pierre Bourdieu Nicholas Brown, Imre

Szeman, 2023-06-14 The wide range of subjects provides a glimpse of the extent to which Bourdieu's theories of culture have gained widespread currency in the humanities David Eick SubStance The work of Pierre Bourdieu one of the most influential French intellectuals of the twentieth century has had an enormous impact on research in fields as diverse as aesthetics education anthropology and sociology Pierre Bourdieu Fieldwork in Culture is the first collection of essays to focus specifically on the contribution of Bourdieu's thought to the study of cultural production Though Bourdieu's own work has illuminated diverse cultural phenomena the essays in this volume extend to new cultural forms and to national situations outside France Far from simply applying Bourdieu's concepts and theoretical tools to these new contexts the essays in this volume consider both the possibility and limits of Bourdieu's sociology for the study of culture Worth the attention of those who seek to become familiar with Bourdieu or to engage with a more well rounded familiarity with the usefulness of his social theory Christopher Lindsay Turner MFS Modern Fiction Studies This sparkling and unusually coherent collection of essays emphasizes the American reception and adaptation of Bourdieu's work. It shows how Bourdieu has been resisted and embraced and discusses how his terms and methods might be both used and modified by American academics. Theoretical reflections are productively complemented by empirical investigations of non-canonical and popular artistic expressions and by discussions of the position of women in Bourdieu's thought. Marshall Brown, University of Washington

Literacy as a Moral Imperative Rebecca Powell, 1999-09-08 In this important new book on literacy and teaching practices, education scholar and former schoolteacher Rebecca Powell argues that the decisions we make about literacy in a pluralistic society are fundamentally moral ones: either supporting inequitable power relationships or seeking to transform them. Powell explores the underlying ideological assumptions of schooled literacy and examines the ways teaching practices create tensions in the lives of students, tensions that often result in alienation and educational failure, particularly among those whose cultural knowledge and language tends to be marginalized in our nation's schools. While primarily grounded in critical theory, this volume also draws from multicultural and holistic perspectives in the teaching of written and oral language and addresses the link between whole language and critical pedagogy. Thus, the text is both theoretical and practical. Powell effectively argues that literacy instruction should encourage social responsibility and civic action; should enable students and teachers to understand the transformative potential of language and should nurture a culture of compassion and care.

Che Guevara, Paulo Freire, and the Pedagogy of Revolution Peter McLaren, 2025-10-16 Che Guevara's Paulo Freire and the Pedagogy of Revolution examines what is currently at stake culturally, politically, and educationally in contemporary global capitalist society. Written by one of the world's most renowned critical educators, this book evaluates the message of Che Guevara and Paulo Freire for contemporary politics in general and education in particular. Forcefully argued and eloquently written, Che Guevara, Paulo Freire, and the Pedagogy of Revolution is a clarion call for building a new social order premised on the ideas and philosophy of two of the most important revolutionary figures of this century. It is an indispensable reference point for building transnational alliances between the North American and Latin American. Che Guevara's Paulo Freire is the best introduction available to the ideas and philosophy of these two iconoclastic figures.
