Racism And Social Inequality In Canada Concepts Controversies And Strategies Of Resistance:

Racism and Social Inequality in Canada Vic Satzewich, 1998 The chapters in this books seeks to answer the questions to what extent does racism continue to inform and and structure how are institutions operate today What is the social meaning of race in contemporary Canadian society and what is the most effective way to combat racism in all its forms The contributors analyze the conditions that give rise to racism the extent to which racism permeates social institutions how groups of people have organized against racism and the ways racism is linked to class gender and ethnicity Dimensions of Inequality in Canada David A. Green, Jonathan R. Kesselman, 2011-11-01 Is Canada becoming a more polarized society Or is it a kind hearted nation that takes care of its disadvantaged This volume closely examines these differing views through a careful analysis of the causes trends and dimensions of inequality to provide an overall assessment of the state of inequality in Canada Contributors include economists sociologists philosophers and political scientists and the discussion ranges from frameworks for thinking about inequality to original analyses using Canadian data to assessments of significant policy issues methodologies and research directions What emerges is the most detailed picture of inequality in Canada to date and disturbingly one that shows signs of us becoming a less just society An invaluable source of information for policy makers researchers and students from a broad variety of disciplines Dimensions of Inequality in Canada will also appeal to readers interested or involved in public debates over inequality Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand Building Global Labor Solidarity in a Time of Accelerating Globalization Kim Scipes, 2016-05-02 This anthology explores the international labor movements building worker solidarity across the Global South Since the 1980s the world s working class has been under continual assault by the forces of neoliberalism and imperialism In response new labor movements have emerged all over the world from Brazil and South Africa to Indonesia and Pakistan Building Global Labor Solidarity in a Time of Accelerating Globalization is a call for international solidarity to resist the assaults on labor s power This collection of essays by international labor activists and academics examines models of worker solidarity different forms of labor organizations and those models and organizations relationships to social movements and civil society Women in the "Promised Land"

Nina Reid-Maroney, Boulou Ebanda de B'éri, Wanda Thomas Bernard, 2018-08-21 Women in the Promised Land reframes Canadian history through the lens of African Canadian women's lived experiences This collection of original essays spans the period from slavery and abolition through to women's activism in the 20th century focusing on themes of race migration gender community religion and the struggle for social justice Re-examining familiar figures in African Canadian women's history including abolitionist and feminist Mary Ann Shadd Cary and civil rights activist Viola Desmond the volume considers them in the wider context of scholarship on Canada and the African diaspora Drawing on insights from cultural studies communications literary studies and visual culture the contributing authors use rich primary sources to ground their analysis in the details of women's historical experiences Together the chapters work to unsettle Canadian history and demonstrate its urgent relevance to the present encouraging readers to interrogate the concept of Canada as a promised land Edited by leading scholars in the field this accessible interdisciplinary collection includes suggested further readings chapter overviews and discussion questions making it an essential read for students in women's studies African studies and history The

Schematic State Debra Thompson, 2016-10-20 By examining the political development of racial classifications on the national censuses of the United States Canada and Great Britain The Schematic State maps the changing nature of the census from an instrument historically used to manage and control racial populations to its contemporary purpose as an important source of statistical information employed to monitor and rectify racial discrimination Through a careful comparative analysis of nearly two hundred years of census taking it demonstrates that changes in racial schemas are driven by the interactions among shifting transnational ideas about race the ways they are tempered and translated by nationally distinct racial projects and the configuration of political institutions involved in the design and execution of census policy This book argues that states seek to make their populations racially legible turning the fluid and politically contested substance of race into stable identifiable categories to be used as the basis of law and policy Tomorrow We're All Going to the Harvest Leigh

Binford, 2013-01-02 From its inception in 1966 the Canadian Seasonal Agricultural Worker Program SAWP has grown to employ approximately 20 000 workers annually the majority from Mexico The program has been hailed as a model that alleviates human rights concerns because under contract SAWP workers travel legally receive health benefits contribute to pensions are represented by Canadian consular officials and rate the program favorably Tomorrow We're All Going to the Harvest takes us behind the ideology and examines the daily lives of SAWP workers from Tlaxcala Mexico one of the leading sending states observing the great personal and family price paid in order to experience a temporary rise in a standard of living The book also observes the disparities of a gutted Mexican countryside versus the flourishing agriculture in Canada where farm labor demand remains high Drawn from extensive surveys and nearly two hundred interviews ethnographic work in Ontario destination of over 77 percent of migrants in the author's sample and quantitative data this is much more than a case study it situates the Tlaxcala Canada exchange within the broader issues of migration economics and cultural currents Bringing to light the historical genesis of complementary labor markets and the contradictory positioning of Mexican government representatives Leigh Binford also explores the language barriers and nonexistent worker networks in Canada as well as the physical realities of the work itself making this book a complete portrait of a provocative segment of migrant labor

The Chrétien Legacy Lois Harder, Steve Patten, 2006-07-13 The legacy of Jean Chrétien Canadian prime minister from 1993-2003 is difficult to assess in the context of the sponsorship scandal and the subsequent cloud of uncertainty surrounding the Liberal Party's electoral prospects The contributors to this volume use their considerable experience and expertise as policy observers and critical thinkers to provide provocative essays that analyse Chrétien's government and provide insights into Canadian politics and public policy

Guarding the Gates David Goutor, 2011-11-01 From the 1870s until the Great Depression immigration was often the question of the hour in Canada Politicians the media and an array of interest groups viewed it as essential to nation building developing the economy and shaping Canada's social and cultural character One of the groups most determined to influence public debate and government policy on the issue was organized labour and unionists were often relentless critics of immigrant recruitment Guarding the Gates is the first detailed study of Canadian labour leaders approach to immigration a key battleground in struggles between different political factions within the labour movement This book provides new insights into labour immigration social and political history

Racialized Policing Elizabeth Comack, 2012-03-01 T00:00:00Z Policing is a controversial subject generating considerable debate One issue of concern has been racial profiling by police that is the alleged practice of targeting individuals and groups on the basis of race Racialized Policing argues that the debate has been limited by its individualized frame As well the concentration on police relations with people of colour means that Aboriginal people's encounters with police receive far less scrutiny Going beyond the interpersonal level and broadening our gaze to explore how race and racism play out in institutional practices and systemic processes this book exposes the ways in which policing is racialized Situating the police in their role as reproducers of order Elizabeth Comack draws on the historical record and contemporary cases of Aboriginal police relations the shooting of J J Harper by a Winnipeg police officer in 1988 the Starlight Tours in Saskatoon and the shooting of Matthew Dumas by a Winnipeg police officer in 2005 as well as interviews conducted with Aboriginal people in Winnipeg's inner city communities to explore how race and racism inform the routine practices of police officers and define the cultural frames of reference that officers adopt in their encounters with Aboriginal people In short having defined Aboriginal people as troublesome police respond with troublesome practices of their own Arguing that resolution requires a fundamental transformation in the structure and organization of policing Racialized Policing makes suggestions for re framing the role of police and the order they reproduce
