Dream Catchers Philip Jenkins, 2005-12-01 In books such as Mystics and Messiahs, Hidden Gospels and The Next Christendom Philip Jenkins has established himself as a leading commentator on religion and society. Now in Dream Catchers Jenkins offers a brilliant account of the changing mainstream attitudes towards Native American spirituality, once seen as a degraded spectacle, now hailed as New Age salvation. Jenkins charts this remarkable change by highlighting the complex history of white American attitudes towards Native religions, considering everything from the 19th century American obsession with Hebrew Indians and Lost Tribes to the early 20th century cult of the Maya as bearers of the wisdom of ancient Atlantis. He looks at the popularity of the Carlos Castaneda books, the writings of Lynn Andrews and Frank Waters, and explores New Age paraphernalia including dream catchers, crystals, medicine bags, and Native-themed Tarot cards. He also examines the controversial New Age appropriation of Native sacred places and notes that many white Indians see mainstream society as religiously empty. An engrossing account of our changing attitudes towards Native spirituality, Dream Catchers offers a fascinating introduction to one of the more interesting aspects of contemporary American religion.

Origins and the Next 50 Years Robert Shapiro, 1997-01-01 The accounts given by extraterrestrials in this volume are about events that occurred in our solar system many millions of years ago. In that ancient time the solar system consisted of four planets and four radiar systems that orbited the central sun. The four planets of the solar system are known today as Venus, Earth, Mars, and a now totally shattered world that was called Maldec. The term radiar applies to the astronomical bodies we presently call Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune. The original satellites of these radiars are generally called moons by Earth astronomers, but the extraterrestrials prefer to call them planetoids. This book reflects the personal views of a number of different types of extraterrestrials regarding the state of the local solar system and the state of the Earth.
