Seeing the Invisible Faith Cook, 1998 First appearing as articles in Evangelical Times Seeing the Invisible tells the stories of ten ordinary Christians who exercised extraordinary faith in their God None of these individuals is a famous name in Christian history but their faith in and devotion to Christ encourages and inspires us to exercise similar faith in the same powerful God who enabled them to endure as seeing him who is invisible The original articles have been expanded to include more background material and further details from the lives of these believers Making Evangelical History Andrew Atherstone, David Ceri Jones, 2019-04-08 This volume makes a significant contribution to the history of ecclesiastical histories with a fresh analysis of historians of evangelicalism from the eighteenth century to the present It explores the ways in which their scholarly methods and theological agendas shaped their writings Each chapter presents a case study in evangelical historiography Some of the historians and biographers examined here were ministers and missionaries while others were university scholars They are drawn from Anglican Baptist Congregationalist Methodist Presbyterian Fundamentalist and Pentecostal denominations Their histories cover not only transatlantic evangelicalism but also the spread of the movement across China Africa and indeed the whole globe Some wrote for a popular Christian readership emphasising edification and evangelical hagiography others have produced weighty monographs for the academy These case studies shed light on the way the discipline has developed and also the heated controversies over whether one approach to evangelical history is more legitimate than the rest As a result this book will be of considerable interest to historians of religion The Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth, 2002 Here Am I, Lord...Send Somebody Else Jill Briscoe, 2018-02-06 Being used by God is an adventure you won't want to miss Major Ian Thomas a British theologian teacher and the founder of Torchbearers Bible Schools spent seven exhausting years trying to live for Christ when he realized that God actually just wanted to live through Him He offered this extremely simple advice in considering the Christian life Go where you are sent stay where you are put and do what you are asked With her trademark warmth and keen sense of humor esteemed Bible study teacher Jill Briscoe follows Major Thomas's example to help readers learn how to allow God to live through them finding their mission field to be right before them in the space between their own two feet She uses stories from her own life and of other contemporaries to unpack the story of Moses in helping us better understand our true worth and calling She asks What is your Jerusalem your Judea your Samaria Whether you're fifty or fifteen you are called to be God's light in a troubled world This classic work is being updated to include conversation starters and Bible study questions at the end of each chapter 福音 (福音) 福音, 2023-09-15 100 The Uncommon Dream Mike Murdock, 2006-09 THE UNCOMMON DREAM One of The Most Important Books You Will Read During Your Lifetime It reveals the remarkable secrets that can cause the unspoken craving of your heart to come to pass A step by step Mentorship Program for those who cannot live with Mediocrity Focus Mentors Recovery Passion There Is No Other Book Like It Available Today I, Like a Deaf Man and Like a Mute Viktor Sizov, 2014-03-12 If

Fletcher's Appeal to Matter of Fact & Common Sense John Kingston, 1814 Wake Up Counselors! William L. Fikins, 2013-06-20 Providing individual and group counseling for secondary school students was once a major priority for secondary school counselors However many guidance programs have abandoned this role and counselors have become quasi administrators who spend most of their time scheduling students for classes managing mandated testing programs resolving discipline issues and advising students on college admissions Counseling students on personal and well being issues takes up a very small part of the time In many school districts social workers student assistance counselors and school psychologists have taken over the counseling duties Critical issues are now causing school leaders to consider reorganizing school guidance staff so there is a cadre of counselors trained and charged with the mission of providing individual and group counseling for troubled teens First the number of troubled teens arriving at the schoolhouse door looking for help has exploded Second budget cuts have eliminated or drastically curtailed many of the services of social workers student assistance counselors and psychologists The result Many once open doors for help are now closed and schools counseling services are failing many students parents and educators in need of intervention This book provides a new model in which well trained counselors can once again regain their historic role in counseling troubled teens parents and training staff and students on the front lines to act not look the other way when they observe a student heading towards the margins of school life Champion Craig Johnson,2018-04-03 A Celebration of Everyone Who Fulfills Their Purpose Through Unexpected Challenges Until two years of age Craig and Samantha s son Connor was just like other kids playful verbal and affectionate Then everything changed He stopped talking displayed behavioral problems and withdrew into his own world The official diagnosis autism Faced with seemingly insurmountable odds Craig and Samantha refused to believe a meaningful life for Connor was impossible God confirmed their faith by revealing to Craig that Connor would one day touch the lives of thousands of people around the world Craig and Samantha held that unlikely promise in their hearts during the agonizing years ahead Champion is a spellbinding chronicle of the twists and turns of Connor s journey guided by his parent s steadfast hope in God s promises Through the unexpected breaking of their spirits the Holy Spirit was poured out culminating in a miracle that has launched a global ministry to the disabled
