Selected And Collected Poems:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry. Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti-modernist. Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today: how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision; how to connect present-day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture; how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral, spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena. For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems. The current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers' lifetime or from his posthumous volume. Now for the first time all of Jeffers' completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition. The first three volumes of this four-volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers' published work from 1920 to 1963. The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best-known poems: Tamar, Roan, Stallion, The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home. There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction.

The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan Ted Berrigan, 2011-02-07 Following the highly acclaimed Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan, poets Alice Notley, Anselm Berrigan and Edmund Berrigan have collaborated again on this new selection of poems by one of the most influential and admired poets of his generation. Reflecting a new editorial approach, this volume demonstrates the breadth of Ted Berrigan's poetic accomplishments by presenting his most celebrated, interesting and important work. This major second-wave New York School poet is often identified with his early poems, especially The Sonnets, but this selection encompasses his full poetic output, including the later sequences Easter Monday and A Certain Slant of Sunlight as well as many of his uncollected poems. The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan provides a new perspective for those already familiar with his remarkable wit and invention and introduces new readers to what John Ashbery called the crazy energy of this iconoclastic, funny, brilliant and highly innovative writer. Praise for The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan: This is a great, great book for all seasons of the mind and heart. Robert Creeley: Thanks to this invaluable Collected Poems, one can hear as never before Ted Berrigan dreaming his dream. The Nation: The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan is not only one of the most strikingly attractive books recently published but is also a major work of 20th-century poetry. It is a book that will darken with the grease of my hands. There is no better way to praise it than by saying: If you enjoy poetry, you should have it. Bloomsbury Review: It's a must-have poetic knockout. Time

The Collected Poems of Robert Creeley, 1975–2005 Robert Creeley, 2008-06-03

The subtlest feeling for the measure that I encounter anywhere except in the verses of Ezra Pound William Carlos Williams It is a study how Creeley lands syntax down the alley and his vocabulary pure English to hit meters and rhymes all of which are spares and strikes Charles Olson Robert Creeley has created a noble body of poetry that extends the work of his predecessors Pound Williams Zukofsky and Olson and provides like them a method for his successors in exploring our new American poetic consciousness Allen Ginsberg His succinctness is like the unfettered flashing of a diamond John Ashbery Robert Creeley was one of the great giants of 20th Century American poetry This collection is his monument Paul Auster American poetry is unimaginable and happily unknowable without Creeley Andrei Codrescu author of it was today new poems Creeley is a touchstone for me a measure of what poetry is He is a genius of the sensorium as Kerouac was and a master of the ear as is Miles Davis He is a carver in space like Van Gogh Michael McClure There is no poetry more vivid immediate or telling than Robert Creeley's His Collected Poems extends the achievement of Dickinson Whitman and Williams into postwar America Creeley's excavation of particular words images and sentiments resonate beyond the pages of this book into the fabric of everyday life This is American invention at its best as necessary as the air we breathe and the ground we walk on Charles Bernstein It isn't what a poet says that counts as a work of art William Carlos Williams once wrote it's what he makes with such intensity of perception that it lives with an intrinsic movement of its own to verify its authenticity I can't think of another contemporary poet whose acute sensitivity to the particular event of making and in poetry making includes breaking each written line is as consummately fine tuned as Robert Creeley's Susan Howe He was the main support in the old house of poetry the main beam C D Wright Brown University alumni newsletter There is no poet like Creeley His multiple subjectivities and magic syllables have kept us curious and honest Never a false step never a less than tender heart for the sound and the brilliant cognitive often fierce power therein What a glorious long life in writing These late poems keep the brilliant tempo We are very lucky he is still so much among us Anne Waldman Robert Creeley transformed the momentary spontaneous music of being alive into a profoundly enduring American art brilliant necessary impeccably scored He made it new for always Peter Gizzi
