Community Languages Michael G. Clyne,1991 Without even considering the 150 Aboriginal languages still spoken Australia has an unparalleled mix of languages other than English in common usage languages often described by the term community Drawing on census data and other statistics this book addresses the current situation of community languages in Australia analysing which are spoken by whom and whereabouts It focuses on three main issues how languages other than English are maintained in an English speaking environment how the structure of the languages themselves changes over time and how the government has responded to such ethnolinguistic diversity At a time of unprecedented awareness of these languages within society and a realisation of the importance of multilingualism in business this book makes a significant contribution to understanding the role of community languages in shaping the future of Australian society Statutes and Ordinances of the University of Cambridge 2004 University of Cambridge, 2004-09-30 This is the latest updated edition of the University of Cambridge's official statutes and Ordinances Official Gazette Philippines, 2004 Professional competencies in language learning and teaching Cecilia Gorla, Lea Guetta, Neil Hughes, Sandra Reisenleutner, Oranna Speicher, 2019-06-08 This volume examines many of the complex issues regarding the language skills and professional competencies acquired by students studying Modern Foreign Languages MFL at universities in the United Kingdom and across Europe It also outlines the innovative pedagogical strategies methods and resources employed by language academics to help graduates transition from university into the world of work through their MFL studies These issues were discussed at the Professional Competencies in Language Learning and Teaching conference that took place on 12th 13th July 2018 at the University of Nottingham The conference that was organised as a collaboration between the Department of Modern Languages and Cultures and the Confucius Institute of the University of Nottingham brought together researchers practitioners employers and experts working on 21st century professional competencies and language education ELT Christoph Haase, Joel Cameron Head, 2015-09-10 This volume presents a survey of the latest results and discussions in the research on English Language Teaching ELT bringing together researchers from four continents and 11 different countries to discuss current topics and issues in the field In doing so it offers a debate in a conducive and intellectually charged environment which enables the reader to gain insights into new technologies ideas and concepts of practitioners working at very different research and teaching institutions The papers collected in this volume provide ample evidence of the lively atmosphere and the interesting conversations present in ELT in recent years Much has changed in the research of ELT the field has become more technical and applied on the one hand and more theoretically informed on the other As such it is a particular achievement of this volume that it enables the diverse disciplines under the umbrella of ELT to communicate and exchange their approaches It is in this way that linguists can talk to methodologists and cultural studies scholars cooperate with literary scholars The tripartite structure of this book reflects this The first part is dedicated to linguistic issues and contains a number of both large scale and micro scale studies The second section collects papers from the cultural and literary studies field The concluding segment concerns new approaches in methodology and offers two very technical contributions on CLIL Elderly Chinese in Pacific Rim Countries Iris Chi, Neena L. Chappell, James Lubben, 2001-04-01 With longer life expectancy most countries are now experiencing rapid ageing among their populations Ethnic Chinese populations are no exception to these demographic transformations During the twentieth century there has been a wide dispersion of Chinese people throughout the world as well as dramatic socio political changes within China These unique factors have strained traditional filial norms and necessitated a re examination of intergenerational relationships and the roles of elderly Chinese people This book investigates the varied adaptations of social support systems and social integration among ageing Chinese populations within a diverse set of countries in the Pacific Rim region The book is a collection of scholarly papers addressing such topics as community care family support one child families and social isolation Each paper illustrates the importance of social support networks and social integration to the quality of life for elderly Chinese persons living in dissimilar circumstances
