September 11, 2001 William Heyen, 2002 Over 125 American writers reflect on September 11 in its immediate aftermath

Literature after 9/11 Ann Keniston, Jeanne Follansbee Quinn, 2013-04-15 Drawing on trauma theory genre theory political theory and theories of postmodernity space and temporality Literature After 9 11 suggests ways that these often distinct discourses can be recombined and set into dialogue with one another as it explores 9 11 s effects on literature and literature s attempts to convey 9 11

Symbolism 16 Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2016-10-10 Essays in this special focus constellation around the diverse symbolic forms in which Caribbean consciousness has manifested itself transhistorically shaping identities within and without structures of colonialism and postcolonialism Offering interdisciplinary critical analytical and theoretical approaches to the objects of study the book explores textual visual material and ritual meanings encoded in Caribbean lived and aesthetic practices

Be Very Afraid Robert Wuthnow, 2010-04-07 Disputes the view that fear of peril results in denial and argues that a more common response is to do things to overcome our sense of vulnerability even if these things are ineffective

September 11 in Popular Culture Sara E. Quay, Amy M. Damico, 2010-09-14 This book offers an exploration of the comprehensive impact of the events of September 11 2001 on every aspect of American culture and society On Thanksgiving day after September 11 2001 comic strip creators directed readers to donate money in their artwork generating 50 000 in relief funds The world s largest radio network Clear Channel sent a memo to all of its affiliated stations recommending 150 songs that should be eliminated from airplay because of assumptions that their lyrics would be perceived as offensive in light of the events of 9 11 On the first anniversary of September 11th choirs around the world performed Mozart s Requiem at 8 46 am in each time zone the time of the first attack on the World Trade Center These examples are just three of the ways the world but especially the United States responded to the events of September 11 2001 Each chapter in this book contains a chronological overview of the sea of changes in everyday life literature entertainment news and media and visual culture after September 11 Shorter essays focus on specific books TV shows songs and films

After the Fall Richard Gray, 2011-05-03 After the Fall A common refrain heard since the collapse of the World Trade Center towers on September 11 2001 is that everything has changed After the Fall presents a timely and provocative examination of the impact and implications of 9 11 and the war on terror on American culture and literature Author Richard Gray widely regarded as the leading European scholar in American literature reveals the widespread belief among novelists dramatists and poets as well as the American public at large that in the post 9 11 world they are all somehow living after the fall He carefully considers how many writers faced with what they see as the end of their world have retreated into the seductive pieties of home hearth and family and how their works are informed by the equally seductive myth of American exceptionalism As a counterbalance Gray also discusses in depth the many writings that get it right transnational and genuinely crossbred works that resist the oppositional and simplistic us and them Christian and

Muslim language that has dominated mainstream commentary These imaginative works Gray believes choose instead to respond to the heterogeneous character of the United States as well as its necessary positioning in a transnational context After the Fall offers illuminating insights into the relationships of such issues as nationalism trauma culture and literature during a time of profound crisis

Terrorism in Literature Bootheina Majoul, 2019-08-13 This volume celebrates literature as a strong subversive tool as an alternative for change through an exploration of terrorism in various literary works It brings together scholars from all over the world including Algeria Argentina Australia Cameroon Denmark India Italy Tunisia Turkey and the USA to offer their insights As readers themselves they share an eagerness to understand the psychopathological personalities circulating among us They urge the reader to dig deep into literature to think to cogitate and to learn One of the most important literary figures dealing with terrorism in his novels is the internationally acclaimed Indian writer Tabish Khair who generously wrote the foreword to this volume He sheds light on the possibilities offered by literature as a means of dissent and a powerful tool for truth telling

Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2007-05 Whether Thersites in Homer's Iliad Wilfred Owen in Dulce et Decorum Est or Allen Ginsberg in Wichita Vortex Sutra poets have long given solitary voice against the brutality of war The hasty cancellation of the 2003 White House symposium Poetry and the American Voice in the face of protests by Sam Hamill and other invited guests against the coming shock and awe campaign in Iraq reminded us that poetry and poets still have the power to challenge the powerful Behind the Lines investigates American war resistance poetry from the Second World War through the Iraq wars Rather than simply chronicling the genre Philip Metres argues that this poetry gets to the heart of who is authorized to speak about war and how it can be represented As such he explores a largely neglected area of scholarship the poet's relationship to dissenting political movements and the nation In his elegant study Metres examines the ways in which war resistance is registered not only in terms of its content but also at the level of the lyric He proposes that protest poetry constitutes a subgenre that by virtue of its preoccupation with politics history and trauma probes the limits of American lyric poetry Thus war resistance poetry and the role of what Shelley calls unacknowledged legislators is a crucial though largely unexamined body of writing that stands at the center of dissident political movements

Cultural Melancholia: US Trauma Discourses Before and After 9/11 Christina Cavedon, 2015-09-01 In Cultural Melancholia US Trauma Discourses Before and After 9 11 Christina Cavedon frames her examination of 9 11 fiction especially Jay McInerney's The Good Life and Don DeLillo's Falling Man with a thorough discussion of what US reactions to the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 disclose about American culture Offering a comparative reading of pre and post 9 11 literary public and academic discourses she deconstructs the still commonly held belief that cultural repercussions of the attacks primarily testify to a cultural trauma in the wake of the collectively witnessed media event She innovatively reinterprets discourses to be symptomatic of a malaise which had afflicted American culture already prior to 9 11 and can best be approached with melancholia as an analytical concept

9/11: Culture, Catastrophe and the Critique of Singularity Diana

Gonçalves,2016-10-24 Even though much has been said and written about 9 11 the work developed on this subject has mostly explored it as an unparalleled event a turning point in history This book wishes to look instead at how disruptive events promote a network of associations and how people resort to comparison as a means to make sense of the unknown i e to comprehend what seems incomprehensible In order to effectively discuss the complexity of 9 11 this book articulates different fields of knowledge and perspectives such as visual culture media studies performance studies critical theory memory studies and literary studies to shed some light on 9 11 and analyze how the event has impacted on American social and cultural fabric and how the American society has come to terms with such a devastating event A more in depth study of Don DeLillo s Falling Man and Jonathan Safran Foer s Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close draws attention to the cultural construction of catastrophe and the plethora of cultural products 9 11 has inspired It demonstrates how the event has been integrated into American culture and exemplifies what makes up the 9 11 imaginary Towering Figures Sven

Cvek,2011-01-01 This volume offers a critical analysis of a segment of American literary production surrounding the September 11 2001 attacks on the United States While focusing on the writing of Jonathan Safran Foer Art Spiegelman Don DeLillo and Thomas Pynchon the author locates this work within a larger 9 11 cultural archive The book proceeds by way of a series of thematic leaps in order to unearth the active entanglement of the event with systems of meaning and power that create the conditions for its emergence and understanding The main problem of such an approach consists in articulating the three fold relation at the heart of the archive in which issues of traumatic loss affect and politics appear as central between the historical event its cultural imprint and the wider social system In order to grasp these fundamental relations the author resorts to a layered interpretive framework and engages a number of theoretical protocols from psychoanalysis and nationalism studies to philosophy of history world system theory and the heterogeneous critical practices of American Studies Coming from a non US Americanist perspective this contribution to the scholarly production about 9 11 concentrates on trauma as a problem in the conceptualization the event insists on globalization as its crucial context and argues for a historical materialist approach to the 9 11 archive September 11: One Year Later , Handbook of Transatlantic

North American Studies Julia Straub,2016-05-10 Transatlantic literary studies have provided important new perspectives on North American British and Irish literature They have led to a revision of literary history and the idea of a national literature They have changed the perception of the Anglo American literary market and its many processes of transatlantic production distribution reception and criticism Rather than dwelling on comparisons or engaging with the notion of influence transatlantic literary studies seek to understand North American British and Irish literature as linked with each other by virtue of multi layered historical and cultural ties and pay special attention to the many refractions and mutual interferences that have characterized these traditions since colonial times This handbook brings together articles that summarize some of the crucial transatlantic concepts debates and topics The contributions contained in this volume examine periods in literary and cultural history literary movements individual authors as well as genres from a transatlantic perspective combining theoretical insight with textual analysis

Liminality, Hybridity, and American Women's Literature Kristin J. Jacobson, Kristin Allukian, Rickie-Ann Legleitner, Leslie Allison, 2018-05-04 This book highlights the multiplicity of American women's writing related to liminality and hybridity from its beginnings to the contemporary moment Often informed by notions of crossing intersectionality transition and transformation these concepts as they appear in American women's writing contest as well as perpetuate exclusionary practices involving class ethnicity gender race religion and sex among other variables The collection's introduction three unit introductions fourteen individual essays and afterward facilitate a process of encounters engagements and conversations within between among and across the rich polyphony that constitutes the creative acts of American women writers The contributors offer fresh perspectives on canonical writers as well as introduce readers to new authors As a whole the collection demonstrates American women's writing is threshold writing or writing that occupies a liminal hybrid space that both delimits borders and offers enticing openings

Out of the Blue Kristiaan Versluys, 2009-07-29 Writers have represented 9 11 and its aftermath with varying degrees of success In Out of the Blue Kristiaan Versluys focuses on novels that move beyond patriotic clichés and cheap sensationalism and provide new insights into the emotional and ethical impact of these traumatic events and what it means to depict them Versluys focuses on Don DeLillo's Falling Man Art Spiegelman's

In the Shadow of No Towers Jonathan Safran Foer's Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close Fredrick Beigbeder's Windows on the World and John Updike's Terrorist He scrutinizes how these writers affirm the humanity of the disoriented individual as opposed to the cocksure killer or politician and retranslate hesitation stuttering or stammering into a precarious act of defiance Versluys also discusses works by Ian McEwan Anita Shreve Martin Amis and Michael Cunningham arguing for the novel's distinct power in rendering the devastation of 9/11 Children's Fiction about 9/11 Jo Lampert, 2009-09-10 Looking at examples including picture books young adult novels and DC Comics Lampert explores ethnic national and heroic identities in this pioneering and timely book that examines the ways in which cultural identities are constructed within young adult and children's literature about the attacks of September 11 2001

Parallel Lines Guy Westwell, 2014-10-21 Parallel Lines describes how post-9/11 cinema from Spike Lee's 25th Hour 2002 to Kathryn Bigelow's Zero Dark Thirty 2012 relates to different and competing versions of US national identity in the aftermath of the September 11th terrorist attacks The book combines readings of individual films World Trade Center United 93 Fahrenheit 9/11 Loose Change and cycles of films depicting revenge conspiracy torture and war with extended commentary on recurring themes including the relationship between the US and the rest of the world narratives of therapeutic recovery questions of ethical obligation The volume argues that post-9/11 cinema is varied and dynamic registering shock and upheaval in the immediate aftermath of the attacks displaying capacity for critique following the Abu Ghraib prisoner abuse scandal mid-decade and seeking to reestablish consensus during Obama's troubled second term of office
