Serious Crime and the Public Consumption of Alcohol Ronald R. Neighborhood Structure, Crime, and Fear of Crime Clete Snell, 2001 In this collection Esther Raizen explores the significance and value of Hebrew poetry written in response to the wars in which Israel was involved during the last fifty years The anthology includes the works of many poets some as well known as Nathan Altherman and Yehudah Amichai and others less known The poems presented in both English and Hebrew depict war as viewed by the soldier as reflected upon by civilians and as a force giving rise to the creation of poetry Raizen explores in an introductory essay the issue of whether poetry written with a defined political message and in the context of certain historical events can function adequately on the aesthetic level She also tracks the changes in the characteristics of Israeli war poetry from 1948 to 1991 beginning with the glorified patriotism expected in the 1930s 1940s and progressing to the critical ideas in the later years during which poetry is characterized by understatement and cynicism

When a title is enacted into positive law, the underlying statutes are repealed and the title then becomes legal evidence of the law. Currently 26 of the 51 titles in the Code have been so enacted. These are identified in the table of titles near the beginning of each volume. The Law Revision Counsel of the House of Representatives continues to prepare legislation pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 285b to enact the remainder of the Code on a title-by-title basis into positive law. The 2012 edition of the Code was prepared and published under the supervision of Ralph V. Seep, Law Revision Counsel. Grateful acknowledgment is made of the contributions by all who helped in this work, particularly the staffs of the Office of the Law Revision Counsel and the Government Printing Office.
