Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart James A. Wallace, 2002. Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart is about words, most particularly, it is a book about the Word, the living Word of God found in the Scriptures and embodied once and for all in the person of Jesus, the Word made flesh. In Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart, Fr. James Wallace offers a nuanced consideration of the homily as nourishment. He focuses on three common liturgical contexts: feasts of the Lord, feasts of Mary and the saints, and the sacramental rites. He relates the preaching that occurs within each area to one of the heart's basic hungers: for wholeness, the great feasts of the Lord for guidance, feasts of Mary and the saints, and for meaning, various rites. He also addresses the spirituality of the preacher as it is worked out in the process of preparation. For preachers and students in schools of ministry who are preparing to preach, Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart will serve as a useful tool to help satisfy the hunger to preach the Gospel. It includes homilies that provide excellent starting points for preachers looking for ideas. Chapter one considers the image of feeding God's people with the Word of God. Chapter two, considering the innermost hunger of the human person, looks to the preaching that takes place on the great feasts of the Lord and how such preaching can nourish the hunger for wholeness Chapter three returns to the hunger for meaning already mentioned and extends to the other sacramental celebrations the homily's capacity to meet this hunger including those addressed by the various sacramental celebrations of the Church such as baptisms weddings funerals rites of reconciliation and anointing of the sick Chapters four and five present the homily as responding to the hunger to belong The final chapter considers one other hunger of the heart unique to the preacher referred to by John Paul II as a hunger to preach the gospel Pastores Dabo Vobis no 28 Chapters are Preaching's Task in a New Millennium Feeding God's People Preaching the Feasts of the Lord and the Hunger for Wholeness Preaching Within the Sacramental Rites and the Hunger for Meaning Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging I The Saints Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging II Mary and Cultivating the Preacher's Hunger To Make the Gospel Known and Loved James A Wallace CSsR PhD is professor of homiletics at Washington Theological Union His previous works include Preaching Through the Saints and The Ministry of Lectors published by The Liturgical Press He has also authored numerous articles and has given preaching conferences and workshops in the U S and abroad

More than a Sermon Douglas D. Webster, 2024-05-08 Preach with compassion and conviction In More than a Sermon Douglas D Webster highlights the prophetic and pastoral challenge of preaching today The task is both harder and easier than we imagine as we are called to proclaim the biblical text in a way that convicts a hostile world while encouraging our congregations to rest in Christ's love We need preaching that both swings the hammer that breaks hard hearts yet does not break the bruised reeds in our care Offering practical insights and examples Webster explores what it means to preach the gospel in different seasons such as Advent and Lent Memorial services and weddings Times of crisis or social impact More than a Sermon is a valuable resource for both new pastors and veteran preachers who want to proclaim the whole counsel of God with power and wisdom
