Race To Save The Tropics Ecology And Economics For A Sustainable Future:

Race to Save the Tropics Robert Goodland, 2013-04-10 Race to Save the Tropics documents the conflict between economic development and protection of biological diversity in tropical countries

The Making of International Environmental Treaties Gerry Nagtzaam, 2009 Gerry Nagtzaam contends that in recent decades neoliberal institutionalist scholarship on global environmental regimes has burgeoned as has constructivist scholarship on the key role played by norms in international politics In this innovative volume the author sets these interest and norm based approaches against each other in order to test their ability to illustrate why and how different environmental norms take hold in some regimes and not others The book explores why some global environmental treaties seek to preserve and protect some parts of nature from human utilization some seek to conserve certain parts of nature for human development whilst others allow the reckless exploitation of nature without accounting for the consequences It tracks the fate of these three underlying environmental norms preservation conservation and exploitation using case studies on whaling mining in Antarctica and tropical timber The book illustrates how international political battles to shape environmental regimes inevitably result in clashes between these competing environmental norms This unique study will prove a fascinating read for both academics and practitioners in the fields of international environmental politics and international environmental law

Rainforests of the World Kathryn Gay, 2001-08-13 This authoritative volume examines the reasons for rainforest destruction the effects of deforestation on indigenous plant and animal life and the policies and actions that are currently being taken to protect rainforests Rainforests of the World covers everything from the basic biology and chemistry of rainforests and their geographic location to problems controversies and solutions A section highlights people and events like Gifford Pinchot Lester Brown Anita Roddick the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act and the Kyoto Protocol The documents provided include the Declaration of Curitiba the Indigenous People s Declaration and the North American Free Trade Agreement The book includes a chronology charts tables and graphs on rainforest destruction a list of groups working to protect rainforests an extensive annotated bibliography and other references

Natural Forest Management in the American Tropics Francis E. Putz, 1991

International Environmental Law Gerry Nagtzaam, Evan van Hook, Douglas Guilfoyle, 2019-10-23 This book seeks to better understand how International Environmental Law regimes evolve The authors address throughout the major environmental economic and political tensions that have both shaped and constrained the evolution of international environmental policy within regimes and its expression in international legal rule and norm development Readers will gain an increased understanding of the growing role played by non state actors in global environmental governance including environmental non government organisations scientists the United Nations and corporations The authors also look ahead to the future of International Environmental Law evaluating key challenges and decisions that the discipline will face The text is clear concise and accessible It is ideally suited to students and professionals interested in International Environmental Law and individuals who are intrigued by this dynamic area of law Biosphere 2000 Donald G. Kaufman, Cecilia M. Franz, 2000
