Race and Population Problems Hannibal Gerald Duncan, 1929

Controversial Issues in Health Care Policy Jennie J. Kronenfeld, 1993 In the last 35 years health care in the US has grown into a multi billion dollar industry Americans view access to health care as important and take pride in their excellent medical care technology However there is growing consensus that the US health care system is in crisis but there is far less agreement on what to do about it This book examines the major controversies confronting American society health care professionals and policy makers access to health care costs and financing health care and the quality of health care Kronenfeld discusses whether the system can solve these problems or whether there is a health care system at all Solving Latino Psychosocial and Health Problems Kurt C. Organista,2023 This book responds to the increasing need to understand Latino positionality in the U S in order to effectively serve Latinos in ways responsive to the cultural and social realities of diverse Latino populations Author Kurt C Organista responds to the needs of social and human service providers to be more effective in their increasing practice with Latino clients as well as to professional mandates to teach multicultural theory and practice throughout the social sciences

Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America, Third Edition John W. Frazier,Eugene L. Tettey-Fio,Norah F. Henry,2017-01-12 This book examines major Hispanic African and Asian diasporas in the continental United States and Puerto Rico from the nineteenth century to the present with particular attention on the diverse ways in which these immigrant groups have shaped and reshaped American places and landscapes Through both historical and contemporary case studies the contributors examine how race and ethnicity affect the places we live work and visit illustrating along the way the behaviors and concepts that comprise the modern ethnic and racial geography of immigrant and minority groups While primarily addressed to students and scholars in the fields of racial and ethnic geography these case studies will be accessible to anyone interested in race place connections race ethnicity boundaries the development of racialization and the complexity of human settlement patterns and landscapes that make up the United States and Puerto Rico Taken together they show how individuals and culture groups through their ideologies social organization and social institutions reflect both local and regional processes of place making and place remaking that occur within and beyond the continental United States

Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero,2010-09-16 With an engaging writing style that has made it a popular choice at both 2 and 4 year schools the Third Edition of Anna Leon Guerrero s Social Problems textbook clearly presents contemporary social problems and addresses their consequences while emphasizing community involvement by both individuals and groups to achieve real solutions With an overarching focus on social inequalities this proven text provides a platform for discussion that encourages critical thinking through compelling illustrations boxed features learning checks discussion questions and online learning tools all designed to inspire hope rather than simply present a disheartening parade of maladies Social Problems and Social Movements James DeFronzo,Jungyun Gill,2019-03-20 Intended as the primary text for a social problems course DeFronzo and Gill s Social Problems and Social Movements stresses the need for collective action and social movements to solve social problems Both instructors and students will find this a useful framework in which to view today s most pressing social issues Chapter 1 introduces the topic of social problems Chapter 2 explains how social movements address social problems and describes sociological explanations for the development of social movements Chapter 3 describes the power frameworks that participants in social movements must deal with in order to achieve success Each following chapter presents overviews of social problems and provides examples of how working together can bring about positive change Social Movements and Special Topics boxes provide information on aspects of specific social problems as well as how people organize and work together to solve them Race and Social Problems Ralph Bangs, Larry E. Davis, 2014-09-18 As much as Americans believe in the promise of an egalitarian color blind society the reality is far from that ideal People of color consistently lag behind their white counterparts in key quality of life areas Despite many significant gains widespread structural inequalities continue to exist and thrive Race and Social Problems takes the long view of this state of affairs offering both multi level analysis and a practical blueprint for social justice It begins by explaining how race related social problems have changed over the decades This volume identifies factors contributing to their persistence in this century most notably the central role of economic disparities in exacerbating related social problems and replicating them for future generations The chapters expand on this knowledge by detailing innovative and successful strategies for addressing aspects of six major areas of inequality Poverty challenging standard American concepts of poverty Education approaches toward closing the achievement gap Intergroup relations enhancing race dialogues Family and lifespan programs targeting families youth and elderly Criminal justice reducing incarceration and increasing public safety Health and mental health promoting positive outcomes Race and Social Problems casts a wide net across the most pressing social issues clarifying both the immediate and larger tasks ahead for a range of professionals in such diverse fields as social work anthropology communications criminology economics history law political science psychology public health and sociology
