Albert, 2012-02-14 Although group conflict is hardly new the last decade has seen a proliferation of conflicts engaging intrastate ethnic groups It is estimated that two thirds of violent conflicts being fought each year in every part of the globe including North America are ethnic conflicts Unlike traditional warfare civilians comprise more than 80 percent of the casualties and the economic and psychological impact on survivors is often so devastating that some experts believe that ethnic conflict is the most destabilizing force in the post Cold War world Although these conflicts also have political economic and other causes the purpose of this volume is to develop a psychological understanding of ethnic warfare More specifically Handbook of Ethnopolitical Conflict explores the function of ethnic religious and national identities in intergroup conflict In addition it features recommendations for policy makers with the intention to reduce or ameliorate the occurrences and consequences of these conflicts worldwide Russian Jews on Three Continents Noah Lewin-Epstein, Paul

Ritterband, Yaacov Ro'i, 2013-10-31 In the past twenty years almost three quarters of a million Russian Jews have emigrated to the West Their presence in Israel Europe and North America and their absence from Russia have left an indelible imprint on these societies The emigrants themselves as well as those who stayed behind are in a struggle to establish their own identities and to achieve social and economic security In this volume an international assembly of experts historians sociologists demographers and politicians join forces in order to assess the nature and magnitude of the impact created by this emigration and to examine the fate of those Jews who left and those who remained Their wide ranging perspectives contribute to creating a variegated and complex picture of the recent Russian Jewish Emigration Teachers'

Racial Tensions and National Identity Ernest Q. Campbell, 1972 Immigration to Israel Elazer Leshem, 2017-09-04

This eighth volume in the Studies of Israeli Society series presents a broad array of topics related to the sociology of immigration to Israel. The focus is on immigration and migration during the 1980s and 1990s. The chapters were selected from a list of approximately 450 articles on the subject by Israeli sociologists. The book covers such issues as migrants in the occupational structure, migration and health, formal and informal mechanisms of integration, ethnic identities, and processes of integration and processes of migration and their implications. Immigration to Israel opens with two papers written specifically for this volume. The first is a theoretical/historical chapter by the editors. They discuss the role and contribution of Israeli sociologists to the ongoing literature of migration. The second, by Sergio DellaPergola, provides a historical and comparative perspective of the underlying demographic characteristics of migration to Israel in the context of global Jewish migration processes. Other chapters and contributors include: New Entrepreneurs and Entrepreneurial Aspirations among Immigrants from the Former USSR in Israel by M. Lerner and Y. Hendeles; New Immigrants as a Special Group in the Israeli Armed Forces by V. Azarya and B. Kimmerling; Iranian Ethnicity in Israel by J. L. Goldstein; Ethiopian Immigrants in Israel by S. Kaplan and C. Rosen; The Attitudes of Israeli Youth Toward Inter-ethnic and Intra-ethnic Marriage by R. Shachar; and Jewish Immigrants from Israel in the United States by Z. Eisenbach. Immigration to Israel: Sociological Perspectives concludes with a selected bibliography. This volume contains a wealth of information and will be important to sociologists, historians, scholars of Israeli culture and ethnicity, specialists.

Newspaper Coverage of Interethnic Conflict Hemant Shah, Michael C. Thornton, 2003-10-16

Over the past three decades, United States foreign policy, new immigrant communities, and increasing global economic interdependence have contributed to an increasingly complex political economy in America's major cities. For instance, recent immigration from Asia and Latin America has generated cultural anxiety and racial backlash among a number of ethnic communities in America. Newspaper Coverage of Interethnic Conflict: Competing Visions of America examines mainstream and ethnic minority news coverage of interethnic conflicts in Miami, Washington, D.C., and Los Angeles. Authors Hemant Shah and Michael C. Thornton investigate the role of news in racial formation, the place of ethnic minority media in the public sphere, and how these competing visions of America are part of ongoing social and political struggles to construct, define, and challenge the meanings of race and nation. The authors suggest that mainstream newspapers reinforce dominant racial ideology, while ethnic minority newspapers provide an important counter-hegemonic view of U.S. race relations.
