Restless Urban Landscape:

The Restless Urban Landscape Paul L. Knox, 1993 This advanced reference deals with the radical changes that have occurred within cities since the mid 1970s as a result of the interplay of new economic social political and cultural forces associated with the transition to advanced capitalism It brings the cutting edge of debate in urban geography to a single volume expresses important new ideas and theories in an accessible format addresses recent urban change offers a dynamic approach to urban geography and brings a cross disciplinary approach to urban change providing a big picture context for ideas and theory Suitable for professional geographers and environment and planning specialists The Restless Urban Landscape Paul Leslie Knox, 1991 Examining the Restless Urban Landscape Tracey A. Fung, Dartmouth College.

Department of Geography, 2006 A Negotiated Landscape Jasper Rubin, 2016-09-27 A Negotiated Landscape examines the transformation of San Francisco's iconic waterfront from the eve of its decline in 1950 to the turn of the millennium What was once a major shipping port is now best known for leisure and entertainment To understand this landscape Jasper Rubin not only explores the built environment but also the major forces that have been at work in its redevelopment While factors such as new transportation technology and economic restructuring have been essential to the process and character of the waterfront's transformation the impact of local grassroots efforts by planners activists and boosters have been equally critical The first edition of A Negotiated Landscape won the 2012 prize for best book in planning history from the International Planning History Society Much has changed in the five years since that edition was published For this second edition Rubin provides a new concluding chapter that updates the progress of planning on San Francisco's waterfront and examines debates over the newest visions for its development Place/Culture/Representation James S. Duncan, David

Ley, 2013-04-15 Spatial and cultural analysis have recently found much common ground focusing in particular on the nature of the city Place Culture Representation brings together new and established voices involved in the reshaping of cultural geography The authors argue that as we write our geographies we are not just representing some reality we are creating meaning Writing becomes as much about the author as it is about purported geographical reality The issue becomes not scientific truth as the end but the interpretation of cultural constructions as the means Discussing authorial power discourses of the other texts and textuality landscape metaphor the sites of power knowledge relations and notions of community and the sense of place the authors explore the ways in which a more fluid and sensitive geographer's art can help us make sense of ourselves and the landscapes and places we inhabit and think about Globalization Redux Tom Conner, Ikuko

Torimoto, 2004-06 This volume is a peer reviewed collection of essays submitted by participants of two joint conferences on the theme of globalization The essays collected in this volume deal with a wide variety of subjects related to globalization ranging from the social sciences to the humanities Globalization Redux contributes to a better understanding of globalization and its ramifications in a host of domains Marginality in Space - Past, Present and Future Heikki Jussila, Roser

Majoral, Chris C. Mutambirwa, 2019-01-15 Published in 1999 this book discusses the role that marginality has had in the past has today and will have in the future The Commission on Dynamics of Marginal and Critical Regions held its annual conference in Harare Zimbabwe in July 1997 This volume represents a carefully selected revised and reviewed selection of the papers presented at this conference The articles reflect the various aspects of marginality currently existing in the world and it is the intention of the Commission to pursue research that would eventually result in a more coherent approach towards the issues of marginality in space The articles in the book are grouped into three main parts The first part discusses the role of theory and also methodological aspects and approaches towards the question of marginality The second part gives a time space perspective by examining the past present and future aspects of marginality The third part is dedicated to empirical evidence about the changes in existing marginality and its possible future implementations The conclusions of the book summarize the various and sometimes conflicting aspects of marginality and its images both in space and in time

The Moral Economy of Cities Evelyn Sharon Ruppert, 2006-01-01 Using the redevelopment of the Yonge Dundas intersection in downtown Toronto in the mid 1990s as a case study Ruppert examines the language of planners urban designers architects and marketing analysts to reveal the extent to which moralization legitimizes these professions in the public eye A Companion to the City Gary Bridge, Sophie Watson, 2008-06-09 A Companion to the City provides the reader with an indispensable and authoritative overview of the key debates controversies and questions concerning the city from a variety of theoretical vantage points with an international perspective Indispensable companion for students of the City Multidisciplinary approach of interest across several fields Includes contributions from major scholars in the field Cities of Difference Ruth Fincher, Jane Margaret Jacobs, 1998-03-20 By adopting an approach that is sensitive to issues of difference as well as to the role of the state Cities of Difference considers the fragmentation of city life and the complex relationship between identity power and place Capital Culture Linda McDowell, 2011-08-10 The changing nature of waged work in contemporary advanced industrial nations is one of the most significant aspects of political and economic debate It is also the subject of intense debate among observers of gender Capital Culture explores these changes focusing particularly on the gender relations between the men and women who work in the financial services sector The multiple ways in which masculinities and femininities are constructed is revealed through the analysis of interviews with dealers traders analysts and corporate financiers Drawing on a range of disciplinary approaches the various ways in which gender segregation is established and maintained is explored In fascinating detail the everyday experiences of men and women working in a range of jobs and in different spaces from the dealing rooms to the boardrooms are examined This volume is unique in focusing on men as well as women showing that for men too there are multiple ways of doing gender at work The Right to the City Don Mitchell, 2012-02-21 Includes a 2014 Postscript addressing Occupy Wall Street and other developments Efforts to secure the American city have life or death implications yet demands for heightened surveillance and security throw into sharp relief timeless questions about the nature of public space how it is to be used and under what conditions Blending historical and geographical analysis this book examines the vital relationship between struggles over public space and movements for social justice in the United States Don Mitchell explores how political dissent gains meaning and momentum and is regulated and policed in the real physical spaces of the city A series of linked cases provides in depth analyses of early twentieth century labor demonstrations the Free Speech Movement and the history of People s Park in Berkeley contemporary anti abortion protests and efforts to remove homeless people from urban streets Recognising European Modernities Allan Pred,2014-02-25 For over a century Europe has been characterised by a plurality of capitalist modernities At any moment each country possesses its own distinctly modern qualities which are partly shaped through interrelationships with other countries Each European commodity society has experienced successive but different overlapping periods of industrial modernity large scale factories and urban growth high modernity social modernization promoted by social engineering and hypermodernity the acceleration of modernity yielding new circumstances and sensibilities Interrogating contemporary hypermodern Europe thus requires an exploration of industrial and high modern Europe Recognising European Modernities explores a century of civilisation through a critical examination of the extreme case of Sweden Using montage relayering multiple pasts and on going present the book challenges the contemporary obsession with postmodernity demanding a deeper more connective understanding of the pleasures and dangers of the European present The author visits three spectacular spaces the Stockholm Exhibition of 1897 the Stockholm Exhibition of 1930 and the Globe a contemporary multi purpose arena Analysis of these pivotal spaces reveals the on going process of modernization as new forms of consumption are repeatedly entangled in changing discourses of power to be reworked and translated into cultural politics

Restructuring the Chinese City Laurence J.C. Ma,Fulong Wu,2004-08-02 A sea of change has occurred in China since the 1978 economic reforms Bringing together the work of leading scholars specializing in urban China this book examines what has happened to the Chinese city undergoing multiple transformations during the reform era with an emphasis on new processes of urban formation and the consequent reconstituted urban spaces With arguments against the convergence thesis that sees cities everywhere becoming more Western in form and suggestions that the Chinese city is best seen as a multiplex city Restructuring the Chinese City is an indispensable text for Chinese specialists urban scholars and advanced students in urban geography urban planning and China studies Perceptions of Marginality Heikki Jussila,Walter Leimgruber,Rosrer Majoral,2019-07-09 First published in 1998 this volume takes an international approach theoretical and regional perceptions and experiences of marginality along with some key case studies in Arctic North America Greenland Aboriginal Australia and the Republic of Ireland Its contributors are geographers from all over the world It is part of a series which aims to publish new scientific work on the dynamism of the marginal and critical regions of the world and concentrates on understanding marginality and its processes the human process and its agents comparative approaches and different policy responses to economic social and environmental problems along with studying the human response to global change and its implications for marginalization

City Phil Hubbard, 2006-09-27 City provides an accessible yet critical introduction to one of the key concepts in human geography Always at the heart of discussions in social theory the definition and specification of the city nonetheless remains illusive In this volume Phil Hubbard locates the concept of the city within current traditions of social thought providing a basis for understanding its varying usages and meanings through a critical discussion of the contribution of key authors and thinkers Written in a lively and accessible style the individual chapters of City offer a thematic overview of four dominant ways of approaching cities as lived in places as imagined spaces as networks of association as technologies of flow Drawing on a diverse range of literatures and case studies the book spells out the importance of a geographical perspective on the city suggesting that it is only by bringing these different ways of mapping the city together that we can begin to make sense of cities

Constructing Utopias Zhongjie Lin, Benjamin Lin Presidential Professor Weitzman School of Design Zhongjie Lin, 2025-06-16 Amid its groundbreaking political reforms and largest mass migration ever seen in human history China created over 3 800 new towns to accommodate its burgeoning urban population and sustain economic growth Constructing Utopias examines four decades of Chinese urbanization focusing on a series of model new towns that showcase innovative planning design technologies policies and China's broader vision for a modern urban nation These case studies highlight fundamental issues in new town development including economic vitality cultural identity environmental sustainability and socio spatial dynamics and illuminate the complex interplay between space production and social transformation within the context of neoliberalism and globalization

Understanding Ordinary Landscapes Paul Groth, Paul Erling Groth, Todd W. Bressi, 1997-01-01 How does knowledge of everyday environments foster deeper understanding of both past and present cultural life Traditional studies in this field have been of rural life Here contributors explore aspects of the emergent field of urban cultural landscape studies with the challenging issues of class race ethnicity and subculture to demonstrate the value of investigating the many meanings of ordinary settings 67 illustrations

The Beijing Olympics: Promoting China Kevin Caffrey, 2013-09-13 The Beijing 2008 Olympic ceremonies were spectacular performances and technological accomplishments by the People's Republic of China However the audience in Beijing was only the most overt element of a global audience receiving the message of the Games For this global audience the Beijing performances were a harbinger of wider regional and international ambitions a message of intent that pointed to a larger Chinese plan to a degree not seen since the Ming dynasty New Chinese ambitions embrace both soft power and hard power The actor in this political drama of international scope is the Chinese state and its political ambitions on the world stage The Beijing Olympics can be seen as its opening act and the audience as global Rather than the kind of morality play that is typically used in China to educate the people in politics this new production a production on many levels was one aimed at audiences all around the world and one that was a calculated expression of realpolitik This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport
