Securing South Africa's Democracy Defense Development And Security In Transition:

Securing South Africa's Democracy G. Cawthra, 1997-07-16 This book examines the defence and security challenges facing the new South Africa in the context of development and nation building priorities The transformation of security policy during the transition from apartheid and since the April 1994 elections is examined Challenges facing the defence force and the police service are examined and the relationships between defence development and domestic and external security are explored in an integrated way which points to a policy framework for security in the developing world Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997

The Obligation of Empire James J. Hentz, 2021-12-14 Some of the nation's most respected scholars of international affairs examine the debates over U S grand strategy in light of U S security policies and interests in tactical regions around the world The contributors begin by describing the four grand strategies currently competing for dominance of U S foreign policy neo isolationism argues that the United States should not become involved in conflicts outside specifically defined national interests selective engagement proposes that the United States despite its position as the world's only remaining superpower should limit its involvement in foreign affairs cooperative security advocates that the United States is not and should not act as an imperial country primacy asserts that the United States is an empire and therefore it should conduct an expansive foreign policy Focusing on regions that present new challenges to U S grand strategy such as Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Latin America the contributors offer the most current examinations of U S policies and assess the effectiveness of competing strategies in each region The Obligation of Empire offers an innovative set of foreign policy initiatives that explore the tensions between global agendas and regionalist approaches Contributors Andrew J Bacevich Doug Bandow Dale Davis Thomas Donnelly James J Hentz Clifford Kiracofe Charles Kupchan Jeffrey Stark S Frederick Starr and Brantley Womack James J Hentz associate professor of international studies at the Virginia Military Institute is the coeditor of New and Critical Security and Regionalism Beyond the Nation State Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997

Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in Southern Africa Bjørn Møller, Gavin Cawthra, 2019-01-15 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography

Governing Insecurity Gavin Cawthra, Robin Luckham, 2003-04 The authors of this volume explore the challenges of establishing democratic accountability and control over the military and other security establishments in countries which have either been the victims of authoritarian military rule or wracked by violent internal conflict The book examines both successful democratic transitions and failed ones A wide range of cases is covered including Algeria Bosnia and Herzegovina Chile the Congo Ghana Nigeria Sierra Leone South Africa Sri Lanka and Turkey The possible role of regional interventions and institutions notably in West Africa and the Balkans is also examined Demilitarisation and Peace-Building in Southern Africa Peter Batchelor, 2018-12-17 First published in 2004 this work is based on a collaborative research project this trilogy considers the dynamics of demilitarisation and peace building in southern Africa in the aftermath of major violent conflicts The overall aim of the research is to support and facilitate the achievement of sustainable peace and human development in southern Africa by analysing demilitarisation and peace building processes in the region and identifying policy options and interventions for peace building The central focus of the research is the extent to which demilitarisation following the termination of wars has contributed to broad processes of peace building in the affected region Has the military in southern Africa downsized and refocused towards new roles Has there been a peace dividend allowing more investment in economic and human development thereby dealing with some of the root causes of conflict Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarisation and peace building processes applicable particularly in the southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level Ibss: Political Science: 1998 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2000-02 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures this series provides the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences Arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and place name each bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published in its field during the year of 1997 including hard to locate journal articles Each volume also includes a complete list of the periodicals consulted Beyond Settlement Vanessa E. Shields, Nicholas Baldwin, 2008 Political ideological and ethnic conflicts have resulted in countless deaths the creation of millions of refugees the destruction of livelihoods and widespread human suffering to say nothing of the economic destruction This book examines institution building and security sector reform in conflict states by analyzing eighteen case studies covering eleven countries and six decades With regard to institution building there is an analysis of four democratic levers elections the legislature the executive and devolution focusing on how the structure and function of these political institutions contribute to the management and reduction of conflict and to the consolidation of fragile democracies Concerning security sector reform there is an analysis of how military police and intelligence institutions are reformed in states that are coming out of conflict states that are moving beyond settlement Some of the conflicts in this study are ongoing Palestine while others have been resolved Spain South Africa while still others are in a peace building or immediate post conflict stage Northern Ireland Team Diversity and Inclusion in Defence and Security

Barbara T. Waruszynski, Yantsislav Yanakiev, Daniel P. McDonald, 2025-07-26 As a toolkit for the issues and challenges of diversity and inclusion in defence and security organizations this state of the art book allows leaders managers practitioners and personnel to examine international perspectives on the current research best practices lessons learned and strategies for promoting greater teamwork collaboration trust cohesion and organizational performance Authors discuss critical areas such as a gender ethnic and cultural diversity b international case studies that employ diverse and inclusive management practices c inclusive team based and transformational leadership d evidence based approaches to understanding best practices and lessons learned in diversity and inclusion and e methods innovative strategies programs and recommendations to help promote greater team engagement resilience and adaptability in defence and security This book moves beyond theoretical discussions and provides practical approaches and recommendations to generate effective problem solving innovation and creativity across organizations By embracing team diversity and inclusion practices organizations can better leverage diverse knowledge skills and experiences to help build a sustainable culture where people work together to achieve effective solutions to real world problems Securing Sierra Leone, 1997-2013 Peter Albrecht, Paul Jackson, 2015-06-19 Between 1991 and 2002 Sierra Leone was wracked by a devastating civil war and the complete collapse of state institutions Since then however the UK s contribution to post war reconstruction has been widely held up as an example of successful stabilisation and state building particularly of the country s security and justice institutions Securing Sierra Leone 1997 2013 examines how the process of state building through security sector reform developed in Sierra Leone and the impact of this experience on international conceptualisations of such reform as well as on international interventions more broadly The study is the most detailed of its kind based on a comprehensive analysis of UK engagement in Sierra Leone between 1997 and 2013 including a host of first hand accounts from key local and international actors This monograph shows why the UK intervention in Sierra Leone has been a relative success However it also questions the sustainability of state building efforts that are driven by concepts of the liberal state In Sierra Leone critical challenges remain not least in the combination of a particular vision of what a state should look like and the unrealistic expectations of progress on the part of the international community Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples Comparative Constitutionalism and Good Governance in the Commonwealth John Hatchard, Muna Ndulo, Peter Slinn, 2004-07-08 The central role that good effective and capable governance plays in the economic and social development of a country is now widely recognised Using the Commonwealth countries of eastern and southern Africa this book analyses some of the key constitutional issues in the process of developing strengthening and consolidating the capacity of states to ensure the good governance of their peoples Utilising comparative material the book seeks to draw lessons both positive and negative about the problems of constitutionalism in the region and in doing so critically addresses the legal issues involved in seeking to make constitutions work in practice Institutional Change and the Political Transition in Hong Kong Ian Scott, 2016-07-27 Scott focuses on Hong Kong's political bureaucratic and legal institutions. The first section is concerned with public opinion on institutional provisions, voting systems and political parties. The second deals with current problems facing the executive, legislature, bureaucracy and legal system. The third part considers the effects of Chinese rule on the social and economic context in which Hong Kong's institutions will or will not function. Scott concludes with a discussion of possible scenarios of institutional development.

The Oxford Handbook of Space Security Saadia M. Pekkanen, P. J. Blount, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Space Security focuses on the interaction between space technology and international and national security processes. Saadia M. Pekkanen and P. J. Blount have gathered a group of key scholars who bring a range of analytical and theoretical perspectives to take an analytically eclectic approach to assessing space security from an international relations (IR) theory perspective. Bringing together scholarship from a group of leading experts, this volume explains how these contemporary changes will affect future security in from and through space.

The Elusive Promise of NGOs in Africa S. Dicklitch, 1998-07-13 Dicklitch challenges the dominant discourse of neo-liberalism which places NGOs and civil society at the forefront of democratization and development in Africa. Based on nine months of field research in Uganda, the study draws on evidence from the successfully liberalizing country and shows how NGO potential for democratization and development has been subverted by state directives, structural and historical conditions as well as the internal limitations of NGOs.

Crises of Governance in Asia and Africa Sandra J. MacLean, Fahimul Quadir, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001. Investigating the relations between ethnicity and governance in Asia and Africa and going well beyond traditional and orthodox treatments, this volume is not only a stimulating text but also an invaluable tool for original and innovative research.

Racism and Public Policy Y. Bangura, R. Stavenhagen, 2005-04-05 In a time when racism is on the rise as a source of conflict and social justice has been increasingly demanded by the civic society, this collection stands as a timely reminder that to ignore the racial factor in the globalization forces is as mistaken as eliminating class analysis. The essays published here supplement the literature of comparative race relations from the standpoint of the theory of institutional racism and its effect on public policies such as immigration, citizenship, security and policing.

The United Nations in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific Roderic Alley, 2016-07-27 This study of the United Nations in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific evaluates the organization's role and performance in Cambodia and over refugees regarding human rights, development, environment and the needs of women within regional cooperation and as an instrument of state policy. These cases illustrate how multilateral conduct through the United Nations provides a barometer indicating the intensity with which policy initiatives and values are sustained by relevant governmental interests alike. In the regional settings considered, conduct towards and within the UN has amplified unresolved value differences regarding relations with major powers, sustainability and national identity.

Unmaking of the torturer Elaine Bing, 2013-10-01 Three policemen tell the horrifying stories of what they had done during the apartheid years how where and whom they had tortured They don't try to negate their part in the events and in fact have taken a great risk in telling their stories
